OKLAHOMAN PLEASED WITH TRIP TO OREGON

T. J. Wilson, who visited here some time ago, upon his return to his home at Perkins, Okla., wrote of his western trip in glowing terms for the Perkins Journal. He spoke highly of Cottage Grove and recounted his meeting with a number of former Perkins people now living here. Part of his letter is as follows:

"We very much enjoyed our visit with relatives in Oregon, none of whom we had ever met before, but who received us with that fine western cordiality which in rare instances may be equalled but is never excelled.

"At Cottage Grove we found an entire colony of Perkins people—George and Will Hall and families, Love Harrel and wife, Herbert Harrington, Mrs. James Lizar and children, 'Bill' Me-

The forty members of Sixth Co., C. A. R., who had been in camp at Fort Stevens for two weeks, returned on the late train last night. They broke camp yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. They were kept very busy by the duties of the camp, practically every daylight hour having a particular duty assigned, but nevertheless enjoyed their outing very much. Practice work consisted mainly of firing the big guns.

"We found in Eugene, Jerome Workman and Mr. McGeorge, formerly of Stillwater, and well known to many Perkins people—both expressed themselves as perfectly delighted with Oregon, and Eugene in particular."

GRANGE MEMBERS PICNIC

L. P. Harrington and County Agricultural Rader Are Principal Speakers on Program.

Cottage Grove Grange held a picnic at the home of R. Y. Porter at Walker last Wednesday with a large attendance. The Creswell grange was invited and a good crowd went down. A fine program had been arranged, consisting of speaking, music, recitations and flag drills by the school children. L. P. Harrington spoke on boys' and girls' industrial clubs.

A lunch was served at noon. In the afternoon Professor Rader, county agriculturist, spoke on agriculture, soil fertilization, liming, clover and corn growing, the silo and other matters connected with agriculture. Mr. Harrington spoke on the grange and its influence, the value of co-operation and on the parent-teacher associations and their value connected with schools. Games and sports, ending with a base ball game, followed the speaking.

The following program was rendered:

- Song by the Grange.
- Recitation Lester Porter
- Recitation Hassel Magee
- Song Edna and Hazel Ashby
- Recitation Glen Smith
- Recitation Avery Ishamel
- Flag Drill Lynx Hollow School
- Recitation William Porter
- Recitation Enid Veatch
- Song Young People of Lynx Hollow
