HEREITERATES STATEMENT THAT TUBERS GO 300 BUSHELS TO ACRE
 To refute good-natured allegations that the newspaper lied or that he was full of wind when he stated that he was digging potatoes that went 300 bushels to the acre, Geo. Miller brought in samples of the tubers yesterday that have convinced the doubting thomases. The product of one hill tipped the scales at five pounds, while four large, flawless, solid murphies weighed an even four pounds. Mr. Miller does not take any backwater and is willing to let anyone do the digging who is not satisfied that he is giving correct weight and count.

No other paper gives you more than one-half as much news of the Cottage Grove country as does The Sentinel.

preach what I think, I will leave the church. I can not bear subordination and the truckler and groveler is not cut out for performing the big things in the work which the Savior has for us to do."

The mystery with which so many of its exponents like to surround the bible, the complexity of ideas which they find there, the false theories and expositions were battered down. The Good Book was stripped of "Jewish legalism and Roman despotism" and brought to a plane that all might understand. The only plan of salvation was declared to be found in the words, "Come, receive, obey," and the speaker offered $50 to any person who could find laid down in the bible a set plan of salvation.

Greater forgiveness than that of the slave girl who forgave Naaman separation from home and friends, forgave her slavery in Naaman's household and told him of the preacher who could cure his leprosy, the speaker declared there was not.

In poetical quotation and fervid prose, the preacher pictured the Father's will behind everything. There might be several transitions, but finally everything harked back to the will of God.

Fully 300 people filled the church to hear again the former pastor, and were rewarded with an able, fervent and stirring address. An enjoyable quartet was rendered by the Anderson brothers and sisters.

SCHOOL WILL OPEN SEPTEMBER 15

Provisional List of Teachers; Domestic Science Waits on New Building.

Vacation, like every other good thing in this world, must come to an end, and the end this year is decreed for September 15, when the blithesome (?) school bell will once more be heard and Johnny and Mary will rush madly about so as to get there early and secure a back seat.

Two vacancies still remain in the list of teachers. The provisional list is as follows:

James E. Dunton, superintendent. High school teachers: Miss Russ, domestic art; Laura G. Smith, mathematics and German; Laura Kennon, English and economics; Lulu Currin, history and Latin; A. L. Barnhart, history and mathematics; James E. Dunton, science.

Grammar grade teachers: Miss Perkins, first grade; Miss Hooper, first and second grades; Miss Davison, second grade; Miss Lena Holcomb, third grade; Miss Buell, fourth grade; Miss Banta, fourth grade; Miss Ivy Holcomb, fifth grade; Miss Russ, fifth grade; Miss Wilson, sixth grade; Mrs. Beager, sixth grade; Ernest Purvance, eighth grade. An assistant in the eighth grade and the seventh grade teacher are yet to be elected.

The course in domestic science, which was planned for this year, cannot be inaugurated until the completion of the new high school building as there are no facilities for laboratory work in the present building.

A young man thinks his prospective father-in-law must think him an idiot when he gets caught hugging the old man's daughter—but the chances are the old man would think any young man an idiot who wouldn't hug his daughter when the opportunity was presented.

A horse and buggy may not be as luxurious as an auto in which to do your courting, but it has one advantage that will long maintain its popularity—the horse will keep the road.

It pays to read the ads. in The Sentinel.

Have Remarkable Turkey Hen

A turkey hen which has laid 92 eggs since March and is still working on the job, is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Alex Small. They have been quite interested in the remarkable production of hens and China pheasants, as published in The Sentinel, but would like to know what turkey hens are doing to bring themselves into the limelight. Their bird is of the Bourbon Red breed and was hatched last year.

The value of a paper to a community can be accurately measured by what outsiders think of it. The Sentinel is willing to be thus measured.
