MISS ROXIE PRINGLE JUNE BRIDE

Wedding Occurred Yesterday Afternoon at James A. Sears Home.

The wedding of Miss Roxie Leota Pringle to Mr. Daniel Omar Durham took place yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Sears.

The affair was a very quiet one, only immediate relatives being present. The bride wore a cream wove gown and carried a bouquet of cream roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mildred Pringle, gowned in pink silk and carrying a bouquet of pink roses. The bridegroom was attended by Mr. Melvin Miller of Florence. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. L. Stratford of Creswell. Mendelsohn's wedding march was played by Miss Bertha Stratford, daughter of Rev. Stratford. The parlor and dining room were decorated with white and pink roses.

The happy couple left yesterday for a short honeymoon trip to Portland, after which they will take up their residence at Gaston, Ore.

The bride has been a popular member of the younger society set of the city. The bridegroom is a recent arrival from Minneapolis, Minn.

Miss Elsie May Brewer and Arthur E. Spray were quietly married Sunday at the bride's home, Rev. Robt. Sutcliffe officiating. Miss Brewer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Brewer and Mr. Spray the son of Mrs. Alta Spray.

Earl McKinney and Mrs. Mary Willette, both of this city, were married at Eugene Saturday by Justice R. S. Bryson.

There will be an unusually interesting meeting of the Eastern Star Friday night, when the floral degree will be put on.

The following invitations have been issued during the past week: Weather Report: The Weather Bureau of Cottage Grove predicts that the home of the Worthy Matron will be in the storm center Saturday afternoon from 2:30 to 5:30 p. m. A high wind will be accompanied by a miscellaneous shower for Miss Anna Oglesby, followed by sunshine and continual fair weather. Officers of the Weather Bureau, Sisters Ruth, Esther, Martha and Electra, of Cottage Grove Chapter No. 4, O. E. S.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Robbins entertained a few friends last Thursday evening in honor of their guests, Miss Ina Baker, of Antioch, Calif., and Mrs. A. E. Noth, of Medford. After progressive 500, refreshments were served. Besides the guests and Dr. and Mrs. Robbins, those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kinter, Harry Kinter and Harry Short.

The marriage of Miss Anna Oglesby to Mr. James P. Graham will occur Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents. No invitations have been issued, and the affair will be a quiet one.

A mothers' meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at 3 p. m. tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Smith.

Miss Lulu Yeoman and Mr. Clarence Kemp were married at Creswell at high noon last Thursday, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Dunlop, assisted by Rev. Stratford. The affair, which was a large society function, occurred at the home of the brides' parents two miles north of Creswell.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church entertained yesterday afternoon at Miss Esther Silsby's in honor of Miss Jennie Woods, who leaves soon for an extended visit in the East. As a token of the appreciation of the work done by Miss Woods the members of the Aid presented her with a box of handkerchiefs. Miss Silsby and Mrs. C. H. Burkholder served sherbert and cake.

Prune Crop Not So Bad.
It now develops that the prune crop has not been so seriously damaged as growers were wont to say some three weeks ago. Some of the trees in orchards near McMinnville have plenty of prunes and they are already of good size. The real point about the prune business is cultivation of the soil and careful attention to the trees. Growers who cultivated their orchards carefully will have a good crop.—McMinnville News-Reporter.
