Kime-Romaine.
The wedding of Miss Mamie Kime to Harvey Roy Romaine of Portland was solemnized Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Kime. Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Howard Fagan sang "O Promise Me." Promptly at seven forty-five the bridal party appeared to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march played by Miss Neva Perkins. They took their positions under a huge floral wedding bell suspended in a bower of greenery, interspersed with white chrysanthemums and carnations. Here they pledged their troth, Rev. M. Howard Fagan being the officiating clergyman. Miss Kime was attended by Mrs. Ladd Penne of Portland, sister of the groom and Mr. Penne acted as best man. The bride was given in marriage by her father.
The bride was beautiful in a creation of white frill, with an overdrape of princess lace. Her filmy net and lace veil was arranged in mob-cap fashion and caught with lilies of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Mrs. Penne was gowned in a Persian chiffon over a pink messaline foundation and carried bridesmaid roses. Mrs. Kime, mother of the bride, wore a gown of goblin blue charmeuse, while Mrs. Long, mother of the groom wore an embroidered marquisette in shades of blue trimmed with silver lace.

After the ceremony, which was performed in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends only, a reception was given to about one hundred and fifty guests. They were received at the door by Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Nichols and introduced to Mr. and Mrs. Romaine by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Powell ushered the guests into the dining room. In the dining room, which was artistically decorated in pink and white, Miss Hattie Landess, Miss Vervie Kelly and Miss Mabel Henry served cake and punch and distributed tiny boxes of the wedding cake. The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Penne and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Long, all of Portland.

The bride's going away suit was King's blue broadcloth, smartly tailored.
Mr. and Mrs. Romaine left Thursday for Portland where Mr. Romaine is manager of the Congress hotel. They will be at home to their friends at the Chetopa Apartments at Eighteenth and Flanders streets.

Miss Jennie Smith, bride-elect, was the inspiration for a clever miscellaneous shower given Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. A. Miller by Mrs. Miller and Mrs. F. W. Robbins. Miss Smith was initiated into the Housekeepers' Club in the presence of twenty-two guests. She was blind-folded and given a number of tests, the successful passing of which was followed by the administration of the oath of membership. She was then given the cap and badge of membership—the picture of a bride succeeded by the busy housewife. With due ceremony she was presented with the apron, was then led through the mysteries of the culinary department and the duster, and was then presented with a needle-book with instructions from the lady of the needle. She received her final lesson in "how to 'cook' husbands," and was conducted to "the place where the shower fell hardest," where she discovered a number of charming and useful gifts. Each of the guests wrote her favorite recipes, which were bound into a book with a cunning pen and ink cover, sketched by Mrs. Robbins. The book was named "The Bride's Shower Book." The hostesses served dainty and delicious refreshments of which the bride's cake was the crowning feature.

The young women's Philaetha class of the Baptist Church held a social and business meeting at the home of Mrs. David Griggs, Monday evening. About twenty-five were present. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Griggs; vice-president, Miss Hopper; secretary, Mrs. Hopper; treasurer, Mrs. Wampole. Mrs. A. B. Wood was elected as class leader. It was decided to hold a weekly meeting Monday afternoons for bible study, besides the Sunday class meeting.

A marriage license was issued, Dec. 8, to Chester Hemenway of Eugene and E. Stella Darling.

Mesdames Ed Jones and Ernest Purvance entertained at dinner at the Jones home Saturday evening. Rook was the diversion of the evening. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Dunton, Jones, Purvance; Misses Laura Smith, Edna Russ, Lena Holcomb, Lavilla Buell; Mrs. Ilma Beager; Messrs. A. L. Barnhart, B. W. Rose.

A marriage license was issued Dec. 8, to John Metcalf and Miss Mabel Swan.

About fifteen members of the W. E. C. pleasantly surprised Mrs. Alta Spray Thursday afternoon. They thought it was her birthday anniversary but were mistaken by several weeks, although that did not detract from the enjoyment of the occasion. Refreshments were served.

RED CROSS SEALS PLACED ON SALE BY CLUB

The Woman's Club, eager to do its share in fighting tuberculosis, the great white plague, which by official report is said to cause one out of every ten deaths in Oregon, is again selling the Red Cross seals. The entire proceeds of the sale go to fight the disease. If it happens that the money and attention of the Visiting Nurses' Association is needed here, as it did happen last year, Cottage Grove will be given back the money spent for these seals. The Visiting Nurses' Association not only cares for those who are afflicted but also teaches the doctrine of pure food, fresh air and sanitation.

The Red Cross Seals are on sale at practically every business house in the city and are sold at the Fair Store by the women of the Club themselves. The stamps, which are attractive for sealing Christmas packages, are one cent each.

Program Tonight at Arcade.
The opening program of the new Arcade Theatre embraces five reels of pictures, a song by Miss Ursula Lockwood and music by the Cottage Grove band, as follows:
The Fallen Angel—a drama in two reels.
United at Gettysburg—a romance of the war.

True Chivalry—a drama.
It's Hard to Please Him—a one reel comedy.
I Never Met Before a Girl Like You, sung by Miss Ursula Lockwood.
Music throughout by the Cottage Grove band.

BUILDINGS NEARING COMPLETION

ARCADE READY; WALLS AND ROOF OF HIGH SCHOOL ARE COMPLETED.

Several buildings under course of construction in the city are nearly completed. The W. B. Cooper building on Main street for the new Arcade theater and the Barker and Coffman cigar store is practically finished and is already occupied. The walls and roof of the new high school building have been completed and there is now nothing to delay the inside work. The Masonic Hall is receiving the finishing touches and will certainly be completed before Christmas. The Spriggs garage and blacksmith shop at the corner of Sixth and Washington streets has the corrugated iron siding all in place and is ready for the roof. It is the intention of the builders to have it completed by the end of the year. The Jenks building at the corner of Tenth and Main streets has the concrete foundation in place and the work of erecting the walls will go on rapidly.

KNUTE KNUTSON, BIGSWEDE PLAY, IS HIT

The managers made no mistake when they realized immediately upon reading the play Knute Knutson that it was the greatest Swedish comedy ever written. The public have borne out their judgment by receiving it with a gale of laughter and the most eager attention everywhere it has appeared. It made an instantaneous hit with the managers and it has made an even bigger hit with the public. It is a play that has all the attributes that can interest grandpa, grandma, mama, papa, and the kiddies, and you know that it has to be a play that is really worth while as well as entertaining to do that in these days when keen competition on the part of the theatrical managers causes each of them to offer the very best within their power thereby educating the masses of theatre-goers until they are critical and discriminating. The public can no longer be deceived as to a play that is interesting and worth while.
