CIVIL AUTHORITIES UNABLE TO GET LAWSON

The attempt by the authorities of Baker County to get Col. Lawson of this city, and warden of the penitentiary, to testify in the Copperfield cases has been unsuccessful so far. The governor has told the authorities to come and get him, but that plan has not been carried out up to date. Although the subpoena servers have not been able to find him, Mr. Lawson visited with the Willamette Valley editors while they were in Salem Saturday.

Special Agent Frank Snodgrass has been sent by the governor to take Lawson's place, while the colonel is kept on military duty at Salem to avoid the civil authorities, who would get him back to Baker County as a defendant in a damage action by the former saloonkeepers of Copperfield.

The governor claims that by refusing to subpoena Snodgrass the Baker County authorities have shown that their attempt to get Lawson there is not for the purpose of getting his testimony, but to get service on him in the damage suit.

$150 IN GOLD FIRST PRIZE IN CONTEST

This reminds the contest editor of a remark made to him by a candidate in a former contest: "I never knew people were so kind and that I had so many friends until I entered this contest." This happened in Oregon not far from Cottage Grove, and your experience will be just the same when your friends are informed that you are in the race and want their assistance.

How to Win.

Any young lady desiring to enter this contest and win one of the valuable prizes offered, should see that her name is sent to the Contest Department. To win a prize it is necessary to receive the largest number of votes, according to conditions mentioned elsewhere in this announcement.

Candidates should at once interest their friends in the contest and by united and energetic action induce as many people as possible to vote for them. The nomination coupon cut from The Sentinel will count 1,000 votes for a candidate.

How Votes Are Secured.

Votes will be issued on both old and new subscriptions. The full amount of money must be sent or brought to the Contest Department of The Sentinel.

Vote Coupon.

A ballot good for 20 votes appears in this paper; clip it, and send it to the office of The Sentinel and vote for your favorite.

Special Notice.

The rules governing the contest and the prizes that will be awarded may be found on this page.

Any young lady residing in the territory mentioned is eligible to compete in this contest.

Any one who desires to vote on this contest may do so by coupons clipped from The Sentinel and by special vote ballots obtained by subscribing to The Sentinel. The ballots secured by subscribing to The Sentinel may be held as long as desired and voted at any time up to the close of the contest, but coupons cut from The Sentinel are good only for ten days from publication and will not be counted if voted after the date printed on the ballot.

Persons living in one district are not confined to voting for ladies in their own particular districts, but may vote for any one in the race. The offer affords the young women of Cottage Grove and vicinity an excellent opportunity to receive valuable presents at the expense of The Sentinel.

Grand Prize

Will go to the young lady polling the greatest number of votes during the contest.

Second Prize

Will go to the young lady polling the second highest number of votes.

Third Prize

The young lady polling the third highest number of votes will receive a $25.00 Merchandise Order.

Fourth Prize

The young lady polling the fourth highest number of votes will receive a Gold Watch.

RAIN WELCOMED BY GROWERS

The rain which arrived yesterday morning, was warmly welcomed by the fruit growers who had begun to grow anxious about the possible fate of their fruit. Cherries, plums and peaches are blooming freely about a month ahead of the usual season, according to County Fruit Inspector Stewars, and a heavy frost would have been disastrous. Apples, petite and Italian prunes are in no danger, as they are not sufficiently budded to be harmed by cold. "The very light frosts of the past week did no damage," said Mr. Stewart, "as it requires a temperature of about three degrees below freezing to harm the buds."

An All Together Different Entertainment.

One of the best entertainments and one altogether different from any ever seen in Cottage Grove is the light opera, "Priscilla" or "The Courtship of Miles Standish" which is to be rendered April 14 at The Arcade Theater by the Enterpen club under the direction of Miss Esther Sisby, assisted by Rev. Horace N. Aldrich, dramatic director. The costumes for the entire cast will be furnished by Goldstein & Co., San Francisco. adv
