Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. A. Miller, Mrs. W. H. Abrams and Mrs. H. A. Miller were hostesses at a recipe shower in honor of Miss Emma Job and Miss Ethel Eakin. The parlor was beautiful in a decorative scheme of pink and white and two pretty wedding bells were suspended from the archway. As the guests arrived the married ladies were presented with a pink and white badge which bore the letters H. C. Later in the afternoon it was announced that the letters stood for the oldest and largest club in existence, "The Housekeepers Club," and that two ladies in the room were eligible to membership, whereupon Mrs. Abrams presented badges to the two brides-elect and Mrs. Miller presented them with two envelopes containing the recipes contributed by the guests and assured them that they would find their certificates of membership in the club within the envelopes. A pretty floral contest called "A Love Affair in a Garden," was much enjoyed. Mrs. C. P. Jones read an amusing story, "The Changing Years," in a highly pleasing manner.

caused the most amusement of the evening and some of the dignified leap year girls were compelled to perform undignified feats. The guests brought a lunch, consisting of fruit, sandwiches, candy and grape juice. Those present were: Misses Haley, Hazleton, Greenwood, Lola Wilson, Mabel Wilson, Humphrey, Mildred Pringle, Holcomb, Burgess, Messrs. Banta, Martin Anderson, Moras, Sanford, Lloyd Blisby.

Mrs. A. L. Monroe entertained the Social Twelve Embroidery club at the home of Mrs. Geo. Hall last Thursday afternoon. A brief business meeting was held and the following officers elected: Mrs. Geo. Hall, president; Mrs. L. S. Hill, vice-president; Mrs. H. A. Miller, secretary and treasurer and Mrs. J. S. Medley, instructor.

After a social hour a St. Patrick Day luncheon was served. The place cards were cut in the shape of shamrocks and an Irish joke written on the back of each. Jello with whipped cream, cake and candy were served, all carrying out the color scheme of green and white. Besides the members, Mesdames J. H. Chambers and F. W. Robbins were present as invited guests.

The Euterpean club held its regular meeting in Phillips hall Friday night and there was a large attendance. The following program, under the able management of Miss Esther Silsby, was rendered:

Vocal solo, "Rose of My Heart," Miss Ursula Lockwood; vocal solo, "Love's Sorrow," Mr. Hart; vocal solo, "Marguerite," Albert Anderson; vocal solo, "Teach Me to Pray," Miss Blanche Veatch. Each number was heartily enjoyed. Games and a chorus rehearsal were then enjoyed and refreshments served by Otho Hart and Albert Anderson.

Mrs. Elbert Bede entertained Friday in honor of Miss Ruth's seventh birthday anniversary. There were twelve of her schoolmates present. Dainty refreshments were served.

A pretty leap year and St. Patrick party was given by the Christian Endeavor society of the Christian church Friday evening. After a brief business session the program began with a question game, the answers being names of trees. Paper cut in the shape of Shamrocks were distributed in halves, which were matched for partners. The gentlemen were given newspapers to make dresses for their partners, pins being the only article used in the work. The prize for the best made dress was awarded to Ernest Lebow, Seldon Powell receiving the booby.

Supper was served in the Endeavor room. Games and music were enjoyed until a late hour.

Miss Lula Currin and Miss Neva Perkins gave a very charming afternoon at the Currin home Saturday in honor of Miss Emma Job and Miss Ethel Eakin. The rooms were prettily decorated with daffodils, ivy and Oregon grape. The first part of the afternoon was spent in sewing and social chat. Later the guests in pairs were given bundles of newspapers from which they were to evolve various stories relating to the two brides-elect. The pasted newspaper reports were finished after much merriment and thought. Covers were laid at the tables for the guests who found their places by clever name cards on which were various cooking utensils. Refreshments of pressed chicken, graham sandwiches, olives, coffee, pineapple ice, cakes and mints were served by the hostesses. Afterward the amusing newspaper stories were read. The guests were: Mesdames Job, Miller, Abrams, Jones, Veatch, Kerr, Thompson, Benson, King, A. Wynne, S. E. Wynne, Ryan, Smith, Misses Lea, White and Kennon.

A mortgage for $50,000 from the Pacific Coast Timber Co., given to the Union Trust Co. and John K. Lyon, trustees, covering timber land in Washington, Tillamook and Lane counties, was filed for record this week. The filing fee was $32.40.

Lane county will receive $3,500 as its share of the returns for timber sold out of the forest reserve during 1911.

A surprise party was tendered Jack W. Grant Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Bede. The evening was pleasantly spent in such games as pounding nails for the girls, sewing on buttons for the men, spin the platter, etc. Redeeming the forfeits after the spin the platter game Lord's day at 6:30 p. m. You will enjoy meeting with them. The Bible school is a live wire. Superintendent Fagan makes things move. It is graded and has classes for everybody. 9:45 is the time.—Reported by pastor.

Methodist Church.—Last Sabbath morning's service was one long to be remembered. Six adults and one young woman were received into membership. Others are thinking of taking this step. The bible school reached high water mark. Two hundred and fifteen were the figures marked on the bulletin. It seemed as if every class had new members. The newly organized married woman's class, taught by J. Sams, had sixteen in attendance. In the primary department a sand tray has been installed for the tots. Other apparatus will be secured at once. For next Lord's day an interesting and profitable program has been prepared. Public worship at 11 with address by the pastor on "Non-Essentials Magnified." People's popular service at 7:30. Robert Sutcliffe takes for his subject: "The Winning of the South Pole." It will be a speech brimful of interest and inspiration, something that will appeal to every man who has got a drop of red blood in his veins. Reading by Miss Myrtle Kem. Bible school at 9:45. Classes for everybody. Epworth League at 6:30 conducted by Emmet Hale.

At 10 a. m. the Lend-a-Hand Men's class will study "The Brotherhood Movement." One of the features of the session will be a debate on this question: "Resolved, That it is utterly impossible to live a brotherly life under existing conditions." Affirmative, Morris; negative, DeLong.

Church of Christ.—Last Lord's day evening the largest audience assembled that has come together for many months. The main auditorium and both side rooms were filled to hear the children sing and the sermon on the New Testament Church. Mr. Fagan is to be complimented for the splendid work he is doing for the children, which was evidenced by their singing. They had full charge of the music for the evening. Next Friday evening the class in Training for Service, taught by V. E. Hoven, will have its monthly social in the parlors of the church.

Next Lord's day the sermon subject will be as follows: 11 a. m.: "Christ's Spiritual Code, Sec. 1." 7:30 p. m.: "Ten Reasons Why We Preach the Word." This will be of special interest to those who come to church to hear nothing but the Bible. Is all the converting power of God in the word alone? What does the Word of God do? Come and hear. Last Lord's day evening the C. E. was favored with a visit from the state president, Mrs. Mary Benton of Eugene. It meets next
