UMPHREY & MACKIN

The Quality Cash Store Cottage Grove, Ore.

SOCIETY

The W. C. T. U. held a "Domestic Science" afternoon at the residence of Mrs. C. W. Caldwell Friday from 2.30 to 5 p. m. About twenty six women were present. The devotionals were led by Mrs. Smith (W. C. T. U. evangelist) who read a portion of the 33d chapter of Proverbs, followed by prayer. All joined in singing a rousing "White Ribbon" song. Mrs. Schief, who was to have made a talk, could not be present. Miss Jennie Smith sang a well received solo. Miss Ada Matthews and Mrs. Beager each gave splendidly rendered piano solos. As per announcement, quite a number of the women had brought their favorite recipes, as well as note books and pencils, and the way those recipes were recited would make the average person hungry for a week. Mrs. Clara T. Young and Mrs. Lee Roy Woods told how they made their delicious bread and clinched their assertions by serving some of it, which all pronounced fine. Mrs. H. J. Shinn demonstrated her choice salad, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all and Mrs. Smith demonstrated and served a cereal beverage. Among those present were: Mesdames Kime, Nichols and two children, Woods, Jones, Kem, H. J. and C. M.

Shinn, Beager and daughter, Lee Roy and Dr. Woods, Kerr, Taylor, Matthews, Woodard, Fuller, Young, DeSpain, Smith, Hogate, Perkins, C. F. Walker and Caldwell and the Misses Smith, Matthews and DeSpain.

The members of the Christian Church held their second quarterly business meeting at the church Friday evening. After the transaction of business a short program was rendered, after which a social time was enjoyed by all. Refreshments of punch and cake were served.

Miss Laura McKernan was pleasantly surprised at her home near Latham Monday by the members of Cottage Grove Relief Corps, the occasion being her fifty-eighth birthday anniversary. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent, ending with a bounteous dinner brought by the guests. Those present were: Mesdames Emma Tompkins, Lena Hamloth, Ellen Spray, Arthurs Handy, Sarah Kerr, Regina Bohm, Malinda Awbrey, Carrie McKernan, Sterling Gray, England, Lizzie Rhode, Rose Mauer and E. Fahrenwald.

Mrs. J. P. Graham was a charming hostess when she entertained the members of the Eastern Star and other friends at her home on East Main Street Tuesday afternoon. The game of the afternoon was a contest in which the guests made as many words as possible from the words, "The Eastern Star." Miss Neva Perkins was the prize winner. Punch was served by Miss Nellie Hemenway and Katherine Wallace in a cool forest bowler. Ices were served at small tables, the guests finding their places by matching flowers. Miss Marguerite Johnson, Miss Mabel Veatch, Miss Katherine Wallace and Miss Nellie Hemenway assisted the hostess in the dining room and drawing room. Two rooms were draped with the Eastern Star colors. The hostess was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. W. W. Oglesby. Mrs. Brund, Mrs. Cruson and Miss Katherine Wallace added to the enjoyment of the afternoon with delightful songs and recitations. The favors were stars which bore clever quotations which were read when the guests were seated at the tables.

Mrs. J. S. Benson entertained the members of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Church and other friends, at her home Friday. The afternoon was spent in preparing a Christmas box for Miss Laura Hefty, formerly a teacher here, now a missionary in Cue Chang, China. Mrs. Benson served dainty refreshments after the thimbles were laid aside.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cooley were greatly but agreeably surprised on Thursday evening when neighbors and friends assembled at their farm home in honor of Mrs. Cooley's birthday anniversary. Old fashioned games were played and the evening spent in fun and frolic.

The Lady Macabees held their meeting at the home of Mrs. John Barker Friday evening. After the business meeting, an informal social meeting was held. Ices were served.

Mrs. S. L. Mackin and Mrs. C. E. Umphrey have out cards for a Cubist party Friday afternoon.

Mrs. F. W. Robbins has issued invitations for a "rag party" on the afternoon of the twenty-second.

Marriage license issued July 15: Robert G. Landwehr and Miss Lucy I. Linebaugh.

Miss Eva King and Earl Hill were quietly married in Portland Tuesday afternoon, leaving today for Marshfield, where Mr. Hill has an engagement to play base ball for the remainder of the season. Although their engagement has been known for some time, the wedding comes somewhat as a surprise to their friends here.

Mr. Hill is a son of Mrs. Lucy Holland. Miss King lived with Mrs. Holland for a number of years.

Misses Mildred and Lala Walker entertained last evening in honor of their aunt, Miss Lillian Wolfer of Sheldurn, who has been spending three weeks

Bind Legs Found on New-Born Grove Chicken

A CHICKEN with "bind legs" is the curiosity discovered by Mrs. Adeline Mounts in a brood hatched Sunday. The additional traveling gear is attached at the point where the tail feathers will grow out providing the freak survives that long. It is a healthy looking youngster and came to call on The Sentinel Monday, arousing much interest by its odd appearance. The two extra legs are perfectly formed, but are drawn up against the body and do not interfere with the functions of the other two in any way.

with her sister, Mrs. C. F. Walker. After a social evening, refreshments of sandwiches, pickles, salad and cake were served. Those present were: May Sams, Elsie Coffman, Mabel Gardner, Kathleen Kem, Julia Wicherwoh, Lillian Wolfer, Lala Walker, Mildred Walker; Solomon Coffman, Harold Sams, Cecil Caldwell, Ogle Young, Dale Hawkins, Victor Kem, Frank Walker, Rupert Coffman.

Calling cards—The Sentinel.

Grants Pass Daily May Quit.

Publisher A. E. Voorhees of the Grants Pass Courier, has issued a circular letter to the merchants of Grants Pass, stating that if the paper is not awarded better support, the daily issue will be suspended July 3, leaving Grants Pass without a daily newspaper. The Courier was started as a daily over three years ago and Mr. Voorhees has made great sacrifices to keep it going. If the cooperation appealed for is not forthcoming publication will be abandoned.

W. N. RINEHART DEMONSTRATES DIFFERENCE BETWEEN LOGAN-BERRY AND PHENOMENAL

To demonstrate the difference between the loganberry and the phenomenal, W. N. Rinehart has presented The Sentinel two boxes of the latter and one of the former. The difference is quite apparent, both in size and taste, the phenomenal being much larger, much richer in appearance and with a decided raspberry taste.

The loganberry is a cross of the raspberry and blackberry, while the phenomenal is a cross of the raspberry and dewberry. Mr. Rinehart has quite a patch of the latter.

The value of a paper to a community can be accurately measured by what outsiders think of it. The Sentinel is willing to be thus measured.
