

Gales of the Town

Many Matters of More than Passing Moment

Any item in these columns containing on the last line thereof the mark [.] is paid advertising. [This announcement is made in compliance with the postal regulations.]

Nothing will make a better impression at the time, nor remind the receiver of the giver oftener, than a watch. And the expense is not as great as you might at first think. Scholl is making a special on an 18 size, 17 jewel, twenty year filled case at $10.95. The regular price has been $15.75.

L. A. Ralston, who will have charge of Hampton's store after the first of the year, is now at the store getting familiar with the details of the business before the departure of Mr. Tyson.

Shelf Worn MILITARY OVERCOATS

Sizes 14 years up
$3.00
Call at Armory

Mr. Tyson will move to Eugene after the New Year, but will retain supervision of the store and expects to make regular visits to the future capital of Nesmith County. Because of leaving the city he will lose none of his interest in the city and business in which he has been heavily interested for several years.

Corn Poppers; Swengel Hardware.
Mrs. L. F. Phillips of Gravity, Iowa, and Mrs. W. C. Ellis of Des Moines, arrived Sunday evening to visit their sister, Mrs. R. B. Wooley. This is the first time the three have been together in twelve years.

RANGES, COOK STOVES HEATERS
A Large Assortment
KINTER BROS.
HOUSE FURNISHERS
PHONE 6

Subscription prices of nearly all the leading magazines advance beginning Nov. 10. We take subscriptions for any publication and can give you best clubbing prices. Let us have your orders now. We are district agents for the Saturday Evening Post and Ladies Home Journal. The Modern Pharmacy 18 the Rexall Store.
R. M. Movius was in the city yesterday and reports that the stumps are flying high at the Cates ranch.
Let the children play in the rain. Use a little Dri-foot, for sale by Goff, the shoe doctor.

JOE BAKER
General Blacksmith
AND REPAIR WORK
LOCATED ON WEST SIDE

W. F. Budde of Lorane returned this morning from a trip to Portland.
Ray Trask is transacting business in Portland.
Life—from a thousand different angles, all intensely absorbing—at The Arcade.

Among those who attended teachers' examinations at Eugene this week were Misses Neva Perkins, Adele White, Maude Hooper and Mrs. L. A. Ralston.

A Service based on the facilities and experience gained during TWENTY THREE years is extended to patrons by the—
First National Bank OF COTTAGE GROVE
Accounts, no matter how small, are solicited by the old, strong and conservative Bank

The ladies of the Catholic Church will conduct a home cooking market Saturday from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. in the vacant store room in the Hazelton building.
Those having guests for the holiday season are requested to notify The Sentinel as a matter of news.

Mrs. John Gray of Coast Fork is very low at the Eva Hemenway home.
Expert Dressmaking done promptly. Mrs. Pet Sanford.
Mrs. N. A. Stewart arrived last evening from Fort Benton, and will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Jackson.

Something practical for Christmas can be found at the Swengel Hardware Store. Look in their windows.
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hildreth of Grants Pass are visiting this week at the Joe Miller home. Mrs. Hildreth is Mr. Miller's niece and this is the first time they have ever met.

When you send a Christmas gift to a friend you naturally expect an acknowledgment. A fountain pen serves both as a gift and to remind the receiver to write the letter you wish. Try it. $4.00 pens at $3.25, $3.50 pens at $2.95, $2.00 pens at $1.50. Scholl's.

Bring in your sick shoes. Never yet failed to make a correct diagnosis. Consultation free. Office hours: All day. Dr. Goff.
Miss Myrtle DeSpain returned Friday from Dorena where she completed three months of school.

Mrs. Geo. Doyle of Glendale is visiting her mother, Mrs. Ida Thompson, and will stay until after the holidays.
An old line life insurance policy is a gift-edged investment, in addition to being a protection to relatives that may be left behind. Talk with Metcalf.
Mrs. Harriet Wallace suffered a slight stroke of paralysis Friday afternoon.

G. W. McFarland, Curtis Veatch and Ed Adams attended the grange convention in Eugene Saturday.
The Arcade for all that is best in the silent drama.
Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Cook have returned from Walton to spend several months.

Community Silver; Swengel Hardware.
Paul Lynch of Eugene visited here between trains Sunday.
Levi Geer was in Eugene on business Friday.

Singer Sewing Machines, Needles, Oil and repairs. Liberal allowance made for your old machine. Call up Karl K. Mills, phone 132-Y. Demonstration and trial will cost you nothing.
A 10½ pound son was born the first of the week to Mr. and Mrs. Warren Asher.
A son weighing 9 pounds arrived Wednesday morning at the Welcome Hubbell home.

Every watch in the store is cut in price at Scholl's. See the special 17 jewel Waltham, a $15.75 value at $10.95, then look at the $15.00 lady's watch at $8.75, the $18 lady's watch at $13.95, the $25.00 lady's watch at $16.95. And then there are others worth seeing.
W. A. Cunningham and Mr. Mason have purchased the lunch wagon at the depot corner and are now operating it.

Forty acres good timber close in. Will cut a thousand cords of wood. Good house and barn on the place. Will sell on terms or exchange for town property. Ask John F. Woodard.
A party of 25 from here attended church at Saginaw Sunday afternoon, walking home after the services.

25c Jack Knives for the boys; hundreds of them, at the Swengel Hardware Store.
The stores of the city will be open Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week and will be closed all day Thursday, Christmas Day.

Mrs. John Rice and Mrs. Isaac Ritchie went to Drain Thursday for a few days' visit with their sister.
Same friend of yours would like The Sentinel six months. You can get a free subscription for him or her by finding one mistake in each of the following ads: Oregon Woolen Mills Store, Rees-Wallace and Hampton & Co. Just telephone your replies to this office.

"Knute Knutson" made a hit with a large audience at The Arcade Monday night. The music by the Swedish band was of a high order.
Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Champlin of Salem are in the city, holiday guests of their daughter, Mrs. H. N. Aldrich.

Oliver Plows and J. L. Case Plows are sold by the Swengel Hardware Company.

The C. T. Wilkinson family have moved to Saginaw.

W. P. Wood returned to Los Angeles Thursday after an extended visit with his brother, A. B. Wood.

Your Christmas need not be an expensive one if you take advantage of the slash in prices made by Scholl on watches and cut glass.

T. E. Abeene and C. C. Carpenter are up from Springfield organizing an Owl lodge.

C. J. Chandler returned Monday from the Eugene hospital. He is much improved.

Coffee Percolators; Swengel Hardware.

The Cottage Grove Electric Company yesterday filed suit in the circuit court against Ambrose-Burdal company for $333.26, alleged due for electrical machinery and power furnished the company.

Fire, hail, rain. You should protect with Metcalf. He'll fix you out with anything in the insurance line.
H. E. Michael spent the week end in Eugene.

Dr. F. L. Ingram has just returned from taking two post graduate courses in dentistry and can now fill the most sensitive teeth absolutely without pain or disagreeable after effects. If you have pyorrhea or sore and bleeding gums, he will cure them or no pay.
Mrs. Armand Wynne returned Saturday from a three weeks' visit in Portland.

Dry foot oil keeps the wet out and the dry in. Goff's Shoe Hospital.

Mrs. D. T. Aubrey arrived from Portland Sunday and leaves today to join her husband in California, where they will spend the winter.

Wanted—500 adults to call at the Rexall Store. Each to get free a 1914 Rexall weather chart calendar. The Modern Pharmacy 18 the Rexall Store.

W. H. Abrams was quite seriously ill during the past week but has improved during the past few days.

Christmas Candies Christmas Nuts Christmas Cigars

Oranges, Lemons and All Kinds of Fruits and Confections

No need to go without these things that are so much to the Christmas festivities, when you can buy them at my bargain prices, especially made to fit the times.

Depot Lunch Counter
J. H. Robinson, Prop.

U. S. Bales was in from Dorena Saturday.

No matter what seat they give you at The Arcade you can see the screen perfectly, and you can breathe freely realizing that the air is pure and good in all parts of the house.

A. Soderstrom and N. Lewis were among those in from Divide Saturday.

T. R. Orr was in from Walker Saturday.

Cut glass is always appropriate for Christmas, and it is usually put out on a sideboard or in a china closet where every day it brings to mind the thoughtfulness of the giver. This is not a pun but our cut glass is cut in price as well as in design, and both are equally deep. Both are genuine. Scholl's.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Palmer arrived in Cottage Grove last week from Roseburg hoping that the change would benefit Mr. Palmer who has been in ill health for some time.

Pure white flour can't be beaten. Every sack is guaranteed to satisfy or money refunded. Sterling Feed Co.

Mrs. Chas. Beals returned last week after a visit with Miss Florence Gardner at Halsey.

Shooting match. Get a new gun and ammunition from the Swengel Hardware and you'll win the turkey.

Ed Lily returned Thursday from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Bert Lawson, at Salem. He is well on the road to recovery from his recent accident. His son Ernest returned with him and will go into the mines to do some work for his father.

Yes, that's right, I sell any kind of insurance you can mention. Harry Metcalf.

Merle Scovell was confined to the house several days of the past week. Win a six months' subscription by finding the mistakes in the Hampton & Co., Rees-Wallace and Oregon Woolen Mills Store ads. It's easy. The subscription must be sent to someone not now getting the paper.

Mrs. Daniel Olson returned to her home in Newport Saturday after a visit with Mrs. Elbert Bede and Mrs. James Smith.

Mrs. Martha J. Kayser was up from Eugene Thursday and Friday. On account of her health not being good she

Here They Go!

Everything on Sale at

THE FAIR

We intend making this our Banner Week if Low Prices will do it.

SEE THIS

A big shipment of Burnt Wood novelties got side tracked and just arrived. In order to close them out this week we offer 144 Pieces, consisting of Handkerchief Boxes, Tie Boxes and other novelties in two lots.

Lot 1 Your Choice
15c ea.

Articles worth up to 40c each.

Lot 2 Your Choice
19c ea.

Slaughter Sale of Candies

An Immense lot to go away below regular prices, this week all good and fresh

CUT GLASS

At prices that will open your eyes more than ever before.

THE FAIR
For Everything

Beautiful China Ware and lots of it.

No matter what you buy we save you money.

THE FAIR
For Low Prices

TOYS and DOLLS

to please everybody at prices to help you out.

THE FAIR
The Christmas Store

wishes to dispose of her furniture in her rooming house at 137 East Ninth street, Eugene. She will take part in real estate.
John Nokes is recovering from his recent severe sickness resulting from a carbuncle.

Regular $4.50 cut glass bowls slashed to $2.00 at Scholl's. Then there are $5.00 vases at $2.50, $18 water sets at $14 and a myriad of smaller articles at 75c to $1.00.

Mrs. E. R. Th