A valuable three-year-old mare belonging to W. C. Billings suffered a very badly cut leg a couple days ago when it became tangled in a barbed wire fence in the Cooper pasture where it was kept. It was not until sometime after the accident that the horse was found to be hurt. The cut is a deep and serious one just above the foot on the left hind leg. Mr. Billings thinks that the horse will recover but that the injury will leave it more or less crippled.

BOSTON BEAUTY SPECIALIST TO VISIT C. G.

C. J. Kem Looks Forward to Large Crowds During Her Week's Stay at The Rexall Store

Will Give Number of Free Facial Massages and Personal Advice in Your Home by Appointment.

An opportunity which is sure to prove as beneficial as it is rare will be afforded the women of Cottage Grove and vicinity when Miss Harriet Coleman, the much talked of Beauty Specialist, now touring Oregon as representative of the United Drug Company of Boston—creator of the many Harmony Beauty Requisites and equally well-known toilet preparations, starts her public demonstrations for the week commencing Monday, July 6th, as the guest of Mr. C. J. Kem, proprietor of the Rexall Store and sole distributor of the Harmony Toilet Products in Cottage Grove.

Miss Coleman contends that it is the privilege of every woman to take advantage of anything that will tend to lead a touch of added beauty to the skin; but, says Miss Coleman, "extreme care should be exercised to choose only such preparations that really do help nature in the beautifying of your complexion. Of course on one will question the assertion that the woman with the clean, well-preserved skin is a much admired person anywhere," and, she continues, "if the woman of today would only take the care to treat the skin to the benefits of a good massage that she takes in reading the household section of the paper, we would see fewer wrinkles, and more, yes, a great many more women young at fifty."

We have no doubt about Miss Coleman's ability to offer the women of Cottage Grove some very valuable advice, and Mr. Kem will, we feel sure, have a store full of the "fairer sex" during Miss Coleman's stay at The Rexall Store.

Mr. Kem tells us that he has a real beauty treat in store for the women of Cottage Grove, so you'd better get ready for Miss Coleman's arrival, ladies. jyl

PUBLIC DOESN'T TAKE HOLD OF BARGAIN DAY

John Keibelbeck, J. H. Kirk and A. Soderstrom Are Winners of Merchandise Prizes.

There seems to be some difference of opinion as to whether the Bargain Carnival Day Saturday was a complete success. While a number of the merchants were well pleased with the results, none think that the buying public took hold the way it should have considering the inducements that were offered.

The merchandise prizes were won as follows: First, $5, John Keibelbeck; second, $3, J. H. Kirk; third, $2, A. Soderstrom. The amount of the purchases that won the prizes were: $310, $261.65 and $55.50. There were a number of other purchases ranging around $30 and $40.

The prize winners will be given their merchandise orders upon calling at The Sentinel office and selecting the store upon which they wish them.

MANY JOIN "LET'S-GET-OUT-OF-MUD" ORGANIZATION

Secretary of Tri-State Good Road Association Is Booster for Split Log Drag.

The names of 20 Cottage Grove good roads enthusiasts were added to the membership roll of the Tri-State Pacific Good Roads Association Saturday through the efforts of George E. Boos of Medford, secretary of the association. Mr. Boos was in the city only one day but his enthusiasm for good roads was the highly contagious sort.

The association will hold its annual convention July 27 and 28 at Medford and Mr. Boos' pet plan just now is to organize a series of work days in the several counties through which Pacific Highway runs some time before that date, when, by means of the split log drag, all roads running lateral to the highway, and the highway itself, may be put into excellent shape for the automobiles that will come from Washington and other northern points.

The split log drag is the one particular device to which Mr. Boos pins his faith for good roads for everyone.

The Tri-State Association has more than 2000 members and the slogan of each and everyone of them is, "Let's Get Out of the Mud." They hope to realize their ideal, thus expressed, chiefly by dragging themselves and their neighbors out of the mud by means of the split log drag. Mr. Boos feels that the highway will naturally be well taken care of and thinks that the lateral roads should receive attention as part of the public work. He is a firm believer in the advantage of the public road working day.

The association aims to bring about the connection of the entire coast country with the best of roads. Mr. Boos says that it is the belief of the association that good roads are as vitally necessary to the good of the people as are good schools.

The coming convention at Medford promises to be a most interesting one. Every phase of road building will be discussed by practical experts.

An Old Shearing Crew.

Pendleton, Ore., May 27, 1914. To the Editor of the East Oregonian: In the year 1876 there were nine young men engaged in shearing sheep for Jerry De Spain, and the sheep were sheared about one mile below the Main street bridge in Pendleton.

Out of these nine men there is but one dead as far as several of the gang can remember at this writing.

The names and addresses of this bunch, as far as known, are as follows: Ben F. Swaggart, Lexington, Ore.; Willis Bush, Pilot Rock, Ore.; Bill King, Weston, Ore.; J. B. De Spain, (deceased); Charles Jackson, Cottage Grove, Ore.; James Lieuallen, Walla Walla, Wash.; Emsley Ridenour, Portland, Ore.; Wesley Adeock, Pendleton, Ore.; T. F. Howard, Pendleton, Ore.

J. B. De Spain was the youngest one of this bunch and as far as can be learned he is the first dead of the bunch, and really the only one dead as far as the bunch can find out up to date.

T. F. HOWARD.

C. M. Jackson of this city, who was a member of this crew, remembers most of the parties named and met several of them when he visited the round-up last year.
