GREAT JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE

A Big Season's End Clean-up of Winter Merchandise

In this Sale we include every Man's Suit, Boys' Clothing, Pants, Shoes, Blankets Flannel Shirts and several lots of Woolen Underwear, which we are closing ou

¶ Every Man's Fancy Suit reduced one-fourth. About 100 Suits selling regularly at $12.50 to $20.00. The range of sizes is complete, 33 to 46. The colors are: Brown, Tan, Gray and Blue mixtures.

Choose any $12.50 Suit for	$ 9.75
Choose any 15.00 Suit for	11.25
Choose any 18.00 Suit for	13.50
Choose any 20.00 Suit for	15.00

All Blue Serges and Black Suits 10% Off

A Great Clean-up of

Selz Royal Blue and Copeland Ryder Shoes

Any $3.50 Shoe, now	$2.85
Any 4.00 Shoe, now	3.25
Any 4.50 Shoe, now	3.75
Any 5.00 Shoe, now	4.25
Any 6.00 Shoe, now	5.00

Closing out several lots of Wool Underwear and Flannel Shirts at the following reductions.

Regular $1.00 natural wool Underwear at per garment	65c
Regular $1.25 natural wool Underwear at per garment	85c
Regular $1.50 lamb's wool Underwear at per garment	$1.15
Regular $2.00 Flannel Shirts in several shades of tan and gray, at	$1.45
Regular $2.50 Flannel Shirts Now	$1.95

Boys' Suits

at the Following Reductions

$3.00 Suits, $2.35
$3.50 Suits, $2.65
$4.00 Suits, $3.35
$5.00 Suits, $4.25
$6.00 Suits, $4.75
$7.50 Suits, $6.00

Blankets and Robes

All $3.50 wool Blankets, at	$2
All 4.00 wool Blankets, at
All 5.00 wool Blankets, at
All 6.00 wool Blankets, at
All 7.50 wool Blankets, at	5
All $4.00 Indian Robes	$2

Every Pair of

Men's Pants Reduced

$2.00 Pants, now selling at	$1.
2.50 Pants, now selling at	1.
3.00 Pants, now selling at	2.
3.50 Pants, now selling at	2.
4.00 Pants, now selling at	3.
4.50 Pants, now selling at	3.
5.00 Pants, now selling at	4.

The Stock is all fresh and clean. Come in and get early selection

Oregon Woolen Mills Store

Neighborhood News

Walden Items.

Jan. 15.—(Special to The Sentinel.)—Mr. Smith of the Mountain View Fruit Farm was in the Grove Saturday on business

Arnold Durest is improving rapidly.

Joe Pierson has lost another horse.

Mrs. D. H. Brumbaugh is visiting relatives in the Grove.

Clara and Nora Lebow spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents.

Joel Palmer was in the Grove Friday and returned Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pierson and family will leave this week for their new home at South Bend, Wash.

Mrs. James Lebow and children spent a few days in the Grove last week visiting relatives

James Lancaster was in the Grove Saturday.

R. H. Mosby and family have the mumps.

J. E. Damewood and crew are working on the railroad bridge.

Floyd Jones is home for a few days on account of a breakdown at the Chambers camp.

Geo. Hastings spent Sunday with his family.

School is stil closed on account of the mumps.

Paul Landwehr went to Divide Monday.

Finley Whipps was in the Grove Monday.

Roney Patten was in town Monday.

Geo. Nolta and John Allen spent Sunday with their families and returned to their work Monday morning.

Divide Items.

Jan. 15.—(Special to The Sentinel.)—Miss Frances Dugan made a trip to Cottage Grove Saturday.

The Sunny Side Mill loaded a car of ties Monday.

Walter Olin made a business trip to town Tuesday.

School resumed Monday.

Miss Hoag has been on the sick list the past week with the mumps.

P. A. Lindstrom loaded a car of wood Monday.

A number of Divide people attended the funeral of Chas. Hedrick at Cottage Grove Monday.

J. H. Hawley was in Cottage Grove on business Monday.

Miss Fannie Dugan has resumed her school at Dorena.

Miss Floy Lee was in town Sunday.

Miss Mary Galdvina of Anlauf is visiting relatives here for a few days.

Mrs. W. E. Burkett accompanied her sister to Springfield Tuesday to visit with her son Carl, who is running an engine there.

Miss Della Perini made a business trip to Cottage Grove Monday.

B. H. Lee was in Cottage Grove on business Monday.

P. A. Lindstrom has closed up his grocery store here and started a mercantile store in Portland.

Henry Armour went to Cottage Grove on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Perini have been visiting with Mr. Perini's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Perini.

Delight Valley.

Jan. 15.—(Special to The Sentinel.)—A son weighing 8½ pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Conner Tuesday.

Mrs. Joe Galbraith of Kelso, Wash., who had been visiting with Mrs. G. A. Harnden for several days, left Friday for Eugene before returning to her home.

S. C. Harnden of Irving visited over Sunday with his son Glen of Saginaw.

Word has been received from North Carolina of the marriage of George Angel, a former resident of Saginaw, to Miss Sally Stevens of Franklin, N. C.

A party was given at the home of Mrs. Robert Hanna Saturday night in honor of her brother, Jesse Tucker.

Mrs. Chas. Chandler returned Friday from Cottage Grove, after a several days visit in that city.

Mrs. Robert Hanna transacted business in Cottage Grove Monday.

Mrs. Bert Calloway and her sister, Mrs. Arthur Whitlock, visited in Creswell over Sunday.

A. D. Redfield of Springfield is cutting wood for H. F. Gibler.

Silk Creek.

Jan. 15.—(Special to The Sentinel.)—Prof. W. H. Bunch of Gravel Ford was visiting his sister, Mrs. R. W. Airey, and family a few days last week. Prof. Bunch was county superintendent of schools in Coos county for 23 successive years and resigned this position about a year ago.

Earl Hamilton of Washington and Miss Bessie Farmer, who resided here this winter, were married in Portland last week. Returning they spent one night with friends here and went on to California. Mr. Hamilton is at the head of the canvassing work in the Southern Oregon Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination. He expects to attend a bookmen's convention at Mountain View, Calif. Miss Farmer attended school at the academy until the holiday vacation.

Mrs. Lloyd Owens visited at the home of Mrs. J. R. Lynde one day last week.

Tom Cox recently sold his herd of nine cows at $75 per head.

Alvah Deardorff and wife were in Cottage Grove Monday.

Miss Loretta Cook of Oakland arrived here Monday and expects to attend school at the academy the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. Jennie Walker was in the Grove on business Monday.

About six men and boys held a woodcutting bee last week for Mrs. Ada Wilson.

A. D. Owens, wife and sons Roscoe and Rolland visited the M. F. Babcock family Wednesday night and Thursday.

Mrs. Edmund I. Hartley, who has been quite sick, is thought to be improving.

Miss Stella Hartley returned from Eugene the first of the week.

Mrs. R. W. Airey and Mrs. Seth Roe were in Cottage Grove Tuesday.

L. D. Estes is at work in the Grove on the new school house building.

Walter Babcock was in town Tuesday on business.

Mrs. John Gildersleeve was in the Grove Monday selling vegetables.

Seth Roe, who had been away some time returned the first of the week.

Prof. R. W. Airey visited Monday at the home of Isaac Taylor in Cottage Grove.

Pete Tonole of Divide was in the neighborhood on business one day this week.

E. A. Wheeler was in the Grove Tuesday.

Prayer meeting is held every Wednesday night at the academy building.

Creswell News Notes.

Jan. 10.—R. H. Parsons has commenced excavating for the foundation of the concrete warehouse which he will erect at the rear of the Central Hotel building. Work on the latter structure to make room for his furniture and hardware stock will begin soon.

The town jail is well filled nearly every night with hikers rounded up by Marshal Louk.

Word was received here Sunday from Sunnyside, Wash., stating that Roy Miller of Creswell had been operated on for appendicitis and was recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Edkins of St. Vincent, Minn., arrived in Creswell today for a visit with their daughter, Mrs. F. W. LeMasurier, and family and son, Walter and wife.

Thieves entered F. W. Treanor's store Sunday night and stole about $3.50 in money which had been left in the cash register and helped themselves to cigars. That is all that has been missed but other merchandise from the large stock could have been taken and its absence not noticed. Entrance to the building was gained through the transom over one of the front doors.—Chronicle.

Drain Doings.

Lewis St. Ores, a prominent citizen, a Mason and councilman died Saturday, Jan. 4. He had been a resident of Drain for 26 years. He was born in Wisconsin in 1853 and came around the horn with his parents in 1865. He married Miss Fay Farmer of Drain. His wife survives, as does also a son, Frank. Death resulted from neuralgia of the heart. The funeral was held at Roseburg.

Miss Moda Drain and Lloyd Whipple, deputy in the sheriff's office at Roseburg, were married here Jan. 8, Rev. L. W. Chandler officiating.

The Page Investment Co. has started its mill near this city and proposes turning out a lot of railroad ties in fulfillment of a contract made with the Southern Pacific railroad some time ago. Under this contract a large number of these ties were turned out and prepared for shipment, but owing to the suspension of work on the Coos Bay branch some years ago, they remained on the ground, but recently these have been taken away and the balance of the contract will be filled.

The Nonpareil office has been favored with a sample of Reimer and Kelly's Apple Syrup, bottled at their farm near Drain. This is a new method of getting a nice syrup for the table, and those who have used it pronounce it fine.—Nonpareil.

Dorena.

Jan. 15.—(Special to The Sentinel.)—Mr. and Mrs. Holstrom have moved over to Marcola.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Chrisman are both laid up with the grip.

Mr. Morrow of Walterville was visiting in this neighborhood Saturday and Sunday.

Frank Bales came up from Carlton Friday to be at the bedside of his father.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Grant Bales Wednesday, Jan. 8 ,an 11½ pound son.

J. B. Bales suffered a partial paralytic stroke Wednesday evening. He is improving.

The Dorena school district is piping the Layng Creek water to the school house this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald are both quite low at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Huston.

A physician was called Sunday to see Albert Land, who has the mumps and inflamation of the lining of the bowels.

Star Twinkles.

Jan. 15.—(Special to The Sentinel.)

Lon Hill of Cottage Grove made a business trip to the Brown lumber camp Saturday.

L. D. Owen transacted business in the Grove Saturday.

Cleve Jones went to the city Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Wicks spent Sunday visiting Mrs. Wick's parents at Cottage Grove.

Mrs. Lamb, Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Miles Pitcher were shopping in Cottage Grove Saturday.

Mr. Simonds moved his family to Disston Tuesday. He is working at the Star mill.

Miss Veta Pitcher of Disston visited with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Pitcher, a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frost made a business trip to Cottage Grove Saturday.

Harvey Dyer spent Saturday in Cottage Grove.

N. H. Russell has moved his family from Cottage Grove to the Brown lumber camp.

Bud Allen and Fred Frost were in Disston Thursday.

Mrs. Pitcher spent several days last week visiting her daughter at Disston.

Glenn Owen returned last week after spending more than a week visiting in Portland.

Mrs. Schealifo and daughters Anna and Bertha went to Cottage Grove Tuesday.

E. Underhill and Axel Hagstrom left for Cottage Grove Wednesday, after spending several days in this vicinity.

Mr. Anderson was at Star a couple of days this week having some posts loaded.

Joe Wicks went to Disston Wednesday.

Oscar McAllister, who has been on the sick list for several days, went to the Grove Tuesday for medical treatment.

Disston Doings.

Jan. 15.—(Special to The Sentinel.)—Arthur Whitman is making an extended visit with his brother, A. Whitman.

Miss Veta Pitcher is visiting with friends and relatives at Star.

Mrs. T. Hatfield returned from the Grove Saturday evening. She is quite improved in health.

Mrs. J. Ridderbusch and children of Dorena were the guests this week of Mrs. Ridderbusch's mother, Mrs. B. Haight.

Mr. Simons and family of Star have moved into the house they formerly occupied here.

S. L. Wicks spent Sunday with his parents at Wick's Station.

Grandma Pitcher of Star visited with her son, Ben Pitcher, and family last week.

Wayne Kirk was in Disston a few days last week. He returned to Dorena Monday.

Mr. Underwood was in the Grove Friday returning Saturday.

J. England had to quit work and go home on account of the mumps.

R. C. Woodhurst fell off A. Whitman's walk Sunday evening and bruised his leg quite severely.

Comstock.

Jan. 15.—(Special to The Sentinel.)—Chas. Lawrence spent a day in Cottage Grove this week.

Mr. Hills, a game warden from Portland, was here this week looking for the violators of the game laws.

An acetylene lighting plant has been installed in the homes of Roy Griggs and J. A. Griggs.

W. H. Lawrence spent Monday in Cottage Grove.

Floyd Craig of Drain and Wayne Grubb of St. Helens were guests at the home of Roy Griggs on Sunday.

Homer Hawley of Divide was here last week trying to buy a milch cow.

John Stemble was up from Drain Friday.

David Griggs of Cottage Grove visited relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. Lawrence attended the funeral of Charley Hedrick in Cottage Grove Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Anlauf of Anlauf, passed through Comstock Sunday on train No. 19, returning home after a visit of several weeks with relatives in Washington.

O. T. Olsen and Frank Clark are hauling cedar poles which to ship soon.

LANE COUNTY SE IN WEALTH

Sheriff Bown, in Farewel Gives Interestiing Sta About Taxes

Eugene, Oregon, January 1
A Letter to the Citizens County:

On leaving the office of Lane county at this time, I most earnestly thank the pub confidence and earnest suppo I feel I had during the four half years which I served in pacity, and without which officer can attain success.

I realize that I have made takes, but the public and have always been generous treatment accorded me. I hav tried to conduct the sheriff's a business basis and in such as would meet the approval of payers who elected me twice office.

In population and wealth county now stands second only nomah county. There has markable growth both in and taxable property since year in office as sheriff. The Eugene along during that doubled its population from 12,000 or more. The tax roll shows that $336,974.20 was that year by the sheriff's office less than half of the 1911 tax amounted to $797,000.00.

This remarkable growth has with it many new and difficult for your county officers to fac these problems were solved la cause I was exceedingly fortu having with me deputies wh always earnest and loyal and I that the taxpayers of Lane made no mistake when they Chief Deputy James C. Parker ceed me in that office and to the responsibilities which I hav over to him.

Mr. Parker starts on his ter the full knowledge of his dut realizes what the public expe sheriff.

I take this means to thank peace officers of Lane County the City of Eugene for their cooperation and assistance, an again thanking the press and pub their splendid treatment, I
Most sincerely yours, H. L. BO