PATHOS AND HUMOR ARE MIXED

Dramatic Club in "Way Down East" Makes Big Hit With Large Audience.

With pathos and humor well mixed, tears blending with smiles, and every part well taken, the Cottage Grove Dramatic Club was a decided hit in "Way Down East" last night.

Of course it was expected that Norman Gray as the squire, Steven Burton as the village pride and Mrs. Burton as the village gossip would be good, and they were. Mrs. Burton also made a hit with a vocal solo during the intermission.

Orville Spear as Prof. Dawson, after girls and butterflies, was a scream, as was also Ernest Bisbee as Si Haskins. Miss Fern Holcomb was "too sweet for anything" as the village belle and Miss Eunice Vandenburg as Ruth Walton acted a hard part with great credit.

The play will be repeated tonight and the "Uncle From Japan" will be repeated Saturday night by the same company.

Grange Elects. At its meeting Saturday Cottage Grove Grange elected the following officers: Master, G. W. McFarland; overseer, A. J. Stevens; steward, H. B. ## Happy New Year

In this, our first message of the New Year, we wish to express our appreciation to the public for their patronage during the past year, and of what we value even more, their confidence and cordial good will. We realize that the public's interests and our interests are mutual and that whatever helps one helps the other.

In extending our thanks to the public for their patronage during the past year we pledge ourselves that during the coming year we will use our most earnest efforts to merit the continuation of the pleasant relations which have existed in the past.

Accept our sincere wishes that the New Year may bring you happiness and prosperity.
