Amid surroundings that quaintly suggested the flower island, the Woman's Club gave a delightful Japanese tea Thursday afternoon and evening in the W. O. W. hall for the benefit of the drinking fountain fund. The affair was a decided success as a result of the careful planning and cleverly arranged details. The decorations of Japanese parasols and greens, and the serving girls clad in the national kimono were very effective. A program of much interest was rendered both afternoon and evening. The afternoon program was furnished by Miss Lorane Ross who read, Miss Jessie Smith who sang and Miss Mary Bartels who read. The evening program consisted of the following numbers: Duet, Mae Armstrong and Ada Matthews; solo, Mr. Barnhart; and Mrs. Beager; quartet, Messrs. Aldrich, Richmond, Mackin and Umphrey. Refreshments of tea, cake and wafers were served by Marguerite Johnson, Sadie Cox, Florence and Edith Magee, Mae Armstrong, Kathleen Kem and Arlie Langdon. Dainty little Japanese-ware cups and saucers were given as souvenirs.

In honor of the eighty-third birthday anniversary of Sylvester Veatch Friday, March 27, a number of his neighbors and friends called on him in the evening at the home of his son, Curtis Veatch, in keeping with a custom established some seven or eight years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Veatch served a delicious oyster supper, partners for which were selected by a hat trimming contest in which the men of the party deftly and artistically trimmed the hats which the women provided. The painful efforts of the men to excel and the unusually original effects in chapeaus which they created caused much merriment. After supper games were played and a social time enjoyed.

Those present were: Mesdames and Messrs. M. M. Wheeler, P. H. McGee, Otto Dobberstein, Ed Ashby, C. A. McFarland, C. O. Willis, G. W. McFarland, W. A. Hemenway, J. P. McFarland, Daniel Read, and William Hemenway, Perry Richey, Mrs. C. E. Smith and Mrs. Hiram Wheeler.

A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Groff called Friday evening and surprised them with a very pleasant party. The guests served a delicious luncheon and old fashioned games were played. Those present were Mesdames Elbert Bede, James Smith, Lillian Bryan, Mesdames and Messrs. C. E.

Umphrey, F. L. Ingram, K. K. Mills, W. B. Cooper, C. E. Frost, S. L. Godard, and C. W. Parker and Jack Grant.

C. H. Zeigler and Nellie O'Neill were married Sunday. The groom is 84 years of age and the bride, who is a nurse, is 64. Both have been married previously. The bride is a recent arrival from the East.

The cast of "Burley's Ranch," a group of high school pupils, gave a surprise party for Clarence Spencer, one of their number, on Monday after rehearsal, the occasion being his birthday anniversary. Several additional boys and girls were invited in and the party was a very merry affair. It was given at Frank Wallace's home where the rehearsals are held.

Mr. and Mrs. James Benson entertained at dinner Saturday in honor of the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Benson, Mrs. L. A. Ralston and N. E. Compton, all of which fell on that day. The table was daintily adorned with a centerpiece of carnations. Those partaking of Mr. and Mrs. Benson's hospitality were: Rev. and Mrs. H. N. Aldrich, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Ralston, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Compton and Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Jones. After dinner the remainder of the evening was spent in a pleasant social time.

To foster a get-together and get enthused movement, the members of the local militia gave a "mess feed" at the Armory Thursday evening which was prepared and served in true military style by Cook Moore and his assistant, Corporal Tennis. About thirty-five sat down to the typical camp mess, consisting of clam soup, sandwiches, sweet pickles, coffee and cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Purvance entertained the Teachers' Club at their home last evening. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Stahlman, Mrs. LeRoy and Messrs. Jack Godard, Harry Kinter, Martin Anderson, Donald DeLong, Hugh Curran, Ernest Wyatt, Roy Wilson and Mr. Boyd were additional guests. The chief amusement for the evening was "fishing."

The Woman's Club held its regular meeting in the Commercial club rooms Tuesday afternoon. The quiz was led by Mrs. S. L. Mackin and the lesson in literature by Mrs. J. C. Johnson, both proving very interesting and instructive.

The lesson was followed by the business meeting at which a discussion of plans for increasing the drinking fountain fund was entered into, resulting in the decision to hold a spelling match, the cooperation of the high school having been promised by Superintendent Dunton. Definite plans for it have not yet been perfected.

FEDERAL LEAGUE TO IGNORE CONTRACTS

Chicago.—Open warfare on organized baseball was declared by President Gilmore, of the Federal League. When William Killifer, of the Philadelphia Nationals, failed to report to Joe Tinker, manager of the local Federals, at headquarters, as he had been ordered to do, Gilmore sent a telegram to the presidents and owners of the several clubs in the new organization advising them to disregard all former orders and to offer contracts to any ballplayers, whether under contract or not.

"We have been called pikers by B. B. Johnson, president of the American League, but the fans will receive a chance to decide as to who is the piker. Every owner in the league has been instructed to go after any player they should want. We are in the game with a load of money and we are not afraid of expenses. If money will get the players, we will wreck every major league club."
