

PEAGE ENVOYS HOPE TO SATISFY MEXICO

Failure to Salute the Flag No Longer Factor in Pending Negotiations.

Washington.—Peace delegates of the Huerta government stopped in Washington while on the way to Niagara Falls, Canada, to attend the mediation conference. They are confident of the success of the mission, which, it was learned, is the broad question of pacifying all of Mexico.

Those close to President Wilson and Secretary Bryan assert that the question which is to be mediated is no longer the failure of Huerta to salute, or the offenses committed against the dignity of the United States, but the broad question of pacifying Mexico.

Those who know the viewpoint of the Washington government declare the American troops will not be withdrawn from Vera Cruz until a stable government is established or is in sight in Mexico City.

Persons close to Emilio Rabasa, chairman of the Mexican commission, and intimate adviser of Huerta, said the Huerta delegates would await the suggestions of the three mediators, but when the time came for their answer to suggestions as to a successor for Huerta, they probably would insist that no man who had guided military operations or was exercising power "by arbitrary force," as set forth in President Wilson's Latin American declaration, should be permitted to take the reins of the government.

REBELS CRY 'VIVA WILSON'

President Coupled With Carranza By Victors at Tampico.

Vera Cruz.—A heavy rain storm which flooded the trenches and blew blinding torrents into the faces of the federalists contributed much to their defeat at Tampico, according to Americans who have come here from that port.

The constitutionalists took advantage of this and poured a terrific fire into them, forcing them back from the outposts into the town. Immediately the federalists began entraining.

The constitutionalists came into the town shouting in the air and shouting "Viva Carranza, viva Wilson!"

Cablegrams based on messages from Tampico have been sent to Berlin urging the German government to protest against the forced loans alleged to have been imposed by the rebels.

Refugees Tell Of Mexican Excesses. San Francisco.—Graphic reports of the murder of Americans, the capture by a Mexican transport of the American brig Geneva, the imprisonment of United States Consul Edwards, of Acapulco, and many atrocities on the west coast of Mexico were brought in by the officers and 150 refugees on the British steamer Cetrania, which arrived from Manzanillo.

PRIMARY ELECTIONS HELD IN OREGON

Portland.—That Dr. James Withycombe, of Corvallis, and Dr. C. J. Smith, of Portland, will be the republican and democratic candidates, respectively, for governor in the November election was indicated clearly by the figures received from the state at large.

It is probable that Dr. Withycombe will have a plurality of about 4000. Dr. Withycombe, it is believed, will come up to Multnomah county with a lead over Gus C. Moser of about 10,500 votes.

Dr. C. J. Smith is nominated by the democrats in all probability by a plurality between 1000 and 1500. His closest competitor is A. S. Bennett, of The Dalles, who is second in both Multnomah county and the state at large.

C. N. McArthur has won the republican nomination for representative in congress in the third district, comprising Multnomah county, by a plurality over A. W. Lafferty, the incumbent, that probably will total 2100 votes.

United States Senator George H. Chamberlain was renominated by the democrats, R. A. Booth received the republican and William Hanley the progressive nomination for United States senator. All were unopposed.

Parks' Execution Seen.

Vera Cruz.—Additional confirmation of the execution of Private Samuel Parks of the Twenty-eighth Infantry, was received here.

There was brought into the American lines one of Huerta's conscripts who had deserted. He said he was an eye-witness of the execution of Parks.

London Consul-General Dead.

London.—John L. Griffiths, the American consul-general at London, died suddenly at his residence of heart disease.

R. A. BOOTH

R. A. Booth, who will oppose the present United States Senator from Oregon, George E. Chamberlain, had no opposition for the Republican nomination at the primaries.

Brief News of the Week

Shriners will hold their next annual national meeting at Seattle, Wash., July 15, 1915. Dr. Frederick R. Smith of Rochester, N. Y., has been elected imperial potentate.

Postmaster General Burleson, during the 14 months he has been in office, has appointed 23,317 postmasters of which number 5171 were of the presidential grade.

Ogle county, Illinois, residents told the public utilities commission they preferred to have the present phone system to the new plan which would prevent them from listening to neighborhood gossip by "cutting in."

At the request of members of his family, no demonstration will be accorded Colonel Roosevelt on his arrival home from Brazil. The request was made as a result of the former president's poor health.

It is expected that Harry A. Wheeler, of Chicago, will decline to accept the position as one of the new federal reserve board. Nominations of all five members are expected to be sent to the senate by the president this week.

Sheriff Smith of Cleveland sold at public auction $70,000 worth more of land on Euclid Heights owned by Patrick Calhoun, traction magnate of New York and San Francisco, to satisfy a mortgage of $1,642,000.

Water-borne freight began passing through the Panama canal Monday, when five barges carrying about 2100 tons of miscellaneous cargo were towed from Balboa, at the Pacific end, to Cristobal, at the Atlantic end of the canal.

The one hundred and twenty-sixth general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America, commonly known as the Presbyterian church, North, was opened Thursday in Chicago. On the same day the general assembly of the Southern Presbyterians met in Kansas City and that of the Reformed Presbyterians in Cincinnati.

MEXICAN NEWS NOTES

The Mexican rebels under Zapata are said to have reached a point within ten miles of Mexico City.

British residents of Mexico City have gathered in concentration districts in the foreign residence quarter in the capital city in fear of an attack upon them.

Notice is said to have been given foreign owners to reopen their mines in Párral district, Mexico, in 15 days. The Mexicans will seize the mines if the order is not obeyed.

Rebel commander Villa is said to have put the lid on at Torreón. Soldiers are not allowed to use intoxicating liquors and citizens are compelled to keep within proper bounds.

Dictator Huerta is said to be surrounded by the best men in his army for his own private body guard. The soldiers wear blue shoulder straps, indicative of their service to their president.

The Brazilian Minister at Mexico City reported to the State Department that the liberating of Consul Silliman at Saltillo had been confirmed by Americans who reached the Mexican capital.

The size of the expense of the present Mexican undertaking is shown by the deficiency appropriation bill for $2,701,327, in the house providing for the army alone. More than one-half of the amount is for transportation.

Official reports show the constitutionalists rapidly extending their field of occupation. Consul Canada at Vera Cruz reported them in possession of Tuxpam, the important east coast town with extensive oil industries.

The reported execution of Private Samuel Parks, an American soldier who strayed through the Mexican lines, will be investigated immediately. It was said in a message from Mexican Foreign Minister Ruiz to the Spanish Ambassador Mr. Riano.

NEWS FROM OUR NATIONAL CAPITAL

East and South Threaten Important Western Land Measures.

Washington.—Two bills of great importance to the west are threatened with defeat because of opposition by eastern and southern members of the house of representatives. One proposes to modify the cultivation clause of the homestead law by reducing the area that must be cultivated prior to the submission of final proof, and the other grants to settlers on government irrigation projects 20 years, instead of 10, in which to pay for water.

Consideration has been given by the senate and house committees on public lands to bills proposing to amend the homestead law, but neither house has passed such a bill.

So far as the 20-year bill is concerned, that has already passed the senate, but is threatened in the house, where eastern and southern members are inclined to raise objections to its consideration and certainly will raise objections to its passage.

House Begins Work on Trust Bills.

Formal steps to start the administration anti-trust legislation through congress were taken by the house rules committee, when it formulated a special rule for the expeditious passage of the three bills which make up the anti-trust program.

House leaders were interested in a report that in case the senate finds it impossible to put through all the trust legislation which the house will pass and get away from Washington about July 15, an effort will be made to effect a compromise, put through part of this legislation and go home.

According to this plan, the senate would provide nothing further than the creation of an interstate trade commission, with authority to investigate and make a report at the next session of congress.

There are many democratic senators who are convinced that the senate cannot hope to put through the subcommittee's trust bill inside of two months at the least.

Statue to John Barry Is Dedicated.

With the dedication and unveiling of a monument to Commodore John Barry, the Irish patriot of the American revolution, President Wilson eulogized the early settler and hero who "brought his heart to America when he came from Ireland."

The president said Barry and Washington were the men who first saw that America must live her own life without "entangling alliances."

"We need not," said the president, "and should not, form alliances with any nation. Those who are right, those who hold their honor above their advantage do not need alliances. You need alliances only when you are not strong. You are weak when in the wrong and when afraid to do right."

Referring to Barry's heroic work as "the father of the American navy," on his coming from Ireland, the president said:

"The test of us all is whether we will assist America to live her life, retaining our ancient interest and affection for our native land."

National Capital Brevities.

Senator Borah offered an amendment to the river and harbor bill, asking for a loan of $50,000,000 to be used in reclamation projects.

A further urgent deficiency bill, appropriating upwards of $6,000,000 because of army and navy activities in Mexico, will be passed by the house.

Democratic leaders in the senate aligned with the president for repeal of tolls exemption expect to see the bill closed by Sunday, but the most optimistic house leaders do not believe the three trust measures can be passed in less than three weeks.

President Wilson will oppose the changes in the pending anti-trust bills advocated by labor leaders to make more explicit the exemption of labor unions from the operation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The diplomatic and consular appropriation bill aggregating $5,000,000 was passed by the house. It provides for the acquisition of embassy sites and buildings at Tokio at $150,000; in Bern, Switzerland, at $140,000 and in Mexico City at $150,000.

The English and Celtic (including Irish, Scotch or Welsh) group was the largest among the 32,243,382 persons of foreign white stock in the United States in 1910, who represented 39.5 per cent of the total white population of this country, according to the mother tongue bulletin which has been issued recently by the bureau of census, department of commerce.

The Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, told him the whole political story of the New Haven road was the assertion here of Joseph W. Folk, chief counsel for the interstate commerce commission, which is probing the affairs of the New England railroad system.

A Gem of Thought.

(Published by request)
Love to God and man is the golden key that opens the heart to all good and closes it to all evil; that unlocks the gates of doubt and discouragement standing across our pathway to success; that unbars the doors of prejudice and hate in the hearts of others, to reason and justice, thus giving the incentive and preparing the way for all the good we may ever hope to do—Selected.

There was an old woman who lived in a shoe; she had so many children she didn't know what to do. She inserted a want ad. in The Sentinel, and then she didn't have enough to go around. a22

When Dreams Come True!

Every man from the time he first as a boy started to earn nickels and dimes running errands, has dreamed of the time when he would be a property owner, when he would have a piece of land of his own and be able to erect thereon a home of his own, which he could build to suit his own individual tastes, and about which he could putter and fix up this and that, feeling all the time that what he added to it would be beating the landlord out of that much and that every cent put into improvements, every cent spent in setting out flowers, in making a pretty lawn would be all his very own and that the efforts put forth in making the home and surroundings pretty and comfortable would be just that much more added to his worldly wealth.

The woman has dreamed ever since a maiden in her 'teens of the time she would be married to a man with ambition enough to want a home for their very own and with the energy to provide the wherewithal to buy it.

The little children growing up, long for the time when papa and mamma will buy a home and the annual moving season will no longer be a bugbear, when they can look up to pater familias and feel pride in the fact that he is a factor in the life of the community by reason of being a property owner, a freeholder.

And there's no reason why all these dreams may not come true right now. Slightly residence lots can be purchased in Milapoo Park on the easy payment plan with a very small payment down. Lumber is cheap in the Cottage Grove country, and you will be surprised at how little capital a man with a reputation as a good worker and for integrity needs to get started. The time to do a thing is now. See me today if possible.
