INTERVENTION IN MEXICO IS NEAR

Situation Is Admitted To Be Grave. — Sending of Troops by U. S. Government Would Mean Certain War.

Beverly, Mass.—Although President Taft will not intervene in Mexico without the fullest deliberation, thus taking a step that would mean war, intervention is nearer than it has been since the first American troops were rushed to the border 18 months ago.

Washington.—The calling of the special session of the Mexican congress, the rapid developments along the border and continued disturbances in southern Mexico have revived the talk of intervention. High officials here regard this course as inevitable and only a question of time.

Marfa, Tex.—Ojinaga, Mexico, opposite Presidio, Tex., is being attacked from two sides by 400 Mexican rebels. A bullet from the Mexican side struck an American at Presidio, piercing his hip.

Uphold Kansas Roosevelt Electors

Topeka, Kan.—The Roosevelt presidential electors won another round in the legal battle to get them off the republican ticket in Kansas. JUDGES ARE UNOPOSED

Three Candidates to Washington Supreme Bench Sure of Election
 Seattle, Wash.—A most interesting feature of Tuesday's primary election in this state is the fact that for the first time in the history of Washington three candidates for justice of the supreme court are to be elected without opposition. Nobody has even discussed the proposition of filing against Justice R. O. Dunbar, who has served on the supreme bench since the state was first organized; Wallace Mount, who came to the supreme court bench from Spokane in 1900, after a term in the lower house, or O. G. Ellis, a Tacoma democrat, whom Governor Hay appointed when Justice Frank Rudkin resigned to accept a place on the federal bench. Under the Washington primary law these three justices for all practical purposes were elected at the primaries.

End of War in Sight.

Vienna.—According to the Constantinople correspondent of the Neue Freie Presse, peace preliminaries have been signed by Italy and Turkey, but will be kept secret until parliament has been elected. No formal armistice will be concluded, but Italy will refrain from further attacks on the Turkish coasts and islands and Turkey will permit the gradual return of the expelled Italians.

France is Winner of Trophy.
