HOW TO BE HAPPY—THO MARRIED

We may be getting into deep water in attempting to give advice on a question which many wiser heads than ours have failed to successfully answer. But knowing that the object of marriage is happiness, we wish to give one piece of advice that will be found useful and valuable. It is to let us furnish your nest for you. Our line of Furniture is one well adapted to this purpose. Just drop in and let us suggest to you an arrangement for your parlor, your dining room, your bed room, or all of them.

The old cemetery in south Springfield, long since in disuse, has been so sadly neglected and desecrated, that it is no longer desirable for the purpose, and relatives are removing the bodies of loved ones to other resting places. Time has so completely obliterated the markings on several graves that their identity is completely lost, and, since no plot was ever made of the cemetery, there are a great number that will never be exactly located.

The Creswell Furniture House and Creswell Ten Cent Store, of both of which J. E. Thomas is proprietor, were opened Saturday night.
