BOHLMAN :: The TAILOR

THE UNIVERSAL CAR The Ford

There are more Ford cars used in Cottage Grove than of all other kinds combined, yet you never saw a Ford stuck or worn out. They are cheapest in price, but the highest priced material goes into them. They are a comfort to the pleasure seeker and a comfort to the pocket book of the purchaser. As a time-saver for the busy man they pay for themselves many times over.

THE COTTAGE GROVE GARAGE O. E. WOODSON :: :: :: :: PROPRIETOR

Fagan were the hosts in addition to the guests of honor. The table was decorated with lilies and an elaborate five course dinner was served by the hostess.

Mrs. Minnie Price entertained in very informal fashion at her home Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. A. Hemenway. She was assisted by her sister, Mrs. George Gourley of Eugene. About thirteen were present and spent the afternoon at needlework.

About one hundred friends of the O. E. S. gathered at the lodge room for a very enjoyable party Saturday afternoon. Needlework and conversation were the diversion, supplemented by an interesting program furnished by Miss Eva Richmond, who played, Misses Ada Matthews and Mae Armstrong who gave a piano duet, Miss Ursula Lockwood who sang, Miss Jessie Smith, Miss Marion Hooper and Mrs. David Griggs, who also rendered solos, Miss Myrtle Kem who gave an instrumental solo and Mrs. N. E. Compton who recited. Throughout the afternoon music was furnished by Mr. K. K. Mills who kindly supplied two victrolas. The rooms were beautifully decorated with gold of Ophir roses, sent the chapter by Mrs. Orville Knapp of Eugene, and wisteria. A unique way of dividing the guests for going into the dining room was devised. Small ribbon bows of yellow, blue and red were distributed and all having one color were summoned together into the banquet room where tea was served.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Kem entertained at dinner Thursday, Miss Myrtle Kem and Miss Leah Perkins and their guests, Miss Leta Mast and Miss Helen Kust, of the University of Oregon. The table was artistically centered, with a huge bunch of purple lilies.

The anniversary sermon of the Odd fellows and Rebekahs will be preached Sunday morning at 11 by Rev. H. N. Aldrich at the Methodist church. The members of the two orders will attend in a body.

The M. P. G. Club was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Orville Spear, who, in turn, was honored by a pretty shower by her guests. A delightful time was enjoyed by the club members who were present. The club is making plans for many delightful outdoor meetings during the spring.

A very enjoyable social dance was given Saturday evening at Phillips hall.

Friday evening about twenty young people were the guests of Hugh Curran at an evening picnic on the Curran ranch.

Saturday a jolly high school crowd and a number of their friends rode out to the Boyd farm on a large hay wagon, had their supper and spent a merry evening.

The Royal Neighbors Club met with Mrs. A. W. Kime yesterday afternoon. About fifteen members were present and in addition Mrs. Kime asked Mrs. N. E. Compton and Mrs. Leta Stewart. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent at needlework.

Walter Rogers and Miss Dora D. Mohl were married last Wednesday at the Griggs hotel in Eugene, Rev. Spangler officiating.

The home of Mrs. D. H. Hemenway was the scene of a very pretty and pleasant gathering Friday afternoon when Mrs. J. P. Graham and Mrs. Hemenway entertained the Panama Five Hundred Club. The house was decorated daintily with bowls of pink roses and white lilies. The guests invited in addition to the members of the club were: Mrs. Lloyd Bisby, Mrs. A. S. Powell, and Mrs. Lillian Bryan.

News of the marriage of Fritz N. Soderstrom and Miss Avis B. Goodman of Pendleton has reached the city. They were married April 11, at the home of the bride's parents in Pendleton.

At the regular meeting of the Woman's Club Tuesday afternoon, April 14, Oliver Wendell Holmes was the subject of discussion during the lesson hour. An unofficial business meeting followed at which plans for the spelling bee, by means of which the club hopes to augment the public drinking fountain fund were discussed. A number of beautiful prizes have already been donated by some of the business men of the city. Mrs. Minnie Price was taken in as a member at this meeting.

Deserts Wife and Babies.

George Hutchinson, who is said by a Marshfield paper to have lived here, has deserted his young wife and their two small children at that place. Mrs. Hutchinson, the paper states, is without funds and in a delicate condition and is very anxious to get back to her home in this city. As far as can be learned no George Hutchinson has ever lived here and it is thought that the Marshfield paper has made a mistake in the man's given name.

Bubbling Fountain Arrives.

The bubbling fountain which is to be installed on the corner of Sixth and Main streets by the Woman's Club arrived yesterday and may be seen in the window of Frank Woodruff's plumbing shop.

SWEET PRISCILLA CHARMS WITH VOICE

OTHER MEMBERS OF CAST VIE FOR HONORS WITH LEADING CHARACTERS.

Priscilla with her charming manner, and her voice, sweet, clear and full of music, quite captivated her audience at the Arcade Theater Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. Miss Lockwood, in the title role proved herself not only a singer with a beautiful voice, but a charming actress as well, and Priscilla's friends and admirers were quite as pleasing as she herself.

The story of the little opera is too well known to need any explanation and its tuneful music is too familiar to need any special praise for itself, but for the players who portrayed the well-loved roles and sang the familiar songs a bountiful meed is due. Each character was admirably suited, from Priscilla, by Miss Lockwood and Barbara in the person of Miss Jessie Smith, to Resignation by Miss Ella Anderson, and Hated-bad Higgins, the scream of the evening, by Ren Sanford. George Matthews as Captain Miles Standish and Lloyd Stratton as John Alden, each carried their parts well and sang their solos excellently.

The chorus work was nothing short of delightful. The voices were trained to a nicety and were beautifully blended. Moreover the chorus as a whole possessed an animation which set it apart from the ordinary amateur chorus. The play was fittingly costumed, an important detail which added greatly to the success of the venture. In every way the opera was pleasing and it reflects much credit upon both Miss Esther Sisby and Rev. H. N. Aldrich, who drilled the players, and upon those who took part themselves. Mrs. Geo. Kerr and Miss Ada Matthews played the accompaniments.

Memorial Services Held.

Memorial services for the late Mrs. Edith Hill Booker, state W. C. T. U. president and the late Mrs. Lillian M. M. Stevens, national W. C. T. U. president, both of whom died but recently, were held Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church under the auspices of the local W. C. T. U. A tribute to Mrs. Booker, prepared by Mrs. Lee Roy Woods, was read by Mrs. C. W. Caldwell; Rev. H. N. Aldrich gave a few personal reminiscences of Mrs. Stevens, the main address was given by Mrs. J. T. DeSpain and the scripture lesson was read by Rev. M. Howard Fagan. Special music was rendered by a quartette composed of Mrs. David Griggs, Mrs. C. M. Cobb, Dr. F. L. Ingram and Rev. H. N. Aldrich.

Horse Tries to Put Candidate Out of Business.

Col. W. G. D. Mercer, candidate for county judge, was injured quite severely Monday afternoon when, as he was driving to his home on the river road near Eugene, a horse, which was being led past him, became frightened by the toot of a passing automobile and reared, striking the Colonel just above the left eye with one hoof and in the pit of the stomach with the other. Colonel Mercer was rendered unconscious. By evening he was sufficiently better to permit of his going to Eugene to have the wound dressed, but will be kept close at home for several days yet.

Citizens Spell for Fountain Fund.

The spelling match held at the high school building last evening for the benefit of the public drinking fountain fund was an interesting affair. About one hundred were in attendance. After the close of the contest a social hour was enjoyed. The highest honors went to Mrs. C. W. Caldwell, who won by her prowess the attractive reading lamp. A. L. Zacharias came second, winning the mirror, Mrs. C. E. Umphrey third, winning the glass bathroom shelf; Mrs. C. R. Stahlman fourth, winning the cut glass bon bon dish and F. W. Kidings fifth, winning the book. R. S. Rose gave out the words for the spellers. The committee in charge of preparations for the evening were: Mrs. C. W. Caldwell, Mrs. J. C. Johnson and Mrs. S. L. Mackin. This committee worked in conjunction with Prof. Duntton and the high school teachers.

MANY CRIPPLED CHILDREN VISIT SPECIALIST

Some fifteen people availed themselves of the opportunity of having free examinations by Dr. E. A. Rich of Tacoma and Portland, who was here yesterday. Dr. Rich is orthopedic specialist in cripple cases and was brought to this city through the efforts of Mrs. Van Boskirk who arranged to have all cripple children brought to him for free consultation. Four children were brought from Eugene. A number of the children will take treatments and Dr. Rich holds out every hope that the majority of cases which were brought to his attention will ultimately be cured.
