Society

Mrs. Ora Lee Nichols was hostess at a delightful afternoon Wednesday of last week when she entertained about twenty friends. The afternoon was spent in conversation brightened by an interesting guessing game. At the close of the afternoon the guests were led into the dining room where the table was daintily laid, decorated with a centerpiece of pink roses and pink streamers. Luncheon was served. Miss Hattie Landess assisted the hostess in serving. The guests were: Mesdames W. P. Hall, N. E. Compton, W. H. Abrams, B. R. Job, Chas. Adams, G. M. Hall, A. S. Powell, J. H. Chambers, D. H. Hemenway, F. W. Robbins, A. W. Kime, K. K. Mills, L. S. Hill, G. O. Knowles, J. C. Morris, W. L. Landess, J. C. Johnson, C. C. Cruson, C. A. VanDenburg and C. H. Burkholder.

Harry M. Wheeler and Mrs. Lillian M. Brehaut were married last Wednesday evening by Rev. C. M. Cobb at the parsonage. The couple left immediately for Roseburg by automobile.

The Emanon Club met with Mrs. Geo. Scott Thursday. A busy and social afternoon was spent after which delicious refreshments of ice cream, apple pie and coffee were served. Members present were Mesdames Umphrey, Mackin, Allison, Groff, Armes, Durham, Richmond, Atkinson, Bisby, Cochran, Short and Bede.

A marriage license has been issued to Huston Queener of Cottage Grove and Susie Workman of Marcola.

Mesdames W. P. Hall and Lee Nixon entertained about nineteen of their friends at a delightful Friday afternoon party. Mrs. Fishburn was the successful contestant in a "printers' pi" contest. Mrs. A. L. Monroe won the prize in the "modelling" contest and Mrs. H. A. Miller in the nail driving contest. The house was decorated in pink roses. The hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Eva Craven Wheeler rendered two selections. Dainty refreshments of wafers and punch were served.

Mrs. N. E. Compton is planning a houseparty reunion of the five "Craven girls." The five women, who are cousins, expect to gather here Sunday in the first reunion since their girlhood. Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Compton's sister, is already here. Two of the cousins live in Portland and one in Iowa.

The Social Twelve met with Mrs. F. W. Robbins Thursday afternoon and had their usual enjoyable session. The afternoon was spent in needlework and the hostess served delightfully. Only members of the club were present.

William I. Devore of Jefferson County, Ohio, and Mrs. Lizzie Saltzman of Saginaw were married in Eugene, October 1, Justice of Peace Jesse G. Wells officiating.

Huston Quiner and Miss Susie Workman were united in marriage by Justice of the Peace Joseph Young in his office in this city on October 1.

Joseph Fondas and Mrs. Ellen Rondeau were married at the home of Mrs. Rondeau on Pacific Highway by Justice Joseph Young, Wednesday evening, October 1.

In honor of Mrs. Hildreth, department inspector, the Women's Relief Corps held a special meeting Thursday, combining both business and pleasure. There was a large attendance who listened with gratitude to the favorable report of the local corps given by Mrs. Hildreth. After the business meeting light refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served.

Lot 6—Squash, class B—First, Watson Zachary, Coburg.

Lot 10—Onions, class A—First, Edward Ziniker, Creswell.

Lot 12—Grain selections, class A—First, Court Lattin, Creswell.

MANY PRIZES WON BY LANE COUNTY CHILDREN

School Pupils' Exhibits at Salem Win Silver Cups and Cash Prizes.

With third place in the general school exhibit in the state, $125 in cash prizes, the grand special cup for the best coop of chickens in the state and one-eighth of the total prizes offered Lane county school children may feel that they have acquitted themselves creditably at the state fair. Fifteen first prizes were taken in all by the Lane county school exhibit and 17 lower in grade. Considering the fact that Lane county had no entries in many of the classes, Assistant Superintendent O'Reilly and Supervisor Goldie VanBibber, who had charge of the Lane county exhibit, express themselves as well pleased with the showing made.

Lot 17—Asters, class A—First, Ruth Ellis, Eugene.

Lot 17—Asters, class B—First, Carin Casperson, Eugene.
