National Recognition of Grove Photographer

Production Goes Into Leading Typographical Journal :: ::

Photographer Armstrong has received unusual recognition in a letter from The Inland Printer that one of his pictures will be used in the Christmas number of that magazine. The Inland Printer is the leading typographical journal of the world and anything used in its columns must be of the very best. The photographs used by the magazine are usually those produced by recognized artists of the world, beside whom Armstrong now takes his position. No amount of money could secure a position in the columns of this paper unless the production was one capable of the highest treatment in make-ready and printing. This national recognition of a Cottage Grove artist is one of which the citizens of the city may well feel proud.

"Just as you are—"

"I wouldn't change a thing." That is the spirit of modern photography. And with the fast plates and fast lenses of to-day, the clever photographer can take you "just as you are." Long exposures in uncomfortable, conscious attitudes are a thing of the past. In fact, having a picture taken in a modern studio is as pleasant as an informal call on good friends. Make the appointment today. This is the psychological moment to have Christmas photos taken.

Armstrong Is The Quality Photographer in Your Town
The psychological moment for Christmas photos is now.

Not Guilty as Alleged.

The man had been accused of committing an annoyance by flashing a mirror in the eyes of passersby.

"You are quite mistaken," he said to the big policeman. "I haven't any mirror. What these people saw was the reflection of my shining serge coat. I'm a married man, and the coat is four years old."

And, turning hastily, he threw the dazzling reflection from his back and elbows into the policeman's dazzled eyes. And by the time the officer recovered he was well on his way.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Women in Coal Mines.

In the early part of the last century women enjoyed the right to work in the coal mines of Great Britain, swinging the sledge, or on hands and knees hauling through the midnight darkness of low roofed tunnels carts laden with ore weighing hundreds of pounds.

Have To.

"Young Riffer and Miss Wapple fell out yesterday."

"Do you think they will make up again?"

"I'm sure Miss Wapple will. They fell out of a motorboat."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Greatness.

The truly strong and sound mind is the mind that can embrace equally great things and small. I would have a man great in great things and elegant in little things.—Johnson.

No other paper, daily or weekly, reaches one-quarter as many people in the Cottage Grove country as does The Sentinel.

Schumann, the Composer.

Robert Schumann, the great composer, tried to become a lawyer to please his mother and failed after two years of wearisome study. At Heidelberg university he made the acquaintance of Wilhelm Alexis, who had already trodden the path Schumann was destined to follow—that through the law to music. And the eminent jurist whose classes he attended, A. F. J. Thibaut, was an amateur musician of high attainments and the author of a work on precisely that aspect of music to which Schumann was peculiarly sensitive—namely, purity in musical art.

A Soft Answer, Etc.

Young Wife (pettishly)—You always seemed to have plenty of money before we were married. Loving Husband—It was only seeming. I had very little. Young Wife—And you told me you expected to be rich. Loving Husband—I am rich, my dear; I've got you. She subsided.—Yonkers Statesman.

Women as a Power.

If ever the time comes when women shall come together simply and purely for the benefit of mankind, it will be a power such as the world has never dreamed of.—Matthew Arnold.

Barkless Dogs.

There are three varieties of the dog that never bark the Australian dog, the Egyptian shepherd dog and the "lion headed" dog of Tibet.

Voting in Switzerland.

In Switzerland every citizen, whether he is a householder or not, is entitled to a vote on attaining the age of twenty.

Clothes Do Not Always Make the Man, but they Often Make a Man Successful

To prove this, I want you to come and look over my line of new samples and select what is best suited to you and I will make you a suit that will fit you and which will make you satisfied with yourself and a joy to your friends.

I also carry a fine line of overcoatings from $22.50 and up. Orders taken for the Reliance Raincoats, the best that are made from $10.00 and up.

The value of a paper's advertising is gauged by the number of people it reaches. No other paper reaches more than a quarter as many Cottage Grove people as does The Sentinel.
