SOCIETY

Miss Jennie Smith was pleasantly entertained Thursday afternoon at an apron shower given by Mrs. Roy Short and Miss Mabel Veatch. The afternoon was spent in fancy work. Refreshments of sandwiches, salad, marshmallow pudding, coffee were served. At the bride's table, the bride's cake was cut and served by the bride-elect.

The color scheme, lavender and white, was carried out in the dining room. Miss Smith was the recipient of nineteen pretty aprons.
An apron shower was given at the home of Mrs. A. C. Kinter Thursday for the bazaar of the Presbyterian Church, which is to be held next month. A social time was enjoyed after which refreshments were served.
Miss Mamie Kime was the guest of honor at a picture shower given by Mrs.

Ladd Penne of Portland Sunday evening. There were eighteen guests present and Miss Kime was recipient of a lovely picture as gifts from her many friends.
Mrs. Geo. M. Hall charmingly entertained the Royal Neighbors and a few lady friends Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Mamie Kime. The time was spent in needlework and refreshments were served. Miss Kime was the recipient of two beautiful axminster rugs from her lady friends.

The boys' class of the Presbyterian Church will meet at the manse Thursday evening. A social time will be enjoyed.
The item in last week's Sentinel concerning the first meeting of the M. P. G. Club should have stated that it was held with Mrs. C. C. Cruson, instead of with Mrs. C. E. Frost.
Mrs. Stult of Portland entertained in honor of Miss Mamie Kime Saturday afternoon. Fourteen guests were invited and she was the recipient of a lovely picture.

Oglesby Jury Fails to Agree.
The jury in the case of the state versus W. W. Oglesby was called in by Judge Harris late Wednesday night and reported that they could not reach an agreement. Mr. Oglesby was being tried for violation of the local option law by giving illegal prescriptions. The case came up in May, 1913, and no indictment was returned by the grand jury. A demurrer, however, delayed the case and it has just reached trial. M. J. Thompson, formerly a policeman in Eugene, acted as detective in the case, and was a witness in that capacity.—Register.

"Just as you are—"

"I wouldn't change a thing." That is the spirit of modern photography. And with the fast plates and fast lenses of to-day, the clever photographer can take you "just as you are."
Long exposures in uncomfortable, conscious attitudes are a thing of the past. In fact, having a picture taken in a modern studio is as pleasant as an informal call on good friends. Make the appointment today. This is the psychological moment to have Christmas photos taken.
