A POINTER IN PRUNING.

While from the standpoint of the horticulturist tree pruning may be rightly termed an art, there are, nevertheless, one or two points in connection with the pruning process that even the novice should do well to keep in mind and put into practice. One of these has to do with the removing of large and therefore heavy limbs from shade trees, and consists in making a cut three or four inches deep on the under side of the limb to be removed and at a distance of a couple of feet from the trunk. A cut should then be made somewhat farther from the trunk and on the upper side of the limb and to such depth that the limb will fall of its own weight. The advantage of the under cut will then be apparent, for instead of splitting down and ripping a big chunk out of the trunk as is so often the case, the splitting will stop when it strikes the under cut. The stub left by this method of pruning should then be cut off close to the trunk leaving as small a limb projection as possible for the adjoining bark to cover in the healing process. If the scar is soaked in a blue vitriol solution and when dry given a good coat of white lead, decay fungi will be kept out.

Society

Miss Lola Stark and John Frank Kinney were quietly married at the M. E. parsonage Monday evening, Rev. J. T. Moore officiating. J. M. Stark, father of the bride, was the only guest. Miss Stark is proprietor of the Oregon Hotel. Mr. Kinney is an old-time acquaintance and has been for a number of years an employe of the Southern Pacific system.

Miss Esther Silsby entertained at her home with a delightful musical Friday evening. The special feature of the evening was the cello playing of Mr. M. O. Warner of Eugene who played the obligato accompaniments in a wonderfully pleasing way. The solos by Miss Silsby's pupils were also a real musical pleasure. The guests were charmed with Mr. Warner's sympathetic interpretation, especially in his solo work. It is probable that in the spring he will return to assist Miss Silsby in her concert work. After the musical numbers the guests were seated at small tables where they were served by the Misses Ursula Lockwood, Blanche Veatch, Laura Kennon and Leah Perkins. Impromptu quartet music was the closing feature of the pleasant evening. The guests numbered some forty-five. Besides the members of the Euterpean club and Miss Silsby's pupils there were invited Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ballis, Dr. and Mrs. B. R. Job, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Frost, Mr. H. A. Miller, Mr. Charles Adams, Miss Belle Burkholder.

Following are the numbers given, each with a cello obligato by Mr. Warner:
Bright Star of Love.....Robandi
Lloyd Stratton
Shadows.....Carrie Jacobs Bond
Grace Lilly
For All Eternity.....Mascheroni
Lloyd Bisbey
O Dry Those Tears.....Del Reigo
Leah Perkins
See The Pale Moon.....Campana
Misses Lockwood and Lilly
Love's Dream.....Esther Silsby
Worth Harvey
Cello Solo.. Angel's Serenade..Braga
Mr. M. O. Warner
The Perfect Day...Carrie Jacobs Bond
Blanche Veatch
Address.....Music
Mr. Ballis

Mrs. G. H. Tyson entertained Thursday evening for Mrs. Star of Salem, who was visiting the C. H. VanDenburg and J. I. Jones homes.

Saturday evening was enjoyably spent by a party of twenty couples of the younger set at the semi-monthly dance given by Albert Anderson in Phillips Hall. Refreshments were served in the dining room.

Mrs. J. I. Jones gave a dinner last Thursday to Grandpa Jones, his sons, daughters, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, grandchildren and great grandchildren. There were 29 in all, the only absent ones being one daughter and family in Missouri.

The Social Twelve will meet this afternoon with Mrs. A. L. Monroe.

Mesdames Swengel, Tyson and Monroe entertained the 500 Club Tuesday night in Phillips Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Abrams entertained at 500 Wednesday evening of last week. Those present were Mesdames and Messrs. C. J. Kem, H. A. Miller, Robbins, Kinter, Van Allison, C. C. Cruson.

The Emanon club met with Mrs. Maggie Groff last week. The usual work was done. Delicious refreshments of fruit salad served in apple halves, two kinds of sandwiches, cake, pickles and coffee were served. Mrs. Van Allison was welcomed back. Mrs. Harry Short and Mrs. Swengel were guests. Mrs. Nelson Durham was pleasantly surprised with a gift from the club. Members present were Mesdames Humphrey, Atkinson, Durham, Mackin, Cooper, Allison, Blabey, Arnes, Cochran and Bede. The club is planning a Christmas tree for its next meeting at Mrs. Arnes.

Mesdames J. H. Chambers and Joe Porter entertained at the Chambers home yesterday. The afternoon was spent in sewing and social chat. Two oral contests were held in which Mrs. Mackin and Mrs. Alden carried off the honors. Delicious refreshments of fruit salad, two kinds of cake, tea and home made candy were served. The invited guests were Mesdames Smith, Swengel, Scovell, C. J. Kam, O. M. Kem, C. M. Shinn, H. J. Shinn, Beager, Allison, Wheeler, Armstrong, McCargar, Short, Martin, Robbins, Adams, Jury, Schrepel, Umphrey, Mackin, Bede, Alden, Cochran, Wynne, Wright, Brund, Tyson, Hill, Johnson, Duntun, Sibbitts, Misses Berg and VanDenBerg.
