LEANS CHALLENGE FATS TO GAME OF BASE BALL

To Whom It May Concern: I, as captain of the Leans, hereby challenge those of much fat, avoidupoise and bellieco vaporing to a game of base ball to be played upon the forenoon of Friday, June 26.

The Leans promise upon their part a real exhibition of real base ball and also promise the fatties that when they leave the field they will look like scrambled mince meat or some other table delicacy of similar form and shape. Arrangements have been made with Fred Bartels to purchase the grease that will be worked from those of surplus em-poupoint, and in this way it is expected to defray the expenses of the exhibition. The mayor of the city has agreed for the day to suspend all ordinances providing a penalty for cruelty to fat men and no excuse remains except that of fear as to why this challenge can not be accepted. We have even went so far as to get Elbert Bede to agree to do the twirling for those of much avoidupois, no matter upon which portion of the body it may appear.

Witness my hand and seal this 17th day of June, 1914.

SAMUEL LOOPHOLE MACKIN,
Captain of the Leans.

A Paint Story

A CERTAIN well known man residing in the city of Cottage Grove came into our shop the other day and said: "I can buy guaranteed Pure Paint in Portland for $1.45 per gallon. My neighbor has used some of this paint and it looks pretty good." Now our friend was the "Show Me" kind although not from Missouri, and had a gallon of his neighbors' paint weighed. The $1.45 guaranteed Pure Paint weighed 13 1/2 pounds. We weighed a gallon of Sherwin-Williams paint in the same color, in this man's presence and it tipped the beam at 18 pounds exactly.

It is needless to say we took this man's order, and he said he saw at least one reason for the difference in price.

Moral: BUY SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT FROM
