"Eggs may be preserved for several months" by different methods," says Prof. James Dryden of the poultry department of the Oregon Agricultural College. "If put up right in the spring they may be kept till the following fall or winter. They will not be as good, however, as fresh-laid eggs."

"A method that will preserve the original quality of the eggs for an indefinite period has not yet been discovered. By cold storage, eggs are put up in large quantities during the spring season when prices are low, but where it is desired to preserve a small quantity for home use the cold storage method is not practicable."

"Eggs intended for storage should be fresh and clean. March or April eggs will keep better than May or June eggs. The sooner they are put into storage after being laid the better they will keep."

Dissolve a pound of lime in five gallons of water. The water should be boiled previously to sterilize it, and then cooled. Stir thoroughly, and let settle. Then pour off the clear liquid into a wooden or earthen jar or tub. Fill with eggs to within an inch of the top of the liquid. This will allow for evaporation. The liquid should not be allowed to get lower than the top of the eggs. When the vessel is filled with eggs, cover it with coarse muslin or factory, over which spread a paste of lime to exclude the air.

"Water-glass (sodium silicate) may be purchased at the drug stores. Use the liquid form and the commercial grade in the proportions of one part water-glass to eight parts water. Use earthen jars or wooden tubs or barrels that are perfectly clean, and store in a clean, cool place. The material used will cost about a cent for each dozen eggs stored."

A comprehensive showing of exhibits by many societies and organizations, highly instructive in character, will be seen at the Conference of Human Life, Its Waste and Conservation, to be held at Reed College, Portland, May 9-11. Officers of the conference are in touch with over 100 different institutions that probably will be represented. Interest in this gathering is widespread and the attendance promises to be large.

FIVE REASONS

WHY YOU SHOULD USE
Dr. Hess' Poultry Panacea

FIRST—Poultry Pan-a-ce-a cures Gapes, because it contains, among other things, Hyposulphite Soda, that is quickly taken up by the blood, which nauseates the worm, causes it to let go its hold from the walls of the wind pipe, and then the chick is able to throw it off.

SECOND—It does prevent and cure Leg Weakness, because it contains, among other things, Nux Vomica, the greatest nerve tonic known. After feeding Pan-a-ce-a the chick speedily regains its locomotion.

THIRD—It does regulate the many little bowel troubles, to which the chick is subject, because it contains internal antiseptics for that purpose.

FOURTH—Being composed of the very best tonics, iron, internal antiseptics, etc., it calls into healthy action every organ of the fowl body and insures rapid development, early broilers, early market.

FIFTH—We sell every package on a positive guarantee, and we will reimburse you for every package returned which proves unsatisfactory.
