

Sales of the Town

Many Matters of More than Passing Moment

Any item in these columns containing on the last line thereof the mark [.] is paid advertising. [This announcement is made in compliance with the postal regulations.]

Ol. R. M. Veatch was in Portland during the past week celebrating the 20-year democratic victory. Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Nichols left during the past week for a seven weeks' trip in Pennsylvania.

Have you purchased your Fall hat? If not, now is the time when you can get them at cost. 317 Main Street. FRAZURE MILLINER.

Get weather door mats at Swengel's Hardware.

Mrs. S. E. Cochran left Friday for a several months' visit in Eastern Oregon.

Just-Col. B. K. Lawson returned yesterday from an official visit to Salem, where fine clocks are going fast. Come and pick one out for a Christmas present. H. C. Madsen.

House and Lot For Sale

House has seven rooms. $1000. It is 75-foot front and 100-foot deep. D. B. Chamberlain.

Mrs. J. E. Young is recovering from recent illness.

Red Bartels has been up from California, during the past week.

ART PICTURE. Connoisseurs of art have been given a treat this week in the art photo mounts received by the Armstrong Studios. Nothing they have ever before been seen in Cottage Grove, not even by the Armstrong Studios, and they have said had the best. One of Armstrong's art pictures with one of these as a setting is about as delicate a piece of work as can be imagined. Now on display. n14

We are prepared to chop, roll or clean grain. Prices reasonable. Sterling Feed Co.

Mrs. V. C. London and son of Portland have been visiting here and at Roseburg during the past week. Master London is suffering from a growth in the ear resulting from being hit with a snow ball and will be operated upon shortly at Portland.

Mrs. J. H. Warner and son George Lowery left Sunday for a week's visit at Amity, after which Geo. will leave for Des Moines, Ia., where he will attend college.

The Armstrong Studios have arranged a comprehensive display at the Cottage Hotel during the past week.

O. P. Adams has furnished The Sentinel a paper weight in the form of a chunk of rich gold quartz from the Nina mine on Adams Mountain, the first named peak of the Bohemia district.

Dr. Wall was up from Eugene Sunday.

The best place to get your Holiday Pictures taken is Monroe's Studio at the bridge. n14tf

Mr. and Mrs. A. Noth of Medford are visiting Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Robbins and other relatives in the vicinity.

C. B. Morgan and Wm. Brund visited relatives in the city the past week. Mr. Morgan visiting at the Geo. O. Knowles home and Mr. Brund at the Andrew Brund home.

The Swengel Hardware company got in four steel ranges Monday that weighed exactly 2,218 pounds. There's a difference between a range that actually weighs 554 pounds and one that weighs only 230 pounds. Think it over. Quality goods at Swengel's always.

W. W. Hawley of Corvallis, formerly of Row River, is visiting in the vicinity.

Mrs. C. H. Rines arrived Tuesday night from Princeton, Minn., for a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Nokes.

SOME THINGS HAPPEN ONCE A YEAR—others once in a life time. Christmas and Thanksgiving, for instance, come once a year. A display of art photo mounts such as those now on display at the Armstrong Studios comes about once in a life time. They are rich in design, substantial in construction and present an appearance that is absolutely entrancing. They are a proper setting for Armstrong's art pictures. n14

J. W. Nokes and B. F. Rinard returned yesterday from Divide where they set up a boiler for the Orchard Land & Timber Co.

O. F. Rohrer was in Eugene Monday. Look at the fine line of Sterling silverware in window of H. C. Madsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Taylor of Albany visited at the Whitsett home over Sunday. They expect to soon return to Cottage Grove to live.

Mrs. Sarah Hubbard, who had been visiting at the N. H. Martin home, left Monday for her home in San Francisco.

Stoves, stoves, stoves: Swengel's Stoves keep you warm and save the fuel. They're built right. Nothing cheap but the price.

Albert Leonard returned Monday to Coburg, after a visit with his cousin, N. H. Martin.

F. J. Hard came down from Bohemia Thursday on his way to Eugene for a few days.

Expert dressmaking done promptly. Mrs. Pet Sanford. m23tf

Curtis Veatch has been quite sick during the past week.

N. H. Martin and J. E. Young were called to Portland Monday as witnesses in the land grant cases.

O. F. Rohrer was in Eugene Friday. Wright's Silver Cream Polish. No better made for silverware and cut glass at 25c a bottle. H. C. Madsen's.

G. B. Preston was in Eugene Saturday on business.

Mrs. Will Griffith and daughter Lottie returned to Portland last Thursday after a visit at the S. C. Counts home.

J. M. Stark was up from Eugene Friday.

Diamonds, diamonds, diamonds. Full line rings, earrings and brooches; also a fine line of reconstructed ruby rings just received at H. C. Madsen's.

Melvin Howard and Harry Cutlack of this vicinity and Butte Mooney of Cottage Grove returned from Scottsburg Monday loaded with raw salmon. Yoncalla Times.

C. A. Murphy of Corvallis, captain of Co. D 3d Infantry, was in the city the first of the week making arrangements for the appearance of the cadet band.

We are prepared to chop, roll or clean grain. Prices reasonable. Sterling Feed Co.

Mrs. V. C. London and son of Portland have been visiting here and at Roseburg during the past week. Master London is suffering from a growth in the ear resulting from being hit with a snow ball and will be operated upon shortly at Portland.

Mrs. J. H. Warner and son George Lowery left Sunday for a week's visit at Amity, after which Geo. will leave for Des Moines, Ia., where he will attend college.

The Armstrong Studios have arranged a comprehensive display at the Cottage Hotel during the past week.

O. P. Adams has furnished The Sentinel a paper weight in the form of a chunk of rich gold quartz from the Nina mine on Adams Mountain, the first named peak of the Bohemia district.

Dr. Wall was up from Eugene Sunday.

The best place to get your Holiday Pictures taken is Monroe's Studio at the bridge. n14tf

Mr. and Mrs. A. Noth of Medford are visiting Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Robbins and other relatives in the vicinity.

C. B. Morgan and Wm. Brund visited relatives in the city the past week. Mr. Morgan visiting at the Geo. O. Knowles home and Mr. Brund at the Andrew Brund home.

The Swengel Hardware company got in four steel ranges Monday that weighed exactly 2,218 pounds. There's a difference between a range that actually weighs 554 pounds and one that weighs only 230 pounds. Think it over. Quality goods at Swengel's always.

W. W. Hawley of Corvallis, formerly of Row River, is visiting in the vicinity.

Mrs. C. H. Rines arrived Tuesday night from Princeton, Minn., for a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Nokes.

SOME THINGS HAPPEN ONCE A YEAR—others once in a life time. Christmas and Thanksgiving, for instance, come once a year. A display of art photo mounts such as those now on display at the Armstrong Studios comes about once in a life time. They are rich in design, substantial in construction and present an appearance that is absolutely entrancing. They are a proper setting for Armstrong's art pictures. n14

J. W. Nokes and B. F. Rinard returned yesterday from Divide where they set up a boiler for the Orchard Land & Timber Co.

O. F. Rohrer was in Eugene Monday. Look at the fine line of Sterling silverware in window of H. C. Madsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Taylor of Albany visited at the Whitsett home over Sunday. They expect to soon return to Cottage Grove to live.

Mrs. Sarah Hubbard, who had been visiting at the N. H. Martin home, left Monday for her home in San Francisco.

Stoves, stoves, stoves: Swengel's Stoves keep you warm and save the fuel. They're built right. Nothing cheap but the price.

Albert Leonard returned Monday to Coburg, after a visit with his cousin, N. H. Martin.

F. J. Hard came down from Bohemia Thursday on his way to Eugene for a few days.

Expert dressmaking done promptly. Mrs. Pet Sanford. m23tf

Curtis Veatch has been quite sick during the past week.

N. H. Martin and J. E. Young were called to Portland Monday as witnesses in the land grant cases.

O. F. Rohrer was in Eugene Friday. Wright's Silver Cream Polish. No better made for silverware and cut glass at 25c a bottle. H. C. Madsen's.

G. B. Preston was in Eugene Saturday on business.

Mrs. Will Griffith and daughter Lottie returned to Portland last Thursday after a visit at the S. C. Counts home.

J. M. Stark was up from Eugene Friday.

Diamonds, diamonds, diamonds. Full line rings, earrings and brooches; also a fine line of reconstructed ruby rings just received at H. C. Madsen's.

Melvin Howard and Harry Cutlack of this vicinity and Butte Mooney of Cottage Grove returned from Scottsburg Monday loaded with raw salmon. Yoncalla Times.

C. A. Murphy of Corvallis, captain of Co. D 3d Infantry, was in the city the first of the week making arrangements for the appearance of the cadet band.

We are prepared to chop, roll or clean grain. Prices reasonable. Sterling Feed Co.

Mrs. V. C. London and son of Portland have been visiting here and at Roseburg during the past week. Master London is suffering from a growth in the ear resulting from being hit with a snow ball and will be operated upon shortly at Portland.

Mrs. J. H. Warner and son George Lowery left Sunday for a week's visit at Amity, after which Geo. will leave for Des Moines, Ia., where he will attend college.

The Armstrong Studios have arranged a comprehensive display at the Cottage Hotel during the past week.

O. P. Adams has furnished The Sentinel a paper weight in the form of a chunk of rich gold quartz from the Nina mine on Adams Mountain, the first named peak of the Bohemia district.

Dr. Wall was up from Eugene Sunday.

The best place to get your Holiday Pictures taken is Monroe's Studio at the bridge. n14tf

Mr. and Mrs. A. Noth of Medford are visiting Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Robbins and other relatives in the vicinity.

C. B. Morgan and Wm. Brund visited relatives in the city the past week. Mr. Morgan visiting at the Geo. O. Knowles home and Mr. Brund at the Andrew Brund home.

The Swengel Hardware company got in four steel ranges Monday that weighed exactly 2,218 pounds. There's a difference between a range that actually weighs 554 pounds and one that weighs only 230 pounds. Think it over. Quality goods at Swengel's always.

W. W. Hawley of Corvallis, formerly of Row River, is visiting in the vicinity.

Mrs. C. H. Rines arrived Tuesday night from Princeton, Minn., for a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Nokes.

SOME THINGS HAPPEN ONCE A YEAR—others once in a life time. Christmas and Thanksgiving, for instance, come once a year. A display of art photo mounts such as those now on display at the Armstrong Studios comes about once in a life time. They are rich in design, substantial in construction and present an appearance that is absolutely entrancing. They are a proper setting for Armstrong's art pictures. n14

J. W. Nokes and B. F. Rinard returned yesterday from Divide where they set up a boiler for the Orchard Land & Timber Co.

O. F. Rohrer was in Eugene Monday. Look at the fine line of Sterling silverware in window of H. C. Madsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Taylor of Albany visited at the Whitsett home over Sunday. They expect to soon return to Cottage Grove to live.

Mrs. Sarah Hubbard, who had been visiting at the N. H. Martin home, left Monday for her home in San Francisco.

Stoves, stoves, stoves: Swengel's Stoves keep you warm and save the fuel. They're built right. Nothing cheap but the price.

Albert Leonard returned Monday to Coburg, after a visit with his cousin, N. H. Martin.

F. J. Hard came down from Bohemia Thursday on his way to Eugene for a few days.

Expert dressmaking done promptly. Mrs. Pet Sanford. m23tf

Curtis Veatch has been quite sick during the past week.

N. H. Martin and J. E. Young were called to Portland Monday as witnesses in the land grant cases.

O. F. Rohrer was in Eugene Friday. Wright's Silver Cream Polish. No better made for silverware and cut glass at 25c a bottle. H. C. Madsen's.

G. B. Preston was in Eugene Saturday on business.

Mrs. Will Griffith and daughter Lottie returned to Portland last Thursday after a visit at the S. C. Counts home.

J. M. Stark was up from Eugene Friday.

Diamonds, diamonds, diamonds. Full line rings, earrings and brooches; also a fine line of reconstructed ruby rings just received at H. C. Madsen's.

Melvin Howard and Harry Cutlack of this vicinity and Butte Mooney of Cottage Grove returned from Scottsburg Monday loaded with raw salmon. Yoncalla Times.

C. A. Murphy of Corvallis, captain of Co. D 3d Infantry, was in the city the first of the week making arrangements for the appearance of the cadet band.

We are prepared to chop, roll or clean grain. Prices reasonable. Sterling Feed Co.

Mrs. V. C. London and son of Portland have been visiting here and at Roseburg during the past week. Master London is suffering from a growth in the ear resulting from being hit with a snow ball and will be operated upon shortly at Portland.

Mrs. J. H. Warner and son George Lowery left Sunday for a week's visit at Amity, after which Geo. will leave for Des Moines, Ia., where he will attend college.

The Armstrong Studios have arranged a comprehensive display at the Cottage Hotel during the past week.

O. P. Adams has furnished The Sentinel a paper weight in the form of a chunk of rich gold quartz from the Nina mine on Adams Mountain, the first named peak of the Bohemia district.

Dr. Wall was up from Eugene Sunday.

The best place to get your Holiday Pictures taken is Monroe's Studio at the bridge. n14tf

Mr. and Mrs. A. Noth of Medford are visiting Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Robbins and other relatives in the vicinity.

C. B. Morgan and Wm. Brund visited relatives in the city the past week. Mr. Morgan visiting at the Geo. O. Knowles home and Mr. Brund at the Andrew Brund home.

The Swengel Hardware company got in four steel ranges Monday that weighed exactly 2,218 pounds. There's a difference between a range that actually weighs 554 pounds and one that weighs only 230 pounds. Think it over. Quality goods at Swengel's always.

W. W. Hawley of Corvallis, formerly of Row River, is visiting in the vicinity.

Mrs. C. H. Rines arrived Tuesday night from Princeton, Minn., for a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Nokes.

SOME THINGS HAPPEN ONCE A YEAR—others once in a life time. Christmas and Thanksgiving, for instance, come once a year. A display of art photo mounts such as those now on display at the Armstrong Studios comes about once in a life time. They are rich in design, substantial in construction and present an appearance that is absolutely entrancing. They are a proper setting for Armstrong's art pictures. n14

J. W. Nokes and B. F. Rinard returned yesterday from Divide where they set up a boiler for the Orchard Land & Timber Co.

O. F. Rohrer was in Eugene Monday. Look at the fine line of Sterling silverware in window of H. C. Madsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Taylor of Albany visited at the Whitsett home over Sunday. They expect to soon return to Cottage Grove to live.

Mrs. Sarah Hubbard, who had been visiting at the N. H. Martin home, left Monday for her home in San Francisco.

Stoves, stoves, stoves: Swengel's Stoves keep you warm and save the fuel. They're built right. Nothing cheap but the price.

Albert Leonard returned Monday to Coburg, after a visit with his cousin, N. H. Martin.

F. J. Hard came down from Bohemia Thursday on his way to Eugene for a few days.

Expert dressmaking done promptly. Mrs. Pet Sanford. m23tf

Curtis Veatch has been quite sick during the past week.

N. H. Martin and J. E. Young were called to Portland Monday as witnesses in the land grant cases.

O. F. Rohrer was in Eugene Friday. Wright's Silver Cream Polish. No better made for silverware and cut glass at 25c a bottle. H. C. Madsen's.

G. B. Preston was in Eugene Saturday on business.

Mrs. Will Griffith and daughter Lottie returned to Portland last Thursday after a visit at the S. C. Counts home.

J. M. Stark was up from Eugene Friday.

Diamonds, diamonds, diamonds. Full line rings, earrings and brooches; also a fine line of reconstructed ruby rings just received at H. C. Madsen's.

Melvin Howard and Harry Cutlack of this vicinity and Butte Mooney of Cottage Grove returned from Scottsburg Monday loaded with raw salmon. Yoncalla Times.

C. A. Murphy of Corvallis, captain of Co. D 3d Infantry, was in the city the first of the week making arrangements for the appearance of the cadet band.

We are prepared to chop, roll or clean grain. Prices reasonable. Sterling Feed Co.

Mrs. V. C. London and son of Portland have been visiting here and at Roseburg during the past week. Master London is suffering from a growth in the ear resulting from being hit with a snow ball and will be operated upon shortly at Portland.

Mrs. J. H. Warner and son George Lowery left Sunday for a week's visit at Amity, after which Geo. will leave for Des Moines, Ia., where he will attend college.

The Armstrong Studios have arranged a comprehensive display at the Cottage Hotel during the past week.

O. P. Adams has furnished The Sentinel a paper weight in the form of a chunk of rich gold quartz from the Nina mine on Adams Mountain, the first named peak of the Bohemia district.

Dr. Wall was up from Eugene Sunday.

The best place to get your Holiday Pictures taken is Monroe's Studio at the bridge. n14tf

Mr. and Mrs. A. Noth of Medford are visiting Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Robbins and other relatives in the vicinity.

C. B. Morgan and Wm. Brund visited relatives in the city the past week. Mr. Morgan visiting at the Geo. O. Knowles home and Mr. Brund at the Andrew Brund home.

The Swengel Hardware company got in four steel ranges Monday that weighed exactly 2,218 pounds. There's a difference between a range that actually weighs 554 pounds and one that weighs only 230 pounds. Think it over. Quality goods at Swengel's always.

W. W. Hawley of Corvallis, formerly of Row River, is visiting in the vicinity.

Mrs. C. H. Rines arrived Tuesday night from Princeton, Minn., for a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Nokes.

SOME THINGS HAPPEN ONCE A YEAR—others once in a life time. Christmas and Thanksgiving, for instance, come once a year. A display of art photo mounts such as those now on display at the Armstrong Studios comes about once in a life time. They are rich in design, substantial in construction and present an appearance that is absolutely entrancing. They are a proper setting for Armstrong's art pictures. n14

J. W. Nokes and B. F. Rinard returned yesterday from Divide where they set up a boiler for the Orchard Land & Timber Co.

O. F. Rohrer was in Eugene Monday. Look at the fine line of Sterling silverware in window of H. C. Madsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Taylor of Albany visited at the Whitsett home over Sunday. They expect to soon return to Cottage Grove to live.

Mrs. Sarah Hubbard, who had been visiting at the N. H. Martin home, left Monday for her home in San Francisco.

Stoves, stoves, stoves: Swengel's Stoves keep you warm and save the fuel. They're built right. Nothing cheap but the price.

Albert Leonard returned Monday to Coburg, after a visit with his cousin, N. H. Martin.

F. J. Hard came down from Bohemia Thursday on his way to Eugene for a few days.

Expert dressmaking done promptly. Mrs. Pet Sanford. m23tf

Curtis Veatch has been quite sick during the past week.

N. H. Martin and J. E. Young were called to Portland Monday as witnesses in the land grant cases.

O. F. Rohrer was in Eugene Friday. Wright's Silver Cream Polish. No better made for silverware and cut glass at 25c a bottle. H. C. Madsen's.

G. B. Preston was in Eugene Saturday on business.

Mrs. Will Griffith and daughter Lottie returned to Portland last Thursday after a visit at the S. C. Counts home.

J. M. Stark was up from Eugene Friday.

Diamonds, diamonds, diamonds. Full line rings, earrings and brooches; also a fine line of reconstructed ruby rings just received at H. C. Madsen's.

Melvin Howard and Harry Cutlack of this vicinity and Butte Mooney of Cottage Grove returned from Scottsburg Monday loaded with raw salmon. Yoncalla Times.

C. A. Murphy of Corvallis, captain of Co. D 3d Infantry, was in the city the first of the week making arrangements for the appearance of the cadet band.

We are prepared to chop, roll or clean grain. Prices reasonable. Sterling Feed Co.

Mrs. V. C. London and son of Portland have been visiting here and at Roseburg during the past week. Master London is suffering from a growth in the ear resulting from being hit with a snow ball and will be operated upon shortly at Portland.

Mrs. J. H. Warner and son George Lowery left Sunday for a week's visit at Amity, after which Geo. will leave for Des Moines, Ia., where he will attend college.

The Armstrong Studios have arranged a comprehensive display at the Cottage Hotel during the past week.

O. P. Adams has furnished The Sentinel a paper weight in the form of a chunk of rich gold quartz from the Nina mine on Adams Mountain, the first named peak of the Bohemia district.

Dr. Wall was up from Eugene Sunday.

The best place to get your Holiday Pictures taken is Monroe's Studio at the bridge. n14tf

Mr. and Mrs. A. Noth of Medford are visiting Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Robbins and other relatives in the vicinity.

C. B. Morgan and Wm. Brund visited relatives in the city the past week. Mr. Morgan visiting at the Geo. O. Knowles home and Mr. Brund at the Andrew Brund home.

The Swengel Hardware company got in four steel ranges Monday that weighed exactly 2,218 pounds. There's a difference between a range that actually weighs 554 pounds and one that weighs only 230 pounds. Think it over. Quality goods at Swengel's always.

W. W. Hawley of Corvallis, formerly of Row River, is visiting in the vicinity.

Mrs. C. H. Rines arrived Tuesday night from Princeton, Minn., for a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Nokes.

SOME THINGS HAPPEN ONCE A YEAR—others once in a life time. Christmas and Thanksgiving, for instance, come once a year. A display of art photo mounts such as those now on display at the Armstrong Studios comes about once in a life time. They are rich in design, substantial in construction and present an appearance that is absolutely entrancing. They are a proper setting for Armstrong's art pictures. n14

J. W. Nokes and B. F. Rinard returned yesterday from Divide where they set up a boiler for the Orchard Land & Timber Co.

O. F. Rohrer was in Eugene Monday. Look at the fine line of Sterling silverware in window of H. C. Madsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Taylor of Albany visited at the Whitsett home over Sunday. They expect to soon return to Cottage Grove to live.

Mrs. Sarah Hubbard, who had been visiting at the N. H. Martin home, left Monday for her home in San Francisco.

Stoves, stoves, stoves: Swengel's Stoves keep you warm and save the fuel. They're built right. Nothing cheap but the price.

Albert Leonard returned Monday to Coburg, after a visit with his cousin, N. H. Martin.

F. J. Hard came down from Bohemia Thursday on his way to Eugene for a few days.

Expert dressmaking done promptly. Mrs. Pet Sanford. m23tf

Curtis Veatch has been quite sick during the past week.

N. H. Martin and J. E. Young were called to Portland Monday as witnesses in the land grant cases.

O. F. Rohrer was in Eugene Friday. Wright's Silver Cream Polish. No better made for silverware and cut glass at 25c a bottle. H. C. Madsen's.

G. B. Preston was in Eugene Saturday on business.

Mrs. Will Griffith and daughter Lottie returned to Portland last Thursday after a visit at the S. C. Counts home.

J. M. Stark was up from Eugene Friday.

Diamonds, diamonds, diamonds. Full line rings, earrings and brooches; also a fine line of reconstructed ruby rings just received at H. C. Madsen's.

Melvin Howard and Harry Cutlack of this vicinity and Butte Mooney of Cottage Grove returned from Scottsburg Monday loaded with raw salmon. Yoncalla Times.

C. A. Murphy of Corvallis, captain of Co. D 3d Infantry, was in the city the first of the week making arrangements for the appearance of the cadet band.

We are prepared to chop, roll or clean grain. Prices reasonable. Sterling Feed Co.

Mrs. V. C. London and son of Portland have been visiting here and at Roseburg during the past week. Master London is suffering from a growth in the ear resulting from being hit with a snow ball and will be operated upon shortly at Portland.

Mrs. J. H. Warner and son George Lowery left Sunday for a week's visit at Amity, after which Geo. will leave for Des Moines, Ia., where he will attend college.

The Armstrong Studios have