COTTAGE GROVE, OREGON

Rexall Means "KING OF ALL" — Ours is The Rexall Store in this town.

Farm prospects in the vicinity of Stanfield are exceedingly bright for 1914. Many of the farmers secured their first good crop last year, and as the land is in fine condition and many orchards are just coming into bearing, a bumper crop is expected this season.

Since the completion of the new electric road, giving daily train connection with Portland, the town of Monroe is making a rapid growth. A $5,000 depot, a $4,000 school house and gymnasium and a number of fine residences have recently been completed, and the city council is inaugurating extensive improvements in the way of better streets, sewers and sidewalks.

No business can get along without customers. Customers can not be secured without advertising of some kind. No feature of a business deserves more attention than the advertising.

Society

A young men's banquet was given Friday evening in the parlors of the Methodist Church by the Sunday School for the purpose of organizing a young men's bible class. Covers were laid for twenty and Mrs. H. N. Aldrich and Mrs. J. I. Jones served a delightful supper. Alta King was chosen as teacher for the class.

About sixty-five youngsters of the Methodist Sunday School, composing the junior league, were entertained at a party in the church parlors Saturday afternoon from 2 until 4 by the superintendent, Mrs. H. N. Aldrich. Games were the diversion of the afternoon. Mrs. Aldrich was assisted in serving light refreshments by Mrs. N. E. Compton and Miss Lena Holcomb.

Miss Marion Beatty, who with her parents formerly lived in this city, has announced her engagement to Rev. Grover Birthelet of the Presbyterian church. Mr. Birthelet now resides in California but after the wedding, which is to occur in June, both Mr. and Mrs. Birthelet will go to Africa as Missionaries.

The M. P. G. Club met with Mrs. F. L. Ingram Tuesday afternoon and the members enjoyed their usual delightful session chatting over their embroidery. Mrs. Ingram served daintily at the close of the afternoon.

Surprised on Crystal Wedding Day.
The crystal wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Purvance was celebrated with a surprise party given by Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dunton at the home of the "bride and groom" Monday evening.

The feature of the entertainment of the evening was the renewal of the suffragette marriage vows at a mock ceremony at which Rev. H. N. Aldrich officiated. Miss Lena Holcomb and Miss Buell, dressed as dainty little maids, were the ribbon bearers, forming the aisles for the bridal party. Miss Smith, similarly attired, carried the ring in a rosebud. Grandma Purvance gave away her son to the bride. Mr.

Aldrich sang "O, Promise Me" preceding the ceremony and Mrs. Jas. Benson played the wedding march. After the ceremony Mrs. Dunton and Mrs. Jones served a delicious wedding supper. The guests were: Mesdames and Messrs. Jas. Benson, G. M. Hall, Hogate, Lee Nixon, Edward Jones, C. E. Umphrey, S. L. Mackin, A. J. Armstrong, N. E. Compton, Harry Wynne, H. N. Aldrich, C. H. VanDenburg, W. C. Conner, Herbert Eakin, Armand Wynne, Harry Hart, Cunningham, J. I. Jones, J. E. Dunton and Mrs. Curran. Mrs. LeRoy and family and Grandma Purvance.

Little Tots Entertain.
Beth Olive Bede and Gerald Burton Conner entertained at the Bede home January 14, it being the first birthday anniversary of both. Ten mothers and their babies enjoyed a social afternoon, after which a dainty luncheon was served by the mothers of the wee host and hostess. A birthday cake surmounted by two candles stood in the center of both tables. A number of pretty and useful gifts were received by the two babies. The guests were Mrs. Roy Smith and Mary Olivian, Mrs. Armand Wynne and Ellen Louise, Mrs. Mrs. Robert Broadbooks and Martin Robert, Mrs. Winters Wallace and Barbara Rae, Mrs. Geo. Scott and Vera Flodine, Mrs. Nelson Durham and Leston Nelson, Mrs. Gilbert Tyson and Alton Gilbert, Mrs. Van Allison and Jean Atkins, Mrs. W. B. Cooper and Charlotte Clarissa, Mrs. Ernest Armes and Cecil Richmond, Mrs. Chas. Renard and Alice Elizabeth, Mrs. Horace Conner and Dora and Lois, Mrs. Eugene Matlock and Virginia and Mrs. Walter Lackey and Ernest. Mrs. Bert Burrows sent the following regret, the reading of which caused considerable amusement:

I'm a little mite
Too young to write,
But hope some future day to be.
Also a mink,
Too young to think,
So mama writes and thinks for me.
Although not old
I have a cold,
And my deepest regrets I send.

With sincere sorrow
Your party tomorrow
Mama thinks I ought not attend.
However, my hope
In life's future scope,
Is that your face may not show life's furrows.
That your days may be long
And joyous as song,
Is the wish of Allona Jareen Burrows.
