COTTAGE GROVE CORN FOR SEED

Felix Currin Makes Shipment to Plant Introduction Gardens at Chico, Calif.

The value of seed corn raised on a Cottage Grove farm is well indicated by the following letter, which speaks for itself:

United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Plant Industry.—Washington, D. C., February 3, 1912.—Mr. Felix Currin, Cottage Grove, Ore.—Dear Mr. Currin: Your letter of January 22nd has been received. Am pleased to note that you can furnish us some seed of your white corn. I enclose bill of lading herewith and request that you send a barrel of this corn, containing two or three bushels, to the Plant Introduction Gardens at Chico, Calif., at your earliest convenience. I enclose also a voucher which you may use in submitting your bill for seed and packing to us.

Thanking you for these favors, I am,
 Very truly yours,

POPULAR COUPLE ARE MARRIED

Wedding of Emma McKeen Job and Chas. Adams is Prominent Affair.

One of the prettiest and most prominent weddings of the season took place last evening when Miss Emma McKeen Job became the bride of Charles Adams at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. B. R. Job.

The parlors were beautifully decorated with ferns, golden daffodils and yellow candles and same scheme being carried out in the dining room, with huge bouquets of ferns and daffodils adorning the center of the dining table and sideboard. In the drawing room the soft glow from the lighted candles, and the big double window, the latter banked with ferns, made a charming setting for the bridal party.

The guests were met at the door by Miss Margaret Brace, and were received by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones.

The bride appeared exceptionally beautiful and charming in a robe of white silk poplin train, with trimmings of pearl fringe and lace with which she wore a tulle veil, held in place by a spray of lilies of the valley. The bridal bouquet was a shower of lilies of the valley.

Promptly at 8 o'clock to the strains of Mendelssohn's beautiful wedding march, Prof. Waterhouse presiding at the piano, the bride descended the stairs and was joined at the foot of the stairs by her father, who escorted her to her position in front of the large decorated window, where they were met by the groom, dressed in the conventional black. Rev. Mason stepped forward and in a few well chosen words performed the beautiful ring ceremony in the presence of about sixty invited guests.

The bride is the only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Job, and is highly accomplished, being a student of the U. of O., and a member of the Delta Delta Delta fraternity. She is very popular in Cottage Grove and received many honors in the way of showers and receptions previous to her marriage.

Mr. Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Adams of Oakland, Calif., is an exemplary young man and is superintendent of the Southern Pacific tie plant at Latham.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held and refreshments were served, consisting of tutti frutti ice cream, cake and coffee, the bride cutting the cake at the head of the bridal table. Misses Dorothy Schoolcraft, Elizabeth Wayne, Elizabeth Taylor and Mozelle Hair, of Eugene, fraternity sisters of the bride, and Miss Burdick assisted in serving, and also sang a very appropriate college toast to the bride and groom.

The bride threw her bouquet, which was caught by Miss Belle Burkholder. During the reception a bunch of college girls slipped out and serenaded with appropriate college songs, adding glee to the happy occasion.

Mrs. Job, mother of the bride, was charming in a handsome gown of dark blue silk poplin draped with marquisette, trimmed in chenille fringe and gold bands.

Mrs. Adams, mother of the groom, was gowned in black silk with rich trimmings of lace.

Many beautiful gowns were worn by guests, making a charming picture.

The bride's going away gown was of dark blue with tan hat trimmed in American Beauty velvet.

The happy couple left on the morning overland train for an extended honeymoon in Southern California. They will make their future home in this city, their new residence, now in course of construction, to be completed upon their return.

The popularity of the bride and groom was evidenced by the large number of handsome presents received. The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. James Adams and Frank Adams, of Oakland, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. James O. Wilson, Corvallis; Mrs. Coffin, Portland; the Misses Dorothy Schoolcraft, Elizabeth Wagner, Elizabeth Lewis and Mozelle Hair of Eugene.

A "hen" party was given last night on Miss Lucy Burgess at the Lewis home. Conversation was the principal amusement. Refreshments were served on papers laid on the floor. Those present were: Misses Haley, Humphrey, Iversen, Wikie, Greenwood, Pringle, Holcombe, Lola and Mabel Wilson.

Mrs. S. V. Allison very pleasantly entertained the Emanon club last Thursday afternoon. All the ladies present gave quotations from Longfellow. A delicious luncheon was served, consisting of St. Patrick's ice cream, chicken sandwiches, devil's food and coffee. Those present were Mesdames Bisby, Durham, Groff, Richmond, Cochran, Atkinson, Umphrey, Mackin, Bede, Corey, Scott. The guests of honor were Mrs. Allison's mother and Mrs. Fay Allison.

An unusually pleasant social event was the entertainment of the Social Whirl club last Thursday evening at the commodious home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Miller. The "Whirling" was done in the reception room in the second story of the home. St. Patrick's Day effects were carried out in everything. Mrs. Argalus L. Monroe and C. C. Cruson won head honors and Mrs. H. O. Thompson and J. N. Waterhouse foot honors. At eleven o'clock the party descended to the dining rooms and found their places by "nifty" shamrock place cards inside of which was an Irish poem, which the guests read to the assembled company. Partners were seated opposite one another. St. Patrick brick ice cream, cake, wafers, olives and coffee were served. Those present were Mesdames and Messrs. W. H. Abrams, F. W. Robbins, F. L. Ingram, A. C. Kinter, J. N. Waterhouse, Elbert Bede, C. C. Cruson, S. V. Allison, A. L. Monroe, Merle Scovell, Mrs. H. O. Thompson, Marion Veatch.

Mrs. Archie Thompson entertained Saturday afternoon in honor of little Miss Avenel's sixth birthday anniversary. About ten of her friends were present and spent a pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. J. S. Medley entertained Saturday evening in honor of one of Mr. Medley's birthday anniversaries, the affair being a complete surprise to Mr. Medley. Progressive 500 was the diversion of the evening. Mrs. Ben Lurch and W. H. Abrams winning the honors. Following the games Mrs. Medley served an elegant spread, consisting of asparagus tips, hot tomatoes, ice cream, cake, nuts, pickles and coffee. Those present were Messrs. Lurch, H. A. Miller, F. W. Robbins, Elbert Bede and Miss Ada Hanson.

Mrs. J. S. Medley gave a social party Thursday in honor of Mrs. James McCreadie. Refreshments were served cafeteria style. The invited guests were:

Mesdames W. H. Abrams, H. A. Miller, G. M. Hall, L. S. Hill, F. A. Monroe, H. O. Thompson, N. E. Compton, H. Eakin, H. H. Veatch, J. H. Chambers, B. R. Job, C. P. Jones, D. H. Hemenway, J. P. Currin, J. E. Young, B. Lurch, C. L. Burnett, Jas. McCreadie, David Griggs, J. S. Benson, Misses Lula Currin, Elsie Lea Ada Hanson.

The Ladies' club gave a pleasant social in the rooms of the Commercial club Saturday afternoon, carrying out a pretty St. Patrick's Day program. The guests were presented with ribbon badges of green and white bearing the letters, "S. P. G. C.," which proved to stand for "St. Patrick's Guessing Contest." After some time spent in social chat, papers were distributed among the guests containing fourteen questions, the word "green" being stipulated to appear in the answers to each question. The contest proved to be most interesting, but there were two incorrect papers in the room, those being by Mesdames C. M. Shinn and Caldwell, who drew for the prize. Mrs. Shinn drew the lucky straw and was presented with a pretty potted shamrock plant. Mrs. Swengel received the booby. An enjoyable reading was then given by Mrs. Cruson, "Why St. Patrick's Day was on the 17th of March." Refreshments were served by the entertainment committee, Mesdames Daisy Hemenway, J. C. Johnson, G. M. Hall and Cruson.

The color scheme of green and white were carried out in the dainty luncheon of brick ice cream and cake. This closed one of the most pleasant affairs of the week and the large number of members and guests present showed that the club is in a progressing condition and doing good work.

The Oddfellows and Rebekahs enjoyed a banquet and entertainment last Thursday night, the features of which were the chicken pie supper and a lecture by Judge H. J. Shinn.

The event was in celebration of the completing of their new banquet hall, which is a fine and commodious one 40 x 37 feet. About 135 were present, being Oddfellows and their wives and Rebekahs and their husbands. The Rebekah Kensington club netted $36.20 by the sale of quilts, etc.

The following program was rendered: Grand march; instrumental music, John Nokes and Bert Richmond; reading, Eunice VanDenburg; song, Mrs. Caldwell; reading, Eunice VanDenburg; lecture, Judge H. J. Shinn.

Miss Eakin on Railroad avenue. The guests met at the home of Miss Smith and thence proceeded to the pretty home being prepared by Mr. Roy Smith, where they spread a tablecloth on the floor, decorated with ivy and daffodils. A dainty luncheon was spread, which was served in the granite-ware. When everything was in readiness Miss Eakin was sent for and a grand time was enjoyed. Some of the neighbors upon learning of the party came and serenaded them and were invited in. All report an enjoyable evening.

The following invitation was issued by Misses Allie Phillips and Atha Widdersheim for a party at the home of Miss Phillips.

Weather Forecasts for Miss Ethel Eakin.—Friday, March 15, 1912, a hoisery shower at 8 p. m., followed by continuous fair weather.—Allie and Atha, Weather Forecasters.

The guests assembled in due time in the beautifully decorated home of Miss Phillips and the merriment began by each guest being asked to dress a clay pipe in green and convert it into a doll. Miss Myrtle Kem won the prize. For the next amusement, the young ladies were asked to kiss the barney stone, which was arranged on a pretty castle in the dimly lighted parlor. A beautiful lake was represented by a moss trimmed mirror. The ladies were then given a stocking and asked to darn it. Miss Ethel Eakin proved the best skilled in this art, and was presented with two large striped socks filled with several pairs of hose as a gift from the guests. One pair of socks with the initial "R" worked on them caused much laughter. The guests were then invited to the dining room, where dainty white place cards, hose with green garters and shamrock buckle, were arranged. Green and white ice cream and cake were served. Those present were: Misses Ethel Eakin, Mable and Blanche Veatch, Jennie Smith, Loreta Atkinson, Leah Perkins, Myrtle Kem, Belle Burkholder, Ipha and Atha Widdersheim, Fern Holcomb, Mable Rosenberg, Hazel and Neita Hazelton, Veta Holderman, Flo and Allie Phillips, Mesdames Dana Lawton, Gertrude Phillips and Armond Wynne.

The Messenger Boys' class of the Presbyterian Sunday school held its semi-annual election of officers Friday evening. Teddy Mason was elected president, Harold DuBrulle, vice-president, Alta Gover, secretary, John Holden, treasurer. Games were played and refreshments served.

The ladies of the Christian church gave a very enjoyable silver social Tuesday afternoon in the Endeavor rooms of the church for the benefit of the choir. The room was prettily decorated with golden daffodils for the occasion and about forty guests were present. Miss Grace Lily sang a solo very sweetly and Mrs. Ora Hemenway gave a reading in her usual pleasing manner.

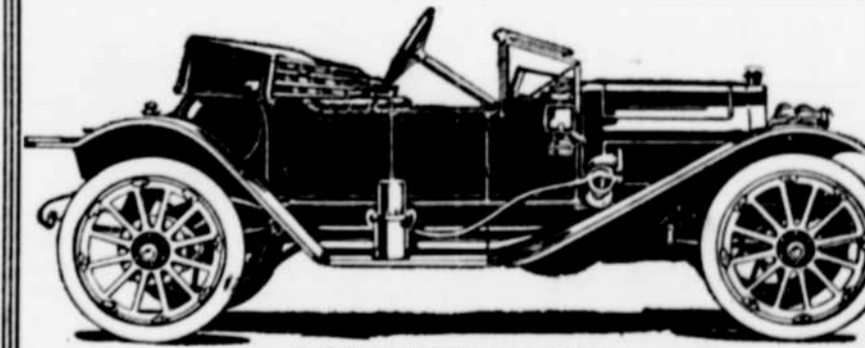

An interesting arithmetic contest was the next order of amusement, followed by a dainty luncheon of fruit punch and cake served at pretty tables. A daffodil guessing contest was the most interesting feature, in which eight guests had the correct number and drew for the prize. Miss Eunice VanDenburg was the fortunate winner of a beautiful plant of blooming hyacinths. This closed one of the most pleasant social affairs of the week.

An enjoyable dancing party was given in the Armory Saturday evening under the management of James Potts. The room was prettily decorated in green and pink and general St. Patrick's Day color scheme was carried out. A 5-piece orchestra furnished music, the home talent being assisted by Alf Dillard and Wayne Hurd of Eugene. A large crowd was present and the affair was pronounced a pleasant social success.

Mrs. C. E. Jones gave a very pleasant surprise party yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Emma B. Wilke. Refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones, Misses Greenwood, Burgess, Holcomb, Wohner, Iversen, Wikie, Humphrey, Haley and Mr. and Mrs. Purvance.

The first year of the new machine and the first year of the new driver

K. M. F. ROADSTER, 1912 MODEL

¶ Who is going to teach you to drive and control your machine? How do you know when it is consuming too much Gasoline or Lubricating Oil? Are your tires properly inflated? Are you getting the proper power out of your engine, and a hundred other different things which the new driver thinks he can never learn and which are but a matter of course to the trained driver?

¶ Do not think you are saving money by buying from some out-of-town dealer, who will split his commission with you, and bid you "good night" as soon as he gets your money? The cheapest way is to buy where you will be under the instruction of an experienced man. The first year is the hardest on both the machine and the driver, and unless you are coached for that year it may amount to three commissions.

¶ You can not expect a person to look after your machine a year if he sells you the machine without the proper commission, just to make the sale, and you have no license to expect any attention from him, either. Don't be a "GOLD BRICK DUB" Patronize home industry, LIVE AND LET LIVE, and you will benefit in the end. A satisfied buyer is our best ad.
