SHERIFF PROMISES CUT OF $3000 IN BUDGET FOR 1914

The Sheriff's office will cost the taxpayers of Lane county several thousand dollars less next year than it has cost in the past, according to an estimate made by Sheriff Parker and his deputies, as required by the new law. One item of heavy expense that will not be attached to the sheriff's office next year is that of tax collecting, which will be done hereafter by the county treasurer. As compared with an expense of $14,000 or thereabouts during the year 1912, the sheriff's force figures that the expense during 1914 will be $11,312. The estimates on the various items of expense are as follows: Sheriff's salary at $106.66 2-3 a month, $2000; salaries of two deputies at $100 a month each, $2400; jailor's salary, $100 a month, $1200; outside deputy help, at $145 a month, $1740; board of prisoners, at $7.09 2-3 a month, $2122; livery hire at $83.33 1-3 a month, $1000; telephone and telegraph at $45 a month, $540; stationery and stamps at $25 a month, $300. Total $942.66 2-3 a month, or $11,312 for the year. The fees during the year are estimated at $1000, thus cutting down the expense of the office that much. Last year the fees were only $800, the difference showing the big increase in the business of the office in that time. Fees are received for serving papers, getting so much a mile for the distance traveled by the sheriff or his deputies. There will be fewer deputies in the office next year than in the past on account of the fact that the tax collecting department is turned over to the treasurer. This partly accounts for the difference in the expenses of the office last year and the estimate for next year.

On the other hand there has been a big increase in the number of prisoners in the county jail during the past year and it is expected that the increase will continue. There has been during the entire year an average of 11 prisoners in the jail all the time and at no time since Sheriff Parker took his office has the number been less than 10. The board of these prisoners cuts a big figure in the expense of the office.—Guard.

10 FACTS ABOUT LIABILITY INSURANCE

Fact Number One: A careful examination of the statistics of the twelve largest liability companies for the last two years obtainable, viz: 1910 and 1911, reveals the fact that only 34.9% of the premiums paid went to the injured.

Fact Number Two: This 34.9% is paid grudgingly and every obstacle is placed in the way of an injured workman seeking just redress. Usually the burden is placed on him of taking the rich liability company into court.

Fact Number Three: When the injured workman has paid the lawyer and other costs, it is a certain that not more than half of this 43.9 per cent is left. In other words, probably not more than 20 per cent of the total premiums is actually going for the relief of the injured.

Fact Number Four: The remaining 61.1 per cent of the premiums is eaten up in expenses and profits. Instead of going to help the injured, it goes to swell the coffers of the insurance companies. As a general rule, liability companies pay handsome dividends.

Fact Number Five: The employer of labor would like to see the whole of the premium he pays go to the injured. Under the present system he is helpless and to protect himself he has to accept any terms the insurance companies offer him.

Fact Number Six: Every workman who, in the course of his regular employment is injured, is entitled to receive compensation.

Fact Number Seven: The Workmen's Compensation Law proposes that workmen who are injured in the course of their employment shall automatically, and as a matter of right, receive adequate compensation without interference or intervention of lawyers and courts.

Fact Number Eight: The total cost of administering the law in Washington during the first year of its operation was under 10 per cent of the total premiums. It will be less this year.

Fact Number Nine: It is indefensible, economic waste to spend fifty-six per cent of the gross income of a business when experience proves better results can be obtained by the expenditure of less than ten per cent of the gross income.

Fact Number Ten: With the passage of the Workmen's Compensation Law, the employer knows all the money he pays is going for the relief of the injured; the workman knows, in the event of injury, he and his dependents are immediately provided for; the citizen knows that the poverty which often accompanies disability or death will be relieved. The Workmen's Compensation Law will work a grave hardship on the casualty companies and on accident lawyers.

LIABILITY ACT UPHELD BY DR. WHITE

State Official Cites Recent Instances Where it Would Be of Great Benefit to Widows.

(Portland Telegram, October 21.) "It would be a great pleasure to me, if my official position did not prevent it, to make a speaking campaign throughout the state in favor of the compensation act," said Dr. C. S. White, secretary of the state board of health and president of the Oregon Medical Society, "and it would be an added pleasure if I could engage in a joint debate on the subject if anyone could be found who had the temerity to oppose on a platform."

"In my former private practice and in my present official capacity the necessity of such a law has appealed to me as imperative, and must be adopted. Immediately to my knowledge has come this case, which is but one of many in the state."

"Living near Rainier were two sisters, married to men employed by a lumber company. One of the men was killed a few weeks ago, while sitting on a logging truck, by being hit by a loose truck that ran over him. His funeral took place on a Monday and the next day the husband of the other sister was killed, while acting as brakeman of a logging train. I have no personal knowledge whether the men were to blame for their deaths, and it makes no difference if they were, as far as their families are concerned. One widow has two babes and the other five children, none old enough to be self-supporting. These women have taken the only present recourse and have placed their claim in the hands of a lawyer, to whom they have agreed to give half of what they receive for the deaths of their husbands.

"If there is any reason or commonsense why a lawyer should get half of the benefits for the misfortunes of a laborer, I fail to see it. From a humanitarian standpoint it is essential that a compensation act should be in force so that the homes may be kept together and stop the children from being wards of the state in some charitable institution and this is particularly true in the case of young girls.

"The compensation act, as passed by the recent legislature, provides for frat aid to the injured, and this eliminates all that the physicians had objected to in the law that is in force in the state of Washington.

"The physicians of Oregon, regardless of school or creed are unanimous for this act and desire that it may become effective for the reason that they come closest in contact with the injured and their families and are helping to advise against the claim agents and ambulance-chasing lawyers.
