

Sales of the Town

Many Matters of More than Passing Moment

Any item in these columns containing on the last line thereof the mark [..], is paid advertising. [This announcement is made in compliance with the postal regulations.]

Armand Wynne is suspicious that one of his Black Orpington hens is simulating a duck these damp days. The other day she laid an egg of about the same proportions as a duck egg and instead of cackling she ran out to paddle in the mud.

Singer Sewing Machines, Needles, Oil and repairs. Liberal allowance made for your old machine. Call up Karl K. Mills, phone 132-Y. Demonstration and trial will cost you nothing.

Shelf Worn MILITARY OVERCOATS

Sizes 14 years up

$3.00

Call at Armory

Mr. and Mrs. Watkins Lockwood of Seattle will spend Christmas at the C. W. Wallace home.

Geo. M. Scott went to Portland the first of the week.

Chas. Chandler has returned from Eugene.

Roofing Paper and Building material at the Swengel Hardware.

J. S. Medley was in Eugene Tuesday on business.

N. W. White of Coast Fork was in Eugene on business Tuesday.

RANGES, COOK STOVES HEATERS

A Large Assortment
KINTER BROS.
HOUSE FURNISHERS
PHONE 6 NUF-CE2

Mrs. George M. Scott has been confined to her home for the past week with the grippe.

Forty acres good timber close in. Will cut a thousand cords of wood. Good house and barn on the place. Will sell on terms or exchange for town property. Ask John F. Woodard.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Landess and Joe Landess are at their parent's home for Christmas.

JOE BAKER

General Blacksmith
AND REPAIR WORK
LOCATED ON WEST SIDE

A marriage license was issued Tuesday to Henry T. Jorgenson and Miss Myrtle DeSpain.

Geo. Orr is here from Carlton.

Fire, hail, rain. You should protect with Metcalf. He'll fix you out with anything in the insurance line. n12tf

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Willard are here to spend Christmas with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Boyd are here from Medford.

A bounty of $5 was paid William Jenkins of Lorane Tuesday afternoon for the pelt of a gray wolf which he killed near his home recently.

Legal Blanks—The Sentinel.

See the new show house under the new management at The Arcade next Monday. Free show.

Tom Abeene and C. C. Carpenter are meeting with splendid success in organizing an Owl Nest. About 80 applications have been received to date and the first initiation will be held Saturday night. The organizers expect to get a membership of 500.

Miss Lulu Currie spent Tuesday in Eugene.

Superintendent Dutton and R. W. Rose have been attending the State Teachers' Association meetings in Salem.

No one should take a chance of leaving loved ones in want after death. Metcalf can fix you up so there will be no chance.

F. B. Shortridge is up from Booth to spend Christmas with his parents.

Al Churchill came down from Bohemia yesterday.

Asahel Bush, pioneer banker of Salem and the wealthiest man in Marion county, died at his home in Salem last night, aged 86 years. He was the first owner of the Salem Statesman.

Dr. F. L. Ingram has just returned from taking two post graduate courses in dentistry and can now fill the most sensitive teeth absolutely without pain or disagreeable after effects. If you have pyorrhea or sore and bleeding gums, he will cure them or no pay. tf

Mrs. Warren McFarland was employed at Lurch's store during the Christmas rush.

Frank Cornell arrived Saturday from Eugene and will be here until the end of the week assisting Rev. Fagan at his evangelistic meetings. Mr. Cornell is a guest at the Geo. H. Young home.

Vern Heckart left Sunday for Corvallis where he has a position.

Heating Stoves and Ranges at bargain prices during the next week at the Swengel Hardware Store.

Miss Maude Hooper and Miss Neva Perkins were the only Cottage Grove teachers registered for the quarterly teachers' examinations given in Eugene last week. Both were working for primary certificates.

Virgil Earl of Portland closed a deal with Sam Lewis Saturday whereby he became owner of 160 acres of timber land located about six miles up Mosby Creek. Mr. Earl, who is a son of J. I. Earl, is head of the mathematics department in the Washington high school at Portland.

Dry foot oil keeps the wet out and the dry in. Goff's Shoe Hospital.

W. C. Billings returned Sunday from a trip to Portland and Vancouver, where he looked at some land.

Mrs. Julia Hengstler, who had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Michel, left last week for Nebraska to spend the winter with relatives.

Wanted—500 adults to call at the Rexall Store. Each to get free a 1914 Rexall weather chart calendar. The Modern Pharmacy is the Rexall store. o29tf

W. J. Murphy of Roseburg was in the city a few days of last week on business.

D. Wills went to Medford last week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Noth.

A. Nelson was in Eugene last Wednesday.

The new management will give a free show at The Arcade Monday night.

Mrs. K. K. Mills is spending the holidays with her parents in Eugene. Mr. Mills will join her Christmas Day.

Mrs. Van S. Allison is spending Christmas with her mother in Albany. Johnson's Wood Dye, Fine stains and Varnishes are sold by the Swengel Hardware Store.

Mrs. O. P. Wills left Tuesday for Medford where she will spend the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. A. F. Noth.

Miss Audrey Laugdon is home from Eugene for the holidays.

Manager A. B. Wood and J. B. Protzman of the Oregon & Southeastern Railway returned Sunday from a business trip to San Francisco.

Subscription prices of nearly all the leading magazines advance beginning Nov. 10. We take subscriptions for any publication and can give you best clubbing prices. Let us have your orders now. We are district agents for the Saturday Evening Post and Ladies Home Journal. The Modern Pharmacy is the Rexall Store. o29tf

Fifty new books have been received by the Cottage Grove library.

Mrs. J. W. Bemis of London is spending the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Geer, at Genesee, Ida.

Marion Veatch was up from Eugene Monday.

To show you why we want you to come and see us often, the new management of The Arcade will give a free show next Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart are down from Brown's camp for the holidays.

Mrs. Wm. Sanders has recovered from her recent illness.

J. W. Bemis was in from London yesterday. He believes the mills will open up in the spring. Tom Geer purchased the Rouse mill at the recent sale.

Those having guests for the holiday season are requested to notify Sentinel as a matter of news.

G. F. King was in Portland this week on business.

Christmas Candies Christmas Nuts Christmas Cigars

Oranges, Lemons and All Kinds of Fruits and Confections

No need to go without these things that are so much to the Christmas festivities, when you can buy them at my bargain prices, especially made to fit the times.

Depot Lunch Counter

J. H. Robinson, Prop.

Miss Heister Bemis arrives from Elkhead today to spend the holidays with her family at London.

Seventy-one Lane County teachers took the quarterly teachers' examinations at Eugene last week. Of this number 11 were men and 60 women. The examinations were taken for one year state, five year state and life certificates.

The Clean-up Sale on best grades silverware will save you some money at the Swengel Hardware Store the coming week.

Mrs. W. C. Applehart of Eugene is spending the holidays with Mrs. L. D. Harrington.

ARMSTRONG FOR BEST PHOTOS 24 NORTH SIXTH STREET

A. Harrington has sold his property at Lorane and has moved into the city for the winter.

Lyle Bigbee of Eugene was in the city Saturday.

Expert Dressmaking done promptly. Mrs. Pet Sanford. n23tf

Mrs. James Hart and Loveday Moore went to Roseburg Friday evening for a visit with Mrs. Hart's daughter, Mrs. Harry Wheeler.

Duke Knox and L. S. Hill went to Portland on business Thursday returning Saturday.

WANTED!

500 good, live men to join the Order of Owls. We offer greater benefits, both financial and social, for the amount paid in than any other fraternal order. See us regarding initiation and dues.

TOM ABEENE AND C. C. CARPENTER
Organizers at Cottage Grove

Eleanor Jones was quite ill with a severe cold a number of days last week.

Bring in your sick shoes. Never yet failed to make a correct diagnosis. Consultation free. Office hours: All day. Dr. Goff. n19tf

Cob Atkinson suffered a severely sprained wrist in basketball practice Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Kibbey of Mosby Creek were in the city Friday and Saturday.

J. H. Hawley of Divide was in the city Saturday.

Come in and get acquainted with the new management at The Arcade next Monday night. A free get-acquainted show.

J. H. Chambers returned Wednesday from his trip to Salt Lake City.

Pure white flour can't be beaten. Every sack is guaranteed to satisfy or money refunded. Sterling Feed Co.

B. C. King was in Eugene on business last Wednesday.

John F. Walker was up from Walker last week visiting his son, R. E. Walker.

C. C. Hazelton was in Creswell Monday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Meet were in Eugene last week on a visit.

Dr. Demorest, Dentist. Office over Kerr & Silsby's store. m9tf

J. F. Spray was in Eugene on business Thursday.

Prof. Virgil Earl of Portland arrived Saturday to spend the holidays with his parents.

R. B. Thompson of Yoncalla was a business visitor here Monday of last week.

John Wagoner of Drain made a business trip here last week.

Get that Roaster from the Swengel Hardware.

A. W. Helliwell spent Sunday in Yoncalla.

W. B. Cooper has left for a three weeks' trip to Marshalltown, Ia.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Hawley of the Painted Post ranch went to Lorane Saturday for a visit over the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hawley, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Giltner and Miss Florence Hemenway arrived last evening for a holiday visit at the D. H. Hemenway home.

This wet weather makes sick shoes. Take them to Dr. Goff, the shoe chiropractor. Sure cure or no pay. n19tf

Geo. Knox returned Friday from a week's trip through the Bohemia mines and the Umpqua valley.

Miss Winnie Landess will spend Christmas at home.

Mrs. C. E. Henderer of Leona was in the city Tuesday.

J. E. Young went to Eugene on business Tuesday.

Arch Connelly came home Tuesday for the Christmas season.

The prize for finding the mistakes in the Rees-Wallace Co., Hampton and Oregon Woolen Mills ads. will be discontinued for a couple weeks. Watch for further notice.

Roy Woods and Charley Harlow are home from O. A. C. for a couple of weeks.

Bob Wood has gone to Seattle for his Christmas holiday.

Miss Goldie Hayes is spending the Christmas holidays in the city.

Mrs. John Scaggs and daughter Ma-teel, were in from Coast Fork Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Abrams have as their guests for the Christmas season Mr. and Mrs. O. O. McClellan and children of Salem and Mrs. C. J. Howard and daughter, Miss Frances, of Grants Pass.

In half an hour fire may destroy your home, with all your valuables, and leave you stranded. It will not take three minutes to tell Metcalf you want a policy to protect you.

A family reunion will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lewis Christmas when Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Oberg of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lewis and children of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lamb and children of Coburg and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Trask will be together.

Mrs. Roy Bellows of Roseburg will spend Christmas with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones.

Will Wallace and family were up from Creswell Friday.

Cottage Grove Chapter No. 4, O. E. S. Regular meetings second and fourth Fridays of the month at Masonic Hall Pacific Highway. Next meeting December 24.

WANT ADS

Advertisements in this department 6c a line. Figure 6 words to line.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT.—5 ROOM MODERN house on West Main; porches; south facing. Joe Miller, 7th and Adams.

FOR SALE OR TRADE

WHITE LEGHORN COCKERELS FOR sale. From world's record stock; bred through hen with record of 295 eggs in one year and 805 eggs in five years. W. J. MESSENGER, Row River. d24-31

WANT TO TRADE LUMBER FOR work horse. Overholser & Son. Phone 22-f2. d3-17pd

FOR SALE—NEW WHITE ROTARY Sewing Machine; latest model, at a bargain. See Karl K. Mills or phone 132-Y. n26tf

FIVE-PASSENGER AUTO TO TRADE for lumber, wood or posts. R. H. Parsons, Creswell, Ore. o29tf

For Love or Money

will be played at

The New Arcade

One Night Only

Tuesday Dec. 30

Under auspices of the

Kensington Club

Managed and directed by Mr. Bert Hart, who recently came from the East. This big three act drama is of a pretty, young and rich girl who wishes to marry but thinks they are courting her with the intention of getting her money. She plots her ruin with the assistance of her guardian and after many love scenes of a thrilling drama, she finally exposes her plot and tells she has not lost her fortune and there is a reunion and a triple wedding, which discloses a pretty scene. Between each act there will also be Black Face Comedians, and entertainers so this will keep you entertained throughout the evening as the curtain will not drop until the end.

Tickets on Sale at Bon Ton :: Adm. 50c, 35c, 25c

TOYS FREE WHILE THEY LAST

Children like toys just as well after Christmas as at the time. We have some toys left and will continue our special Christmas offer for a short time. On every dollar's worth of merchandise you get a chance to draw a fine present. Buy your groceries from Brund & Co. and get

Children's Toys Free

VALUES UP TO $3.00

Over $200 worth being given away. This is an opportunity of a lifetime to get toys free.

Brund & Co.

Elmer Spencer arrived from Eugene Friday to spend the holidays with his parents.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pitcher at Silver Lake, December 15, a 7½ pound daughter.

Mrs. Bud Allen arrived from Eugene Friday and went on to Star where she will remain for a month.

James Wayland, of Vinson & Wayland, was confined to the house with the grip during the past week.

R. R. Riding and Mrs. Riding, of

Marquam, who are on their honeymoon, are guests of the former's brother, F. R. Riding. They will leave Monday for Marquam to spend the holidays with Mr. Riding's mother.

Mrs. Clare Sprenger of Shedd's arrived Monday to visit her sister, Mrs. James Conley at Saginaw for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Clayt. Sprenger and her sister, Mrs. James Conley were in the city from Saginaw Friday.

Local items continued on page 2.

Greetings

Good friends of ours, for thee we pray
All goodly things this Christmas Day—
All goodly things thy life to bless,
In these two words: Just happiness.

Rees Wallace Co.
CASH STORE

A Service based on the facilities and experience gained during TWENTY THREE years is extended to patrons by the—
First National Bank OF COTTAGE GROVE
Accounts, no matter how small, are solicited by the old, strong and conservative Bank