

We Hardly Know Where We're at— But We Want You to Know

DURING the past week we have settled down in our store room in the new Cooper building, fitted up especially for our use. We have hardly gotten our bearings yet, but we have a surprise in store for our friends in the commodious, well appointed quarters, where we will be pleased to meet them and serve them better than ever. We especially invite the ladies to take advantage of our rest room, provided especially for them.

The County Court was down last week to look over the new Comstock road recently built by the farmers of that vicinity. The members of the Court hadn't realized before what the farmers of that section were doing and were much surprised by the showing.

not only was the latter not guilty of inducing him to commit perjury, but actually warned him against the commission of the act. It would appear from the affidavit and other facts in the case that Mr. Hendricks was simply caught in the dragnet of land fraud prosecutions and, owing to the technicality of the law, could not legally escape paying the penalty for a crime of which he was innocent.

Hawks gives as his reason for making the false testimony that he himself was threatened unless he swore falsely. Suffering under the lash of his own conscience Hawks has now made a clean breast of the affair.

John M. Moore and Miss Frances Allen were married recently by Judge A. H. King.

A quiet wedding took place Wednesday evening of last week at the home of Orrin Robinson when Miss Mary Lajoie became the bride of Ellis Robinson. Only immediate relatives were present. The bride wore a cream silk viole gown and carried a large bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was performed by Judge A. H. King. The bride comes from Walker, where she was a popular member of the younger set. The bridegroom is a rancher and teamster.

Mrs. C. P. Jones gave a college girls' feed Saturday evening. Every guest was required to do a stunt. Refreshments were served. Those present were Mesdames H. H. Veatch, Herbert Eakin, B. R. Job, C. A. Adams, George Kerr, C. P. Jones and Miss Dora Schoolcraft, representing U. of O., U. of M., Iowa College and Corvallis.

Miss Margaret E. Jones and Roy E. Bellows were quietly married Sunday at the Presbyterian manse, Rev. A. S. Mason officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones and well known among the younger society set. Mr. Bellows is a merchant at Roseburg, at which place the young couple will make their home.

The bride had been employed as a saleslady for the Bellows Store Co. and it was while so employed that she met and became engaged to Mr. Bellows. The happy young couple left Monday for Roseburg, where they will be at home after August 1st in a bungalow being constructed for them.

A unique entertainment was the Dutch party given Friday evening by Mrs. F. W. Robbins. The walls of the rooms were decorated with water colors of Dutch subjects. The feature of the evening was Dutch whist, after which a Dutch lunch was served. Prizes at whist were won by Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kinter, being a Dutch cup and saucer, and a water color Dutch windmill. The consolation prizes went to Mrs. F. L. Ingram and Marion Veatch.

After lunch the guests were supplied with gum, which they were to chew and then mold figures on a piece of card furnished. Mesdames Merle Scovell and P. L. Ingram won the prizes, a Dutch plate and a water painting of a Dutch girl.

The guests were then requested to submit to being blindfolded, after which they were requested to pin a t'issue shoe on the foot of a Dutch girl pinned on the wall. Mrs. C. J. Kem and Merle Scovell carried off the prizes, water color paintings.

Those present were Mesdames and Messrs. Merle Scovell, H. A. Miller, W. H. Abrams, C. C. Cruson, A. C. Kinter, C. J. Kem, Marion Veatch, F. L. Ingram, Elbert Bede, Misses Wilcox and Baker, Mrs. Beagher, Messrs H. G. Kinter and Harry Short.

The members of the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid, assisted by members of the O. E. S., entertained Tuesday afternoon in the Brotherhood room of the Presbyterian church in honor of Mrs. A. S. Mason, the affair being in the nature of a farewell party. A miscellaneous shower was the feature of the occasion, Mrs. Mason receiving many useful and ornamental presents.

Attempting to pin the slipper on the Dutch girl while blindfolded caused much amusement and was the means of whiling away most of the spare time. Mesdames C. H. Burkholder and J. A. Wright won the honors. Those present were: Mesdames Shaw, Eakin, Brund, Knowles, Wilson, Cruson, Burkholder, M. Veatch, Scovell, Oglesby, C. P. Jones, H. H. Veatch, Silsby, Kerr, Joe Porter, Abrams, Venske, Perkins, T. C. Wheeler, Curtis Veatch, Graham, Job, C. Adams, Mary Smith, Randall, Sheppardson, Stocks, Jane Veatch, H. A. Miller, Misses Silsby and Wright.

Miss Belle Teague of Drain was married in Eugene last week to Mr. Elija Wood of Wisconsin. Mrs. Wood is very well known in Douglas county, where she had been teaching in the public schools for some time, and is a daughter of R. E. Teague, a prosperous farmer. Justice of the Peace Bryson performed the ceremony which was witnessed by a few friends of the bride.

A successful surprise party on Chas. Beidler was carried out Saturday evening, the occasion being a birthday anniversary. About fifteen couples were present. Refreshments were served.

Taken Under Advisement.
Judge Thompson listened Tuesday to arguments of attorneys in the contested final report of Administrator Oglesby in the settlement of the estate of Ben Hall, deceased, and took the matter under advisement. It is claimed by heirs that many of the bills allowed were unjustly large.

Nesmith County Not on Ballot.

The report in The Oregonian that a petition had been filed for the placing of Nesmith County on the ballot was erroneous. No such attempt was made. They only bill in which "Nesmith County" is interested this year is the proposed law for consolidation of contiguous corporations and formation of new counties. There is but one county division proposition on the ballot this year.

With large crowds present from the countryside, with everyone prepared for a day of unalloyed fun and frolic and patriotism running high, Cottage Grove's big Fourth of July celebration was pulled off without a hitch, under the direction of the Military Club.

Oakland went to pieces in the fifth inning and allowed seven Cottage Grove men to make the circuit. With one score secured by the local team in the first inning, this made Cottage Grove's eight tallies. Oakland scored in the fourth and eighth innings.

The box work by Pitcher for Cottage Grove and Medley for Oakland was good. Only one man was allowed to walk on either side and support was strong. A large crowd was present and the rooting was in proportion.

Gathering Agricultural Statistics of State

The Oregon Statistical Bureau, in co-operation with the Agricultural College, is making a preliminary agricultural survey of a number of leading farms in every county in the state. The object of this survey is primarily to determine the opportunities in each locality for new settlers and, if possible, to find some of the difficulties in agricultural development.

A number of farms in this locality will be visited during the summer by Minis Koon. Such questions as the following will be asked: The value of land, machinery, stock on hand June 1; the acreage and yield of each crop in 1911; the amount of these crops sold and the receipts; the amount of other farm products, such as milk, butter, eggs, fruit, etc., sold during the year and the receipts; the expense for labor, seed, feed, fertilizer, machinery, threshing, etc.; the methods of cultivation used and your observation of the results.

As answers will be used for the benefit of this community and of the entire state, accuracy of statement is of the utmost importance. All of the information received will be compiled in making up a final report on the general conditions of the state. All statements will be considered strictly confidential. The report of individuals will not be published without their consent. The bureau asks farmers to assist its representatives in securing the information desired. In turn the college and the Immigration Commission will aid farmers by giving advice to all who wish it.

Appeal in U. of O. Case Not to be Dismissed.

The appeal to the supreme court in the University of Oregon referendum case will not be dismissed. The permanent injunction against the secretary of state placing the referendum measure on the ballot will lie until the supreme court disposes of the matter. This was stated Friday by Secretary of State Ben W. Olcott, who is defendant in the suit, and settles the question raised by the request of Governor West of District Attorney McNary that he dismiss the suit.

"Nothing has happened to change my mind since we first appealed the suit," said Mr. Olcott. "The questions involved in the appeal are of too large importance to be dropped until the supreme court passes upon them. I think the people of the state want them settled. In addition the question is involved of what authority this office has in regard to the initiative and referendum petitions."
Judge W. T. Slater, attorney for the University, is also strongly opposed to having the appeal dismissed and the decree of the circuit court set aside, and he says the board of regents are of the same opinion.

Pacific Northwest Will Show Products of the Soil.

Instead of an apple show, Portland will hold a land products show this winter that will be the first of its kind in the Pacific Northwest. It is hoped to make it an annual event rivaling in interest the big land shows of the East and Middle West.

November or December will probably be the time of holding the show and it is planned to have it last two weeks. In scope it will cover the entire Pacific Northwest and all the states included in this territory will be asked to cooperate and send exhibits.

It is desired to have every product of the soil assembled at Portland at that time. Commercial bodies will be interested and it is hoped to develop this event into an annual attraction that will appeal to people throughout the whole country who may be attracted to the vacant lands of the Northwest states. The land show project has the support of the Oregon Development League and the chief organizations of Portland and the state.

The opening of a free public library is a most important event in any town. There is no way in which a community can more benefit itself than in the establishment of a library which shall be free to all citizens.—WILLIAM McKINLEY.
