

This Announces

-that Kirschbaum autumn clothes, authoritative in style and honest in quality, are ready.

-that you will read some very interesting facts about them in a two-page advertisement in this week's Saturday Evening Post.

-that the clothes themselves will more than bear out all we say about them.

A.B. Kirschbaum Company
PHILADELPHIA NEW YORK

They will be shown to you by

Oregon Woolen Mills Store

Sales of the Town

Many Matters of More than Passing Moment

Any item in these columns containing on the last line thereof the mark [.] is paid advertising. [This announcement is made in compliance with the postal regulations.]

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Bede attended the State Editorial Convention at Portland Friday and Saturday.

Something extraordinary, something astonishing and striking in the slashed sale of cut glass at Madsen's which starts October 3 and continues 30 days.

J. W. Kirk left last Thursday for Alma, Mont., to spend the winter with relatives.

A relative in some far away state would greatly enjoy a visit from you at Christmas time. You can come pretty near filling the wish by sending one of Armstrong's life like quality photos, secured at 24 North Sixth.

The S. Pierce family moved to Creswell last week.

The best of music and no rowdiness at the big Halloween dance by the Military club. Get your lassie and be there.

The Oregon & Southeastern Railway has discontinued its Wednesday train for the present.

Roofing paper and roof paint, the kind that keeps out the rain. Sold by Swengel Hardware store.

Dr. J. E. Fisher will take an extended vacation and his business practice has been taken over by Dr. F. Covell, who arrived last week.

Don't miss the Dunbar quartet in instrumental harmonies at The Arcade Saturday evening.

Let the children play in the rain. Use a little Dri-Foot, for sale by Goff, the shoe doctor.

Your teeth are one of the most important items in making a good appearance. Those whose success depends upon making a good impression on people can not afford to have unwashed or decayed teeth. See Dr. Ingram.

A. Miller of Thurston arrived here Saturday for a short stay.

J. S. Medley was in Eugene Friday on business.

The greatest sale of its kind in the history of Cottage Grove starts at Madsen's Nov. 3 and lasts one month. Goods will move rapidly at the half price at which they are offered. It will stand you in hand to make your selections early.

Announcement

Dr. Fred Covell has taken over the practice of Dr. J. E. Fisher, the Chiropractor in the Phillips Building. An invitation is especially extended to all those whose ailments have become chronic. Consultation free.

Mrs. Covell, Assistant

Dr. Covell is a member of the faculty of the Pacific College of Chiropractic, Portland, Ore. Dr. and Mrs. Covell have had fifteen years successful practice with drugless methods.

Heating stoves, 27 varieties; Swengel Hardware. Every one a woodsaver and a comfort maker.

He waived examination when brought before Justice of the Peace Wells, and was bound over on $1,000 bonds. He was placed in jail, but later released when the bonds were furnished.

Fire! Fire! Fire! That cry will never cause the cold shivers to run down your back if you talk with Metcalf about insurance.

Mrs. J. A. Holderson and two children who live ten miles west of Eugene, were the guests of Mrs. M. T. Winger four days of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Fields returned last week from their eastern trip.

One of the greatest musical aggregations of its kind. The Dunbar quartet at The Arcade Saturday evening. The greatest ball of the season. The big military dance at The Armory Halloween night.

Commissioner Hawley came up from Eugene Saturday morning to inspect the new macadam roads which are nearing completion.

Big Military dance at the Armory Halloween night. The best of music.

Mrs. Fred Russell of Portland has been the house guest of Mrs. W. H. Abrams for the past ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Graham arrived from Astoria Friday for a visit with Mrs. Graham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ogelsby.

Plows, harrows, farm implements; the Swengel Hardware store is selling a lot of them this fall.

Mrs. Rupert Magee left last week to join her husband at Salem where he is employed.

Victor Chambers, George Matthews and Frank Brumbaugh spent the weekend on a deer hunt at Blue Mountain.

Pure White Flour can't be beaten. Every sack is guaranteed to satisfy or money refunded. Sterling Feed Co.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Dreisbach of Finley, Ohio, leave today for California, after a visit with their daughter, Mrs. R. M. Broadbent.

Guy Martin has returned from Silver Lake.

Mrs. J. A. Cobb has gone to San Francisco.

Unless you see it you can not realize the beauty and brilliancy of the cut glass which goes on sale at half price at Madsen's Nov. 3.

Mrs. Ed Boyd of Centralia, Wash. is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Tennis.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Harvey spent Sunday at Roseburg visiting a niece they had not seen for forty-four years.

Good team for sale. Inquire at ranch 8 miles south on Coast Fork. C. C. Gillham, Cottage Grove. 09-23pd

O. M. Kem and family made an auto trip to Eugene Sunday afternoon.

Married: at the home of the bride in Coburg, Oct. 14, Bert H. McKibben and Miss Mildred B. Skinner, Rev. J. M. Crenshaw officiating.

Spray pumps; Swengel Hardware.

Married: in Eugene, Oct. 20, by Justice of the Peace Wells, Walter Pitcher of this city and Edna E. Grigsby of Eugene.

You'll miss a rare musical treat if you don't hear a rare musical treat at The Arcade Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Flinn returned Monday from Medford and are at home in this city.

No ragging and no rough stuff at the big Halloween night dance at the Armory.

Andrew Nelson has taken the contract for wiring the new Arcade Theatre building and the Cooper building near Second street.

A. Miller and his son H. W. Miller of Thurston stopped in this city Sunday.

Expert dressmaking done promptly. Mrs. Pet Sanford. m23tf

Jos. Damewood and family have returned from Eugene where Mr. Damewood recently sold his dray business and will go onto their farm east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Currin Cooley have temporarily moved into town from Dorena.

A Hearty Appetite A Juicy Roast or Steak

A Great Combination

Get the first yourself and the latter at—

City Meat Market

BARTELS & ERNEST, Props.

Brilliant Cut Glass, prices slashed in two and sometimes more. The greatest sale of its kind ever inaugurated in Cottage Grove. Buy some pretty pieces for Christmas presents. Sale starts Nov. 3 and continues 30 days, providing the stock lasts that long. See the display at Madsen's.

Gene Schneider, son of a farmer living near this city was taken to Eugene Saturday by Deputy Sheriff G. W. Pitcher, charged with a serious offense.

Mrs. Ora Read Hemenway will be in the city Tuesday afternoons and evenings during the winter to give lessons in dramatic reading. 01-22c

All of the steel for the new bridge arrived Monday.

J. I. Case steel plows are sold by the Swengel Hardware store.

J. M. Comer recently shipped 200 pounds of dried fruit, corn and beans to his son, Elder Mark Comer, who is in the S. D. A. missionary service in Calcutta. The supplies were the gift of members of the S. D. A. church in this city.

Trespass notices printed on cloth for sale at The Sentinel office.

Mrs. M. C. Burton returned Saturday from South Bend, Wash., where she was called by the critical illness of her mother who is now convalescent.

Mrs. C. M. Cobb has resumed her class in piano and has hours for a few more pupils. Phone 121L. o1tf

Miss Neita Hazelton came up from Eugene to spend Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hazelton.

Dry foot oil keeps the wet out and the dry in. Goff's Shoe Hospital.

The women of the Baptist Church will hold a market of home cooking at The Metsan Shop Saturday.

No girl wants a beau who won't take her to the big Halloween dance by the Military club.

The auto dray business conducted for several months by A. C. Doran has been purchased by L. L. Harrell and consolidated with the Cottage Grove Transfer company.

Miss Verna Hawkins has been quite seriously ill during the past week.

Special sale of Brilliant Cut Glass. See the unusual display in Madsen's window. Begins November 3 and continues 30 days.

A daughter was born Monday night to Mr. and Mrs. Van Allison.

Otto Dobberstein returned Friday from a three weeks' visit at White Salmon, Wash.

Lime-Sulphur spray, full 30 test, sold at the Swengel Hardware store.

Ernest Wyatt returned Saturday from a week's outing at Bohemia.

Talk with Metcalf when you want insurance of any kind.

R. C. Bauman is up from Portland on a business trip.

Thoughtfulness in Christmas giving means getting presents early enough so that there need be no rush on the part of anyone. Now is none too early to pose for those pictures at Armstrong's, 24 North Sixth.

A ten-pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hastings.

The value of a paper to a community can be accurately measured by what outsiders think of it. The Sentinel is willing to be thus measured.

"A Girl of the Underworld"

Manager Beals has arranged with the business manager of "A Girl of the Underworld" to play this attraction at the Arcade Theatre Wednesday evening, Oct. 29. This company is one of the best dramatic organizations playing through the Pacific Coast theatres and always at from one dollar to one dollar and a half prices. They had an open night following Eugene and will play Cottage Grove. The highest price of admission will be fifty cents and children twenty-five cents. Nothing reserved. They carry a special set of scenery that can be used in The Arcade. The company is composed of first class actors and comes highly endorsed.

Henry A. Johnston, a business man of L'Anse, Mich., writes: "For years, Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for coughs and colds has been our family medicine. We give it to our children, who like it on account of its pleasant taste. It is a safe cure for coughs and colds." It contains no opiates. For sale by all dealers everywhere.

Cottage Grove Chapter No. 4, O. E. S.

Regular meetings second and fourth Fridays of the month at Masonic Hall, Pacific Highway. Next meeting Oct. 24. Balloting.

WANT ADS

Advertisements in this department 6c a line. Figure 6 words to line.

HELP WANTED

WANTED.—GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Mrs. W. B. Cooper.

WANTED, AT ONCE, A GIRL TO do house work. Apply at Modern Pharmacy. o8tf

FOR RENT

FOR RENT.—5 ROOM HOUSE ON West Main; large porches; south facing. Joe Miller, 7th and Adams.

FOR SALE OR TRADE

FOR SALE.—YOUNG JERSEY COW, fresh about two months. Inquire of A. E. Whitbeck, N. Tenth St. o22pd

GOOD MILCH COWS FOR SALE, Jersey and Durham strains. Inquire Beidler Brothers at Curran ranch. o8tf

TWENTY PIGS FOR SALE. Inquire of John Hull, two miles south of Cottage Grove. o1tf

WANTED TO TRADE.—42½ ACRES half mile from Lebanon, 30 acres in clover, balance plowed for clover in spring, 8-room house, good as new, good out buildings, hot and cold water in house, wind mill and tank, lots of fruit and berries. Will trade for farm near Cottage Grove. Value $2,500. Address J. E. Nichols, Lebanon, Ore. o15-29pd

Clothes Do Not Always Make the Man, but they Often Make a Man Successful

To prove this, I want you to come and look over my line of new samples and select what is best suited to you and I will make you a suit that will fit you and which will make you satisfied with yourself and a joy to your friends.

I also carry a fine line of overcoatings from $22.50 and up. Orders taken for the Reliance Raincoats, the best that are made from $10.00 and up.

F. C. REFFLING, The Tailor

MAIN STREET, NEAR THE BRIDGE

ARCADE THEATRE THURS. OCT. 29

"A GIRL OF THE UNDERWORLD"

FULL ACTING COMPANY SPECIAL SCENERY

ADMISSION 50c & 25c TAKE ANY SEAT

This attraction plays Eugene October 28 and had an open night enroute to Roseburg—It's highly endorsed

THEY'RE SO GOOD

I GOT ONE OF THEM ZIFGUNS WITH OLYMPIC PANCAKE FLOUR BUT TEACHER WENT AND TOOK IT AND LICKED ME FOR AN HOUR.

Ask your dealer about the new PRESENTS for boys and girls that go with "Olympic" Wheat Hearts and "Olympic" Pancake Flour. Just the dandiest, catchiest, most interesting "new" novelties imaginable, especially imported from Germany.

Portland Flouring Mills Co. Portland, Oregon

The value of a paper's advertising is gauged by the number of people it reaches. No other paper reaches more than a quarter as many Cottage Grove people as does The Sentinel.

We Thought of Overcoats

Last Summer!

That's the reason we have a complete stock on hand now to fit the smallest boy or the biggest man.

LURCH'S, Inc.

O-Cedar Mops; Swengel Hardware.

The Women's Relief Corps will hold a basket dinner in Phillips Hall October 25 at 12 o'clock. Comrades and their wives are invited.

O-CEDAR MOPS
O-CEDAR POLISH
O-CEDAR DUSTERS
KINTER BROS.
PHONE 6 NUF-CED

Cut glass at cut prices. Appropriate for gifts at Yuletide or any other time. Lay away a supply for gifts during the year. Never such a sale before. Never such a sale again. Look at Madsen's windows.

The case of the Bank of Cottage Grove vs. A. L. and Lulu Briggs to recover money was dismissed in the circuit court in Eugene last week.

The most musical laughter falls flat when it exhibits a set of bad teeth. See Dr. Ingram. s11tf

James Hemenway has been appointed bailiff in the district court during the session next month.

In the poultry exhibit at the Harrisburg potato show held last Thursday Jess Griffin of Eugene took the first prize in every class in which he entered a bird.

Dr. Demorest, Dentist. Office over Kerr & Silby's Store. m9tf

Archie Thompson spent several days last week in Eugene on business.