CELEBRATE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Kem Host and Hostess at Unique Affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kem celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary Monday evening in a very unique manner. Mrs. Robbins and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Shinn received at the door. When the guests had all arrived, Mrs. Beager played the wedding march. Judge Shinn came in first, then Little Julian Kem came down the stairs carrying a cabbage and a large tin wedding ring.

Mrs. Kem and bridesmaid followed; then Mr. Kem and best man, Mr. Kinter. Mrs. Kem wore her wedding dress of 10 years before and a wedding veil draped gracefully from a tin crown on her head. Mrs. Kinter also wore her wedding dress. The bride carried a bouquet of white marguerites tied with the same ribbon as her original wedding bouquet. Mrs. Kinter carried a bouquet of nasturtiums.

Mr. Kem was dressed in a Prince Albert suit and charmed the ladies. Mr. Kinter wore a dress suit and caused much merriment.

Judge Shinn performed the wedding ceremony, which was original, interesting and amusing.

After the ceremony, congratulations and kisses were showered on the bride and groom. While congratulations were being given, Mesdames Cruson, Kerr, Beager and Mr. Shinn sang "Everbody's Doin' It" which seemed quite appropriate. The bride looked very sweet after her 10 years of wedded bliss. After the wedding the guests were invited to help themselves to cake and punch. The wedding cake, which was a massive white one, embellished with a tin vase in the center filled with roses, was cut by the bride.

The house was decorated daintily in white crepe streamers and tin covers tied on the curtains. There also were the tin figures 10 in each room. Mr. and Mrs. Kem received several gifts. One was a beautiful chafing dish presented to them by fourteen couples. Other gifts were mostly of aluminum, including several aluminum kettles. Mr. Kem treated the men to cigars and they retired to the porch for a social talk and smoke.

The evening was completed by the old time charvari. Several of the men sneaked out, secured old pans, boilers, wash tubs, etc., and did the thing right.

Those present were Mesdames and Messrs. H. Venske, G. H. Tyson, E. Bede, C. M. Shinn, O. M. Kem, J. Hermon, G. M. Hall, A. W. Kime, D. Sterling, J. P. Graham, H. J. Shinn, M. Veatch, F. W. Robbins, J. S. Medley, A. C. Kinter, H. A. Miller, M. Scovell, W. H. Abrams, J. N. Waterhouse, Geo. Kerr, Mesdames Oglesby, F. D. Wheeler, C. Cruson, O. Spear, Ilma Beager, Misses Myrtle Kem, Allie Phillips, Audrey Langdon, Blanch Lizar.

Mrs. B. S. Swengel entertained Tuesday afternoon in honor of her guests, Mrs. Crawley and two daughters. The afternoon was spent with needlework, but was socially successful as well. At 5 o'clock Mrs. Swengel passed numbers and each guest found her place at the table. The tables were very pretty with ferns and bouquets. Fruit salad and little biscuits were served as first course, and were followed by strawberry ice cream, several kinds of cake and coffee. The following were present: Mesdames Roy Smith, Brainard, Job, Adams, Kerr, Groff, Bede, Cruson, Kinter, Waterhouse, Shaw, Robbins, Hall, Medley, Miller, Lurch, Eakin, Hill, Compton, Wheeler, M. Veatch, Monroe and Abrams.

Mrs. Lou E. Dunn, who celebrated her 72d birthday anniversary Tuesday at her home on Willamette Court was pleasantly surprised twice in honor of the occasion. He son arranged a surprise dinner party for her, and in the afternoon a number of her feminine friends called unexpectedly and left a number of presents. Those present at the latter affair were Mesdames Amos Stewart, Hartung, Gowdy, Brumfield, Solway, John Taylor, Jas. Allison, Edgington, Smithley and Miss Eva Hartung.

There was a surprise dance Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Chamberlain, who live on the J. H. Potts' place. The crowd arrived in hay racks, buggies, autos and by other means and met at the Spur, about a half mile from the house. At 9:30 all proceeded to the house, where the host and hostess were soon awakened. Several hours were spent in old fashioned quadrilles, waltzes and two-steps. Light refreshments, which had been previously prepared by some of the guests were then served. The crowd was composed of young people living in the locality of Row River, Mosby Creek, Dorena and a few from Cottage Grove, there being thirty in all.

The Emerson Club will meet this afternoon with Mrs. Ben Groff.

A surprise party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Barnett last Thursday before their departure for California. A story-telling-contest caused much amusement. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Barnett.

Mrs. C. J. Kem and Mrs. Marion Veatch entertained last Thursday afternoon at the Kem home in honor of Mrs. F. W. Robbins' guests, Misses Mia Nason and Ina Baker and Mrs. C. W. Kenny of Antioch, Calif. Elegant refreshments were served. Those present were the hostesses, Mrs. Robbins and her guests and Mrs. A. C. Kinter.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Swengel entertained a small gathering on Tuesday evening at cards. A pleasant evening was spent in this manner, after which a daintily prepared lunch was served. Those present were the Misses Ruth and Sadie Blair, Gladys and Virginia Crowley, Fern and Ivy Holcomb, Messrs. Ren Sanford and J. W. Grant, Mrs. C. B. Crawley assisted the hostess.

Woodard-Krebs Wedding.

A pretty home wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Krebs, of Hillsboro, Wednesday, when their daughter, Miss Arlina Hermon, was married to Martin Luther Woodard, of Portland. Rev. B. Clarence Cook, of the First Baptist Church officiated, using the impressive double ring ceremony.

Miss Louise Krebs, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Miss Elsie Simon of Portland, was maid of honor. Henry A. Woodard, of Kalamazoo, Mich., acted as best man. Miss Grace Bruckman played the wedding march from Mendelssohn, Mrs. J. C. Casson sang "I Love You Truly." The bride was gowned in white crepe meteor, over silk tulle, trimmed with Duchess lace. Her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried an arm bouquet of bride roses. The bridesmaid and maid of honor wore lavender marquisette, over silk, and carried bouquets of lavender sweet peas.

The color scheme in the house was lavender and white. A wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Woodard left for a wedding trip. After August 15 they will be at home to their friends at 505 Jefferson street, Portland.

Mesdames C. M. Shinn, H. J. Shinn and Ilma Beager gave a pleasant "at home" to a number of friends at the H. J. Shinn home Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Hermon. A short time was spent in needlework, after which the ladies were given a sheet of paper with an automobile story written thereon, and requested to fill in the blanks they found with parts of an auto. Mrs. C. J. Kem, Mrs. J. Silsby and Mrs. F. W. Robbins, missing but one word, were requested to draw for the 1st prize. Mrs. Silsby succeeded in securing the prize, a beautiful china plate. Miss VanDenburg was awarded the consolation prize. A delicious two course luncheon was served. Those present were Mesdames Wheeler, Compton, Conner, Cruson, W. F. Hart, Moore, McGavran, Mackin, Umphrey, Miller, Abrams, Robbins, A. Hemenway, Brund, J. Veatch, Caldwell, C. J. Kem, O. Kem, Hall, VanDenburg, Monroe, J. Silsby, Wallace, C. M. Shinn, H. J. Shinn, Hermon, Wilson.
