ANTISEPTIC TABLETS EATEN BY TWO YEAR TOT

Discovered in the act of devouring a bottle of antiseptic tablets Monday afternoon, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mason was saved from serious consequences by quick medical attention.

The tablets had been carefully put away in a bureau drawer, where it was thought the little fellow could not get them. When discovered by the mother the little fellow was clasping a handful of the tablets and was vomiting those that had already been eaten. The lad had completely recovered the following day.

Divide Mill Leased.
The Brainard Lumber Co. of this city has leased its Divide mill property to the Abaqua Lumber Co. of Woodburn.
The leasees assumed management of the property last Wednesday.

ARCADE THEATER IN NEW HANDS AGAIN

The Arcade Theater has again changed hands. The new proprietors are W. E. Nixon, Ray Nixon and E. J.
Kent, who recently arrived from Kansas. They announce that they will keep the show house up to the same high standard that has prevailed in the past. Herbert Harrington, the former proprietor, has not announced his plans for the future. The new management assumed control Saturday.

Voters Must Start It.
In an exceptionally clear summing up of the situation W. W. Calkins pointed out in yesterday morning's Register what must be done before the tax on mortgages, notes and credits can be repealed. Two constitutional amendments must be passed by the people.
These amendments will be on the ballot this fall. If they are approved, the legislature at its next winter's session can provide for the needed exemption.
If they are not, the legislature will be powerless to act.

These amendments should be approved by an overwhelming majority. The tax on mortgages, notes and credits is driving out of Oregon a great deal of capital that is needed here. It is putting upon the borrower the burden of double taxation. It is making interest higher and loans harder to get. It is holding back commercial development. It is putting a premium on perjury.

The farmers and the business men of Oregon will serve their own interests most effectively if they will form a state wide organization to carry on a campaign of education for these measures; for a campaign of education is all that is needed. Then, when the necessary amendments have been carried, the legislature can be requested to pass the needed laws, and there is little doubt that it will act.—Eugene Register.

ducing crops is located around Cottage paper world to get results from want

John Nokes' Long Lost Wig Found by His Son-in-Law

John Nokes may no longer be compelled to appear among his admiring friends minus the hirsute adornment that would add so much to his phiz, nor any too well provided for by nature.

Mr. Nokes' unembellished dome has been referred to many times by The Sentinel in sentimental and sympathetic language that touched the heart of his son-in-law, Mallie Miller, who has spent a considerable portion of the past year in endeavoring to locate the wig which it was understood had been owned and lost by his father-in-law.

During the past week his search was rewarded, when the two men were cleaning out a spring. At the bottom of the water and growing from the floor of the spring much more luxuriantly than it had ever grown on the roof of Mr.
Nokes' brains, was the long lost article, which was hastily recovered by the son-in-law and put away to dry. The erstwhile owner of the wig claims that Mal-lie has only found a bunch of moss, but the latter insists that he is going to make his father-in-law wear it, even if has turned red through the action of the water.

Foot Mashed at Brown Mill.

Frank Rhone, employed by the Brown Lumber Co. as first off-bearer, sustained a badly mashed foot and bruised leg yesterday morning when the first slab cut off a large log fell heavily onto him.
It is thought that the injuries are not serious.

ROW RIVER MILL RESUMES OPERATIONS

After being idle for several months, the Row River mill resumed operations last Wednesday. The idleness of the mill was necessitated by the sawing of all available timber. A railroad has since been built to another tract of timber that will furnish logs for a long time to come.

Grange Lecture Hour Program.

The program for the Grange lecture hour, May 16, will consist in part of subjects bearing on international peace, Monday, May 18, being Peace Day.
The program will be as follows: Instrumental solo, Miss Mae Armstrong; reading, Miss Eunice VanDenburg; solo, Miss Fay Sams; recitation, "The Farmer's Girl," Miss Edna Ashby; song, "America;" recitation, Kipling's "Recessional." A general discussion in which visitors as well as members are invited to enter will follow the regular program, the subject being, "Is the Maxim, 'If You Wish Peace, Prepare For War' Wise in Policy or Sound in Morals?" or "Is It True that 'Armies are the Real Promoters of Peace?'"

LIKES LORANE SO WELL SHE BUYS SECOND TRACT

The impression that the Lorane Valley makes on the new comer is well demonstrated in the case of Mrs. Cora B. Warner, who bought a tract from the Milwaukee Orchard Co. some time ago.
Last week she decided that there was no better place to invest money, so she is now owner of the McMinds ranch.

Parental Shortcomings.

One of the speakers of the Cottage Grove Grange recently charged the pre-valing laxness of parental discipline with responsibility for much of the moral degeneracy of the times. Lack of respect for parental law, he said, breeds lack of respect for all other law, and the child that is allowed to run wild in its youth is likely to run wild when it becomes older. Like all truths this statement will come home with painful directness to many parents, for its truth is not to be doubted.

SUES BROWN LUMBER CO. FOR $35,000.

Manager and Employees of Mill Remember Nothing of Accident Said to Have Occurred During 1912.

A suit for $35,000 has been brought against the Brown Lumber Co. by Luther B. Hudson for alleged injuries which he claims to have received while employed at the Brown mill during May, 1912. He claims to have been permanently disabled, alleging that he received internal injuries, that his legs and spine are permanently crippled and that his brain is affected. He itemizes his claims as $1,800 for wages that he would have received had he not been injured, $250 for medical treatment and the remainder for damages.

FRIDAY IS PRIMARY ELECTION DAY

Prohibitionists, Socialists and Independents May Not Participate in Primaries; Progressives Little Better Off.

Friday is the date of the state primaries, at which time candidates for state and county offices will be nominated by all parties. The polls will be open from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.

Many do not understand that they can only assist in nominating candidates for the party with which they have registered. For example: A voter registered as a democrat can not assist in nominating republican candidates, neither can a progressive or any voter registered other than as a republican.

Prohibitionists, socialists and independents will have no vote in the primaries in Lane county. The only candidates on the progressive ticket are Wm.
Hanley for United States Senator and Dr. Coe for national committeeman.

The Cottage Grove Lyre

No one knows where the strange nest came from, but it is thought quite probable that the boot got caught in some tree during the high water of early spring, that it was appropriated by the birds for a home, where the eggs were laid and the family hatched, and that the peculiar home was loosened from its precarious position by the action of the wind and dropped into the water, causing the commotion already referred to.

The rescuers of the bird family placed the boot in a protected position, where it was soon reclaimed by the parents of the little family found inside.
At last accounts all were doing well.

The boot is practically a new one, and was evidently not thrown into the river purposely. The party owning the mate is welcome to the other as soon as the bird family deserts it.

Locals Capture Four Runs While Visitors Get 2

Cottage Grove did it again. Did someone ask what? Why, stopped the fast Junction team Sunday to the rattling good tune of 4 to 2. This score of four might have been 24 were it not for the fact that the game was a very unusual one in many ways.

Rabid fans certainly got their money's worth if value received was ever handed out at a base ball gathering, and some of them are still doctoring sore throats, hands, shins and other things as a result of the enthusiasm displayed. Seldom is such a game given the public and it is likely to be many moons before such a one is again played.

COINS FOR SPELLERS PRIZES FOR STUNTS

In addition to the gold coins which were given as prizes at the championship contest in Eugene next Monday, a large number of prizes have been donated for the industrial exhibition and for the stunt program. For program each school in the county will present five minutes during which it will present any playlet, stunt, drill or other act that it wishes. The prize for best is a huge cake.

In the parade the school making the appearance in line and having the largest number of marchers will be awarded a life-size bust of Abraham Lincoln.
