

TALES OF THE TOWN

MANY MATTERS OF MORE THAN PASSING MOMENT.

Walter Thompson, a Salem policeman, is visiting relatives here and spending a couple weeks hunting and fishing.

Mrs. S. E. Blair is here from Portland visiting her husband and the two looking after properties in the Bohemia District.

Error in Metsan Shop Ad. in this issue. {Pears quoted $1.52} Should Read $1.25

If you want a gun that will do it, a new 22 high power Savage at the Swengel Hardware Store. That gun's the thing.

Mrs. L. A. Kallston was down from Diston Saturday.

Mrs. M. F. Wyatt, Ernest and Dale returned Saturday from a visit in the Bohemia District.

JOE BAKER
General Blacksmith
AND REPAIR WORK
LOCATED ON WEST SIDE

Try Log Cabin Bread. Wholesome eating without the work of making it yourself. Kerr & Silsby.

Mrs. Linnie Violette left Sunday morning for an extended trip through California.

R. T. Hankins was down from Row River Saturday.

Sale
Damaged Blankets
—at—
Half-Price
OREGON WOOLEN MILLS STORE

Big Base Ball Dance at Armory Saturday night. Help us out of the hole.

Miss Nancy Whitsett was confined to the house Friday.

David Copperfield, Dickens' masterpiece, in moving pictures at Arcade Monday night.

James Sears visited his son in Saginaw Friday.

Miss Stark went to Eugene Friday for an extended visit.

Joe Arnold left for Portland Friday to accept a position for a month, after which he will attend a medical college.

Have you seen the swell toilet sets in Madsen's window? s19

Mrs. Horace Cochran and children returned Saturday from Champion. Mr. Cochran returned Monday.

Special!
Boys' Corduroy Knicker-bocker Pants 75c
Hampton & Co.
The Store that Satisfies

The E. C. Lockwood, S. L. Mackin, C. W. Wallace and Elbert Bede families spent Sunday at Lorane.

Vetch seed for sale at the Sterling Feed Co.'s Store.

Mrs. Daisy Porter and three children arrived Friday from Ashland to make this their home. A residence is being erected for them near Jim Porter's.

Reginald Matthews, son of Chas. Matthews, was exhibiting a four-pound cat yesterday which he raised himself. He says he has many just as large and one that is larger.

The Misses Ella Hempy of Eugene visited last week at the home of Mr. Sanford, returning to Eugene.

Sportswear's headquarters: Swengel Hardware Co.

Mrs. Walter Scott returned today from a couple days' visit with her parents on Row River.

Miss Jessie Legat left last week for Portland and Seattle, where she will visit friends and relatives.

Log Cabin Bread is popular. With the best of flour and most expert bakers, the finest, lightest and most wholesome bread you ever tasted is produced. Kerr & Silsby.

Dr. North and wife are away on a few weeks' tour.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Christensen left Tuesday for their home in McMinneville. They came here six weeks ago to visit the Bohemia District, but Mr. Christensen took sick immediately upon their arrival here and had just recovered before he and wife left for home.

A marvel in moving pictures. David Copperfield at Arcade Monday night.

Mrs. C. E. Frost and F. L. Ingram are spending a week at Newport.

Mrs. C. E. Frost arrived Friday from Los Angeles to join her husband.

Madsen's bracelets are ornaments any woman may be proud of. See them in the window. s19

Mrs. G. H. Tyson visited in Eugene the first of the week.

James Hemenway has purchased the W. P. Tucker 6-acre tract west of the city.

A stitch in time may save a new pair of shoes. Goff.

The Ladies Missionary Society of the Christian Church held its monthly meeting at the church last Thursday afternoon. The subject was "New Zealand," which was ably discussed by the different members. The annual election of officers took place and the society is looking forward to a year of good work. These meetings are open to all and the members are glad to welcome any one who is interested along the line of missions.

Expert dressmaking done promptly. Mrs. Pet Sanford. m23tf

Miss Leota Case, who has been in Idaho the past three months, returned to this city Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Merton Earl of Eugene spent Sunday in this city.

Wagon covers and tents; full weight goods, always in stock at Swengel's Hardware Store.

J. K. Barrett is making some improvements to his home on South Fifth St. He has built a porch 24x7 on the south side and one 16x7 on the west side and has moved the east end of the house out five feet.

Threshing is pretty well completed throughout this section of the country.

HALE AND HEARTY—Fine, sweet, well baked bread makes the consumer hale and hearty. Eat Log Cabin Bread. Kerr & Silsby.

Mrs. S. S. Trask is home from Portland.

Colonel R. M. Veatch and Alta King attended a Democratic committee meeting at Eugene Saturday.

Secured at great expense. David Copperfield in moving picture at Arcade Monday night.

Mrs. H. L. Harms visited with her daughter, Mrs. Nathan Barrett, at Eugene during the past week.

Mrs. Geo. Hawley and Lucy Holland attended the fair.

You'll always have the correct time if you carry one of Madsen's high grade watches. Some beauties just in. s19

All packages of liquor hereafter shipped into dry territory must have the contents plainly marked on shipping bill, according to a proclamation by Gov. West.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Scholl have returned from an outing at Newport. I have some painting to be done. Mrs. E. A. Cottle. s19

F. H. Hall returned this week from an extended Southern trip.

Chas. Hall was laid up several days of the past week with a bad combination of grip and rheumatism.

Returned—Tom Aubrey has returned from an extended vacation on his fruit farm and will now give special attention to fire insurance. Call at the express office. j18s8pd

E. C. Lockwood made a business trip to Eugene Monday.

W. Tucker of Newport was here this week looking after his tract of land and expects to soon make this his permanent home.

Paint your house inside and out. Varnishes, stains, brushes. Johnson's Wood Dye always in stock. Swengel Hardware Co.

Miss Hazel Hazelton left Saturday for Monmouth where she will attend school this winter.

Mrs. Danae Lawton is visiting in Creswell.

Rev. J. T. Abbott, presiding elder of this district, preached at the M. E. church Sunday evening.

Herman Venske and family and Chas. Bronneau returned Friday night from a month's outing at Winchester Bay.

A 10-pound plumber arrived last Thursday at the Frank Woodruff home.

Dr. Demorest, Dentist. Office over Kerr & Silsby's Store. m9tf

Among those who attended the District Fair at Eugene were Ed Saltzman, Herbert Mosby, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Scovell, Mrs. C. H. Burkholder, son and daughter Johnnie and Belle, Elbert Bede, G. H. Marksbury, Miss Edna Elledge, Mrs. C. H. Vandenberg, Misses Winnie and Hattie Landess, Gertrude Raines, Jennie Smith, Mabel Veatch, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McQueen, F. C. Coffman and family, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. King, Mr. Robt. Griffin and daughter, Wm. Landess, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Taylor, Elvin Whitsett, Jesse Lewis, Dr. H. H. Owen, Mrs. Geo. Hall and children, Mrs. A. W. Kime and family, Ernest Lily, Mrs. J. P. Hart, Wm. Brund, Wm. Beck, Wm. Hupman, Frank Knox, J. W. Grant, Miss Della White, Mrs. John Veatch and children, J. I. Jones and son Frank, Mrs. J. H. Groom and daughter, Mrs. Stauffer.

Pure White flour now selling at $1.40 per sack at Sterling Feed Co.

Attorneys J. S. Medley, J. C. Johnson and A. H. King were in Eugene on business the latter part of last week.

John Holland of Eugene visited in the city over Sunday.

Mrs. J. S. Medley attended the District Fair.

The Sterling Feed Co. is prepared to roll, chop and clean grain. Prompt service, prices reasonable. ..

Mr. and Mrs. J. Whaling came up from Eugene Monday.

Mrs. L. D. Harrington is making an extended visit at Lorane.

Horse and buggy for sale. Inquire Spencer & Veatch. s5tf

Because of inability to get a quorum of the Council, no aldermen have yet been elected to succeed Aldermen Caldwell and Hart.

The rock crusher has been put in repair again and is getting out rock once more.

If your mother or father, husband or wife, son or daughter, has journeyed to that bourne from whence no traveler returns, you know how much anyone appreciates a picture of the departed. Some day you will go the same route. Have you prepared to leave a good picture to be remembered by? Armstrong's Studio. s12-19.

L. S. Hill was in Portland this week on business.

The Misses Alice and Marion Brauly of Portland, cousins of Mrs. C. P. Jones, arrived in the city this week and will attend school here this winter.

If you want a cidermill or a potato digger see Swengel at the big hardware store.

Miss Daisy Hawkins returned Sunday from a week's visit in Eugene.

Revs. Sutcliffe, W. J. Gardner, L. J. Beatty and J. I. Jones are attending the M. E. conference at Ashland.

A. S. Nicol and family of Woodburn were in the city several days of the past week on business. They were on their way to Salem, where they will spend six months. Mr. Nicol is interested in the Row River Lumber Co.

Save your digestion, your nerves and be happy by eating Log Cabin Bread. Kerr & Silsby.

W. T. Hankins went to Chico, Calif., Monday night with the body of "Chico" Brown.

G. M. Hall and auto party left Tuesday for Bohemia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Graham returned Tuesday from a month's stay in the Bohemia District.

Only 10c and 15c to see 3000 feet of David Copperfield moving pictures at Arcade Monday night.

Joseph Best of Portland has spent the past week in the city.

W. P. Tucker of Newport has bought 40 acres adjoining the Bales Bros. orchard at Dorena. He will immediately make improvements on it and plant it to fruit.

Willis Miller, formerly editor of the Chesaning, Mich., Argus, was in the city yesterday on business.

Messrs. Kitchen & Black of the Roseburg Nursery Co., were in the city this week on business.

Sixth Co., C. A. C., has been enjoying a vacation, but drill work will commence again Friday, Sept. 27.

The Simeral & VanDenburg furniture stock was moved Tuesday to the Knowles & Graber store.

W. F. Hart and family left yesterday for Corvallis, where they will reside during the school year.

A man so full of Springfield "water" he didn't know how he got here, was taken in by Marshall Snodgrass Monday. In police court the next day he was fined $10 and the sentence suspended to give him a chance to work and earn the money to pay it.

Miss Ida Robinson, who taught in the schools here two years ago, has been married to an Elkton, Ore., man.

COME IN AND SEE

Our Large Shipment of COATS AND SUITS

The Percival B. Palmer Garments

For style, fit, quality and durability these garments can not be excelled.

Blue Serge Suits in "Norfolk" Style are very popular this season. Long Coats are exceptionally good in "Norfolk" and Belted Style, made up of Chin-chilla, Serge and Plaid materials.

We take special orders for Suits, Coats and Skirts.

Burkholder-Woods COMPANY

The medical license of Chas. Ernest Frost was filed with the County Clerk yesterday.

The W. C. T. U. market to have been given Saturday has been postponed one week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lewis of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Lamb of Harrisburg and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Oberg of Portland return to their homes today, after attending the Trask-Burdick wedding. Mrs. Oberg has made an extended visit.

J. C. Morss and D. W. Medley were in Eugene yesterday.

Miss Inez Stark returned yesterday from a visit at Eugene.

J. E. Hills of Saginaw returned yesterday from Eugene.

A. B. Wood was in Eugene yesterday on business.

Mesdames N. E. Compton and A. W. Kime are attending the W. C. T. U. convention at Eugene.

J. S. Ozment came up from Portland Tuesday night and is enjoying himself greeting old-time friends.

The family of Mr. Black, who recently purchased some city property, arrived from California Monday night.

Miss Naomi Woods of Shoals, Ind., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Barker. Miss Woods is from Mr. Barker's home town. She will teach the Wildwood school.

Miss Enid Veatch, daughter of S. C. Veatch, who has been suffering with typhoid fever, is somewhat better.

WANT ADS

Advertisements in this department 6c a line. Figure 6 words to line.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE.—Young 3-year-old Jersey cow. G. F. King. s12tf

FOR SALE.—Good work mare. Will consider trade for other stock. H. C. Combs, London, Ore. s12-26-30 pd.

Registered Poland China Swine. Few choice pigs for sale. Oaklawn Farm, C. A. Arne. s12o3pd.

Good 2-horse power electric motor for sale at a bargain. The Sentinel...

HELP WANTED

HOP PICKING will begin at my large hop yard on the McKenzie on September 4th. James W. Seavey, Eugene. s29c

TO EXCHANGE

For Exchange.—Portland lot for property in Cottage Grove. Inquire Box 287. s5tf.

CARPETS AND RUGS MADE.

Carpets, rugs and barrels made to order. J. M. Comer, W. Main Ave o3p

BOARDERS WANTED.

Wanted.—Two or three day boarders. Will serve dinner to East Side pupils reasonable. Mrs. E. Purvance, phone 138-Y. s12tf.

LOST AND FOUND.

FOUND.—Pair of spectacles on Ash Avenue. Owner can have same by proving property and paying for this notice. s19-26

LOST.—Gold cuff button, with initial "W" on face, between residence and store. Le Roy Woods. s19c

CHURCH NEWS

Baptist Church—Regular preaching services next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and in the evening at 7:30 o'clock, by Rev. James W. Ford of Eugene. Bible School a 10 a. m., Junior B. Y. P. U. at 3, regular B. Y. P. U. at 6:45.

"The Shop" Where Good Printing is Done

The SENTINEL

These Children Are Very Happy

There is a reason and it is this--They bought their shoes of Powell & Co. and got one of those dandy school outfits that go free with every pair of shoes. We still have plenty of shoes and plenty of pencil boxes, tablets, pencils, etc., to go with them. Remember the place. Remember that cash and cash only talks in this deal.

Powell & Co. Powell & Co. Powell & Co.

607 Main Street

A Large Showing

New Fall Goods for Men, Women and Children

LURCH'S, Cottage Grove