

TWO BITS A MONTH WILL KEEP YOU CLEAN

Of course you want to be sweet and clean, and the price might make little difference, but if you can get the desired result cheaper we feel certain you will have no objections.

Two Large Cakes of Our Harmony Rose Soap and the Wash Cloth for 25c

Will keep you clean a month, and much longer for that matter. Harmony Rose is a delicately scented pure and transparent glycerine soap. It is about as fine as anything you can get in the toilet line—and you get your money back if not satisfied.

In honor of Miss Emma Job and Miss Ethel Eakin, whose engagements were recently announced, Mrs. F. D. Wheeler and Mrs. N. E. Compton gave a shower Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. D. Wheeler. The manner of the shower was a very pretty and unique one. The guests were divided into two rooms, where they tucked dainty comforts which were presented to the brides-elect and an enthusiastic time was enjoyed by the two sides to see who could get a comfort tucked first. Toasts were matched to secure partners for lunch and were read to the health of the brides-elect and two very popular young men. Dainty refreshments were served and this was voted one of the most unique and enjoyable affairs of the season. The invited guests were: Mrs. B. R. Job and daughter Miss Emma, Mrs. Smith and daughter Miss Jennie, Mrs. J. B. Lewis and daughter Miss Gertrude Burdick, Mesdames Jas. Benson, A. L. Monroe, H. A. Miller, H. O. Thompson, J. H. Chambers, C. P. Jones, Robt. Sutcliffe, Henry Veatch, Frank Phillips, J. W. Wilson, Geo. Hall, Armand Wynne, W. H. Abrams, Geo. Kerr, F. D. Wheeler, N. E. Compton, Miss Ethel Eakin and Miss Neva Perkins.

Are you going to invite some one to a party? Why not have nice, neat, stylishly printed invitations. $1.00 up. The Sentinel.

A pretty valentine party was given by Mrs. Price's Sunday school class at the Christian church Wednesday of last week. This class entertained the members of Mr. Protzman's class and a delightful evening was spent in games and a general good time. Partners were chosen for supper by matching hearts and all partook of a dainty luncheon, which was served at small tables. About fifty were present, including invited guests.

Ora Lee Nichols, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Nichols, was four years old last Saturday and in honor of the occasion, his mother invited a number of little friends to celebrate the day. After all the guests had arrived the doors leading to the dining room were thrown open, displaying a beautifully decorated room and table. Orange paper festoons were arranged from the chandelier to the corners of the room and to the table. In the center of the table stood the birthday cake ornamented with candles, held in place by tiny red rose buds. Little red candles in tiny holders were burning at each plate and the little mugs from which the children drank were given as souvenirs. To further celebrate the day Mrs. Nichols invited a number of ladies to meet Mr. Nichol's mother who is visiting in the home for a few weeks before returning to her home in Pennsylvania. The children present were: Glenn Orr, Isabel and John Bolden, Mark and Alice Thompson, Ella Counts, Lois Compton, Katherine Silsby, Opal Violette, Geneva Kime, Donna and Ora Lee Nichols, Jr. The ladies present were: Mesdames Violette, Stocks, Orr, Thompson, Kime, Chambers, Bolden, Compton, Nichols and Ora Lee Nichols.

The expense is not high for printed invitations for your party, and they are so much prettier. The Sentinel.

The Social Whirligig club was entertained last Thursday evening by Mrs. W. H. Abrams, ably assisted and abetted by His Honor, Mayor Abrams. The club took up the subject of "Local Progress." For showing the most progressiveness, F. L. Ingram and Mrs. C. J. Kem were awarded high honors. For the most stick-to-it-iveness C. J. Kem and Mrs. Marion Veatch were awarded honors and something "to boot." A most delicious luncheon was served, consisting of brick ice cream and cake, coffee and salted almonds. Those present were: Mesdames and Messrs. J. S. Medley, C. J. Kem, F. L. Ingram, Elbert Bede, A. C. Kinter, F. W. Robbins, J. N. Waterhouse, Marion Veatch, Mrs. H. O. Thompson and L. L. Sanford.

A delightful surprise was given the Misses Mabelle Greenwood and Lola Wilson on Monday evening. About twenty guests met at an appointed hour and place and gum-shoed their way to the Wilson home, West Main avenue, and took the young ladies by complete surprise, the occasion being Miss Greenwood's birthday anniversary. Miss Lola being "roped in" as it were as she had often remarked that she had never been surprised in her life and that such a thing was impossible. All who attended know she has now been surprised at least once in her life. The evening was most enjoyably spent playing games and telling (lies) stories. Miss Holcomb was champion fabricator and carried off first honors. A light lunch was served, after which Miss Mabel Wilson rendered several musical selections. Those present were: The Misses Edith Humphrey, Lena Holcomb, Margaret O'Mara, Lucy Burgess, Mabel Wilson, Mildred Pringle, Lola Wilson, Mabelle Greenwood, the Messrs. C. Banta, L. K. Phelps, L. Bisbey, F. Beidler, L. K. Sanford, M. H. Anderson, C. Harlow, R. B. Wilson, L. C. Beamer, J. W. Grant.

Mrs. F. L. Ingram delightfully entertained a number of her friends on Friday afternoon with an aluminum demonstration. A very unique contest for an aluminum prize was one of the pleasant features of the afternoon. Mrs. Senter and Jury having tied for first place, drew straws, Mrs. Jury being awarded a handsome sauce pan. Delicious refreshments, which were prepared in aluminum, were served. Those present were: Mesdames Jury, Cooper, Cook, Hemenway, White-mars, Senter, Gross, O. F. Demorest, Alta King, Ingram, Misses Bridges and Oglesby, Messrs. Grathwell and Meese.

Mrs. J. B. Lewis and daughter, Miss Gertrude Burdick, entertained ten young ladies at breakfast this morning in honor of Miss Ethel Eakin. The house was prettily decorated with American flags and cherries. Those present were: Misses Eakin, Job, Neita Hazleton, Widdersheim, Hogate, Esther M. Silsby, Currin, Perkins.

The Hefty bible class will entertain tomorrow night in Phillips hall. Among the entertaining features will be a one-act farce, "A Case of Suspension," in which ten people will take part. Miss Mildred Pringle is directing the affair.

The members of the Christian church had a most delightful and enjoyable time at the church Tuesday evening when a Martha Washington tea was given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society. The rooms of the church were prettily decorated with flags and draperies, and a large crowd of members and friends were in attendance. An interesting program, consisting of reading, music and speeches was rendered, after which the guests retired to the banquet rooms. A delicious buffet colonial luncheon, consisting of corn bread sandwiches, ginger bread and tea was served. This concluded one of the pleasant events of the week in celebration of Washington's birthday.

Miss Elsie E. Lewis, a popular young lady of this city, was married at Eugene Monday to Wilfred S. McCaleb of this city, who is a member of the firm of McCaleb & Powell.

The Young Married Ladies club met at the home of Mrs. Arms last Thursday afternoon. Refreshments were served and a pleasant time enjoyed.

Mrs. J. S. Medley was hostess to the Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church and a number of invited guests Wednesday afternoon at her pretty home on Wall street. Each member of the society purchased a linen guest towel which Mrs. Medley had kindly stamped for them and the afternoon was pleasantly spent giving instructions and embroidering the towels, which when completed are to be sold and the proceeds used for renovating and fixing up the church. Refreshments were served.

What was probably the most successful, and certainly one of the most novel, social affairs of the season was the Martha Washington social given last night in Phillips hall, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion with bunting and American flags.

All denominations were represented in the audience of some 160 people. Rev. and Mrs. Sutcliffe, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hart received at the door. About half the ladies present were dressed in costumes and powdered wigs.

Following program was rendered: Recitation, Miss Eunice Van Denburg; quartette, Stratton, Mackin, Umphrey and Conner; pantomime, J. I. Jones and Harry Hart; reading, "Courtship of Miles Standish," Miss Mildred Pringle, pantomimed by Otho Hart and Atha Widdersheim; reading, Mrs. F. W. Robbins.

Both pantomimes were especially good and all numbers were exceedingly well rendered and heartily received.

The program was followed by a grand march, in which the ladies chose their own partners. Mrs. J. I. Jones and Miss Eunice VanDenburg and partners received the prizes for best sustained characters.

Five ladies then served a chafing dish supper, consisting of creamed oysters in patties, sandwiches, pickles, marsh-mallow creams and tea.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church will give a supper, at which oysters will be served, on Friday of next week in the building one door west of The Leader office.

Mrs. Harriet Freeland of California, and F. S. Sowell, of Portland, were married yesterday at the Hotel Oregon, Rev. Robt. Sutcliffe officiating. The couple are guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bartell for a few days.

CHURCH NEWS

Presbyterian Church.—There will be the usual services Sunday, Feb. 25th.

Church of Christ.—A memorial service will be conducted at the Church of Christ next Lord's day morning at 11. The address will be delivered by the minister, V. E. Hoven, with special reference to Washington and Lincoln. The Ladies' Relief Corps, the G. A. R. veterans and the local militia will attend in a body. It is their wish to make this a union service of all the churches of the city. Special music is being prepared for the occasion. In the evening Mr. Hoven will deliver a sermon of special interest. Subject: "The Temple of God." Too much can not be said of the splendid music at all the services of the church. Director Fagan has the hearty support of a large chorus and people are delighted with the efficient service rendered.

Next Lord's day at 7:30 p. m. Robert Sutcliffe gives the third address on odd subjects from the old testament. Topic, "Dead Flies." Duet by Misses McCord and Lewis. Selections by orchestra. Public worship at 11 a. m., with sermon by pastor on "The Meaning of the Atonement." This is the first of a series by the request of members of the church. Half a dozen new scholars were enrolled on the books of the Bible school. Two hundred and four were marked on the bulletin board. The graded lessons are having a drawing power. League devotional meeting at 6:30. New comers are made to feel at home.

New members were enrolled in the men's class at the Methodist church on Sunday morning. The lending library was put in operation and doubtless will be productive of much good. The discussions were pointed but brotherly. Next week there will be a debate of much timeliness. The question: "Resolved, That our school buildings when not in use for educational purposes should be used, without any charge whatever, by the people of the district for the discussion of civic, social, economic, political and religious subjects. Affirmative, King; negative, Purvance. The members will name the legislation that in their opinion is most needed in Cottage Grove. A hearty invitation is extended to all men.

The edifice was crowded as usual at the evening service last Sunday.

sage brush and grass, everywhere."

Others who have seen the work of porcupines in the east, say there is no question but that they are the perpetrators. A peculiar thing is that not more than three or four porcupines have ever been seen in this country.

Of all those who have seen the samples of the work done by the animals, there are none who have ever heard of their doing such an extent of damage as reported in this case. Wood rats have never been known to peel any great number of trees in a short period, even when in big colonies, and porcupines will live on one tree a whole winter.

The supporters of the porcupine theory say the wood rat theory is untenable because wood rats have always been here and have never done anything like it before, while porcupines are just coming into the country. They also say that the patches of bark left along the skinned portion of the tree are what the porcupine leaves to hang on by, while the wood rat needs none.

Those who believe wood rats are doing the work, say their nests will either be found in the tops of the trees or in mounds in the earth nearby. Neither one has been found in this instance.

Those who believe it is the work of porcupines, say that the porkys will usually be found in the tops of trees in which they are working and believe that in this case the pests will be found hiding in some of the big trees, which, on account of their great height and thick foliage, would afford ideal hiding places. Only one person has reported having seen any porcupine work in this country before, and he reports that he had some fruit trees destroyed.

There seems to be little doubt as to what the animals peel off the bark for. The consensus of opinion seems to be that it is for the purpose of eating the pulpy bark underneath the hard surface, and the exhibit brought in shows that the pulp has been licked off to the wood slick and clean.

Hamilton Veatch was in the city Saturday and reported that a large strip of timber in his neighborhood has been peeled by some wild animal in the same manner as the timber on the Storey-Bracher tract.

C. J. Hurd of Irving precinct has decided to become a candidate on the republican ticket for the office of representative. Mr. Hurd has been very prominent in grange work throughout the state, and is state organizer at the present time. His petition and platform were filed with the county clerk yesterday.

BEDE & GRANT,
Cottage Grove, Ore.

Gentlemen:

Mr. Carr sent me a copy of The Sentinel and I want to congratulate you boys on getting out an excellent newspaper. It is full of good, live news, and the ads are well set, and judging from the number of them, the paper has a prosperous appearance. Cottage Grove must be a live city if The Sentinel is any criterion to go by.

FEDERAL OFFICERS GETS LAVEY

Eugene Land and Belt Line Promoter Gets Into Trouble.

Pat C. Lavey, arrested for using the United States mails to defraud, appeared in Eugene early last October, with the announcement that he had purchased a tract of 1,000 acres a little over a mile south of town. He placed page and double page advertisements in the local papers, telling of the splendid contracts he was offering on small tracts. It is not known how much money he collected in this way, but later it developed that he had only an option on the farm, and the land went back to the owner, J. Johnson.

About the same time Lavey incorporated the Eugene Belt Line and Interurban railway, with capital of $250,000, with the announced purpose of connecting Eugene, Creswell, Springfield, Coburg and Junction City with a line that would be 80 miles long.

Lavey was back just before Christmas with an English capitalist and a railroad builder, but quickly dropped out of sight. His advertising bills are still unpaid.—Eugene Register.
