LADIES FROM ALBANY COLLEGE GOOD ENTERTAINERS.

Interesting Talks on School Work Interspersed With Well-Rendered Music.

At the Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon four members of the faculty of Albany college were tendered a splendid reception by the Ladies Aid society and members and friends of the church. These ladies are traveling in the interest of Albany college, the only Presbyterian college on the Pacific coast, and briefly outlined the work of the school, interspersing the program with one of the best vocal concerts heard in this city for some time.

First on the program was a quartet by Mrs. Flo, Miss Anderson, Mrs. Crooks, and Miss Ervine: a, No Evil Shall Befall Thee; b, Peggy. Solo: a, Crocuses; b, Daffodils, Mrs. Flo.

Miss Anderson gave a brief address about the aim of the Christian college. Solo: a, Nervana; b, Irish Songs, Mrs. Flo.

Mrs. Crook gave an interesting talk on "The Product of the Christian College," followed by a splendid solo by Mrs. Flo. Miss Irvine gave an address on "The Work and Need of Albany College."

A trio, "The Owl and the Pussy Cat," and a quartet "Kentucky Babe," concluded the program, each number being heartily enjoyed.

Those present were then invited to the banquet room to enjoy a social time. Fruit punch and wafers were served, Miss Emma Job presiding at the punch bowl.

The members of the Emanon club entertained their husbands at a very pleasant affair Monday evening at the home of Mrs. C. E. Umphrey. Bow Jerusalem, Bow Jericho and spin the platter were the initial amusements of the evening. Guests were then given pencil and paper, instructed to close their eyes and draw a picture of a heart, out of which they were then to make a face. S. L. Mackin and Mrs. Horace Cochran carried off the prizes. This was followed by a game of throwing a rubber ball at red paper hearts hung by cords. B. B. Groff and Mrs. Horace Cochran won head and booby prizes. After a game of progressive somerset, in which Bert Richmond and Mrs. Allison carried off head prizes and Mrs. Scott and Elbert Bede foot prizes, luncheon was served, consisting of sandwiches, pickles, cake and coffee. The hand-burned place cards, to which fresh violets were attached, were very pretty and attractive.

Music was furnished during the evening on one of Marion Veatch's violins.

Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames C. E. Umphrey, S. L. Mackin, Nelson Durham, Elbert Bede, A. Richmond, F. H. Cook, S. V. Allison, B. B. Groff, Horace Cochran, S. M. Scott.

CONGREGATE TO NUMBER OF ONE HUNDRED.

Enjoy Big Feed and Enter Into Parlor Games With Spirit of Former Youth.

The married people of the Methodist church parish congregated at Phillips hall last night to the number of about 100, and the women enjoyed immensely a banquet furnished, cooked and served entirely by the men, consisting of oyster stew, sandwiches, pickles, celery and coffee. The superintendents of the commissary department were G. M. Hall, Nate Compton and B. S. Swengel. The only one who complained of not getting enough was A. L. Monroe, who certainly does like oyster stew. Frank Wheeler said he got more than enough.

Elegant music was rendered during the evening by a four-piece orchestra consisting of G. E. Wood, Merle Scoville, Horace Cochran and Mrs. Robt. Sutcliffe.

There was a solo by Sam L. Mackin and a duet by Otho Hart and Albert Woodard, both numbers heartily enjoyed. These were followed by parlor games.

By a unique method no woman was allowed to have her own husband as a partner for the evening, which seemed to add much to the enjoyment of the occasion. Under this arrangement W. C. Conner got considerably more than his share.

None but married people were eligible, and the crowd was greatly amused by the appearance of a newly married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Michael Flannigan, impersonated by Miss Nancy Whitsett and Chester Banta.

Mrs. C. J. Kem, assisted by Mrs. F. W. Robbins, entertained a number of friends at the Kem residence last Thursday evening in a very delightful manner. The game of the evening was "figures" and for being the best in addition Mrs. W. H. Abrams and Mr. H. O. Thompson carried off the honors, two beautiful little pictures. The consolation Mrs. Thompson succeeded in securing. Delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames W. H. Abrams, H. A. Miller, A. C. Kinter, J. N. Waterhouse, M. Veatch, Elbert Bede, F. L. Ingram, H. O. Thompson, F. W. Robbins, C. J. Kem.

A Freshmen-Sophomore party was held in Phillips hall Saturday evening. About 25 were present. Odd games and rag-chewing were the diversions of the evening. Refreshments were served.

Miss Mamie Kime, at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Kime, entertained the local telephone force at dinner Friday in honor of the birthday of Miss Daisy Hawkins. Those present besides the hostess were: Miss Daisy Hawkins, Miss Clara Grooms, Miss Alice Counts, Miss Lotta Veatch.

Miss Osie Ann Currin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Currin, was quietly married at high noon Sunday to Vernon M. Fields at the city home of the bride's parents.

Felix Currin, father of the bride, is one of the oldest and best known pioneers of the Willamette, and has gained a wide reputation because of the success of his experiments with grains and grasses at his large Walnut Avenue farm. Mr. Fields is an operator for the Southern Pacific at this station.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert Sutcliffe of the Methodist church. Only relatives and intimate friends were present. The bride was dressed in pure white, a net over mesaline.

An elegant dinner was served immediately following the wedding ceremony, which took place under a large paper bell. Many beautiful and useful presents were received. The cutting of the large wedding cake was a feature of the occasion.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lands, of Creswell, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. King, Mrs. Currin Cooley and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Currin, Mrs. Dora Fields, of this city, and Mrs. Craighead of Springfield.

A splendid luncheon was served, consisting of salads, sandwiches, cake and coffee. A jolly afternoon was spent. About twenty guests were present who presented Mrs. Garrouette with two handsome rocking chairs in honor of her anniversary.

Miss Daisy Hawkins pleasantly entertained the members of the local telephone force at her home last Friday evening in honor of her birthday. The evening was enjoyably spent in games and music and dainty refreshments were served.

HINTS FOR THE BUSY HOUSEWIFE

Ash Sifting Shovel With Cinder Crusher Attached.

An ingenious implement for sifting ashes is the ash sifting shovel designed by a New York man and shown herewith. As will be understood by the name, it performs two operations practically simultaneously. The scoop of the shovel, which is unusually capacious, is meshed and bound in iron strips. In the back is a series of sharp toothed wheels, projecting slightly through slots in the bottom of the scoop, so that when the latter is passed over a supporting surface the wheels revolve and cut the larger cinders into pieces small enough to fall through the mesh. Good coal will be too hard to break up in this way. Therefore as a man takes a shovelful of ashes from the heater he need only turn to an ash box with a strip on top, on which to operate the wheels, and pass the shovel across this once or twice.

Boiled Salad Dressing.

Four tablespoonfuls of sifted flour, four tablespoonfuls of sugar, one tablespoonful of mustard and one-quarter of a teaspoonful of turmeric powder. Mix the above with enough cold water to make a thick paste. Next stir in one egg, then add a cupful of boiling water in which one-half of a teaspoonful of black pepper has stood for five minutes and add one cupful of vinegar. Mix all and strain through a coarse muslin. Then add two cupfuls of milk. Put in a double boiler and cook until thick and creamy. Remove from the stove and add one and one-half teaspoonfuls of salt and butter the size of an egg. If too thick add more milk, or to make it more delicious add cream. This will make a quart of nice salad dressing.

Delicious Chicken Pie.

Stew two good sized chickens until tender with a small slice of bacon added and unless very fat a little butter and salt to season. When done remove all bones, then add the liquor to make it very juicy, with plenty of pepper and flour stirred in to thicken. Crust.—Take one and a half cupfuls of good sour cream and half a cupful of buttermilk, half a cupful of lard, a little salt and one teaspoonful of soda. Flour to make a dough soft and easy to handle. Line a pan with half of the dough, pour in the chicken filling and cover with the remaining dough, leaving plenty of air holes. Bake one hour.

Hot Pot.

Cut into inch wide strips half a pound of beefsteak or mutton. Peel one and a half pounds of potatoes and two large onions. Use a stone jar having a lid (a bean crock will do). Place a layer of meat in the bottom, then a thin layer of sliced onions and then a layer of sliced potatoes. Sprinkle over a little flour, pepper and salt, and so on, having some larger pieces of potatoes on top and finishing with flour. Lastly add at one side half a pint of water, put on the lid and bake three-quarters of an hour. Remove the lid and brown on top.

Chopped Meat Pie.

Chop meat, raw or cooked, one or two kinds, if they blend well, as veal and ham, beef and pork, enough to make about two cupfuls and season. Make a good biscuit crust of two cupfuls of flour, roll not too thick, longer than wide, put the meat in and wet the edges, pinch together on the top and bake in a quick oven about twenty minutes. Have ready some gravy. If none is left over make some with a little of the meat, pour over the pastry and return to the oven for about ten minutes.

East Indian Curry.

For an East Indian curry dredge with flour a large onion cut into thin slices, an apple chopped fine and half a cupful of green peas drained from a can. Add two level teaspoonfuls of curry and cook in a couple of tablespoonfuls of butter until the flour and onion brown, then add hot water or, better, real stock. Put in a chicken that has been cut into the usual pieces and simmer the mixture slowly until the chicken is tender. Season with salt and serve around a mound of hot boiled rice.
