OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Events Occurring Throughout the State During the Past Week.

Find Bossen Not Guilty.

Eugene.—After a trial that lasted six days, the jury in the case of Andrew Bossen, charged with murdering his wife, Edith Bossen, at their home on the night of March 20 last, returned a verdict of not guilty. The Bossens came to Springfield a little over a year ago from Douglas county, Oregon. Evidence in the case was entirely circumstantial. Bossen was accused of administering the poisons during the absence of other members of the household.

Blue Sky Law Investigated.

Salem.—Corporation Commissioner Watson has gone to Atlantic City to attend a convention of bank superintendents. He said the purpose of his trip is to obtain information regarding the blue sky laws in case it is desired to amend the Oregon law. Mr. Watson said he favored a law providing the maximum protection to investors, with minimum red tape and as little interference with legitimate corporate business as possible.

Sheriff Captures Fisher.

Baker.—Ed Fisher, alleged assailant of ex-Mayor Henry Stewart of Copperfield, who was shot near his home was captured near Wallowa lake, in a mountain fastness, by Sheriff Ed Rand, who had been constantly on his trail since the shooting occurred.

Doctors attending Stewart, whom Fisher is alleged to have shot, say he will recover.

Disputed Land Taxed.

Oregon City.—Property, valued at $1,149,880, in dispute between the federal government and the Oregon & California railway company is to be put on the tax rolls of Clackamas county and, unless an injunction is issued an attempt will be made to collect the taxes. This statement was made by J. E. Jack, county assessor.

Masked Robbers Hold Up 8 Autos.

Marshfield.—Eight automobiles, loaded with dancers, en route to a roadhouse dance, were held up, one after another, between Marshfield and South Inlet by two to six masked robbers, who stripped the occupants of the autos of all money and jewelry and then escaped.

INQUIRE INTO PHONE RATES

Group Plan Based on Economic Quality Throughout Two States.

Portland.—Railroad commissions of Oregon and Washington which control all public utilities in the two states, began a joint conference here to ascertain how the basic telephone rates in the two states are determined and why the relations between various classes and qualities of service vary in larger and smaller communities.

The commissioners announced their investigation would result in the formulation of a plan of grouping and classification of rates and services that will be based on economic equality throughout the two states. A tentative plan for arriving at such results was submitted by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

It was expected that the readjustment would bring about a uniform schedule of rates in Seattle, Portland, Iacoma and Spokane, while secondary communities would receive a rate schedule that agrees for the same services rendered.

New Course is Planned.

St. Johns.—The school directors are considering the question of installing a commercial course in the St. Johns schools, to include typewriting, stenography, penmanship, orthography and kindred subjects. Night sessions may be held.

St. Helens to Have Militia.

St. Helens.—St. Helens is to have a company of the Oregon National Guard. Mayor Mueller and Attorney White are in communication with Governor West and Lieutenant Hennessey, of Corvallis, in regard to forming the organization.

Sheep to Go East.

Baker.—Flock masters in the vicinity of Baker are preparing to ship a large number of sheep within the next few weeks. Most of the shipments will be east and will consist of lambs and wethers.

Can of Salmon Found in Halibut.

Newport.—M. Wachsmith, master of the halibut fishing launch Sea Dog, discovered a large-sized salmon containing some salmon in the stomach of a halibut.

Dairy Business Shows Increase.

Union.—The dairy business shows a big increase this season over last and two companies are paying out about $6000 per month for butter fat.

BRIEF NEWS OF OREGON

Nearly three miles of municipal railroad is in operation at Grants Pass, the first road of its kind to be started in Oregon.

The Oregon state federation of labor urges Senator Chamberlain to aid in passing the senate bill restricting immigration. The illiteracy test has the indorsement of the federation.

Sixty members of the Oregon National Guard were vaccinated with typhoid prophylaxis at the Clackamas rifle range.

M. F. Henderson of the University of Wisconsin has been engaged as pathologist and weather observer for Jackson county, at a salary of $2500 a year and $1500 for incidental expenses.

Senator Chamberlain offered amendments to the sundry civil bill providing $207,000 for the improvement of Tillamook bay and $5000 for use in assisting the state of Oregon in guarding against forest fires.

The state immigration commission, has urged through Senator Lane, better life-saving service on the ocean beaches north of the Columbia river. Life saving crews are willing to undertake patrol work on the beaches.

The Astoria 19th annual regatta will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday. From point of attendance, varied attractions and amusements and the number of participants in the big races, it bids fair to outclass by far any of its predecessors.

Dr. J. P. Wallace of Albany has declared that he will not accept the democratic nomination for state senator from the fourth district, and E. D. Cusick of Albany, republican choice will therefore have the field to himself.

Mrs. M. C. Reed, of Portland, was chosen president of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Oregon conference of the Methodist Episcopal church for the ensuing year, at the close of the 28th annual meeting of the society at Albany.

Declaring that it would be un-American and unpatriotic for a French ship to lead the pageant through the Panama canal at its opening, the Spanish-American War Veterans of Oregon, at their sixth annual reunion, which opened at Salem, adopted a resolution urging President Wilson to give the honor to the battleship Oregon.

The interstate commerce commission has further suspended from July 10 until January 10 the operation of certain schedules for increased rates applicable to transportation of melons in car lots from certain points in California to points in Oregon and Washington.

Burglars, who made a well-planned raid on the postoffice at Jasper, lost the greater part of their loot at the last moment because they awakened Leslie Wright by using too much nitro-glycerine. Mr. Wright shot at them with a rifle. They shot back and ran. They left $500 in stamps behind. About $50 in cash and some jewelry was carried away by them.

Petitions have been completed and a proposed charter amendment filed for the abolishment of the commission form of government in Baker and the substitution of the city manager plan. The proposal will be voted on at the general election in November, and, if carried, will be followed by another election in ten days of five commissioners to serve at nominal pay, who shall employ a city manager from any part of the country at an annual salary of not to exceed $3600.

The McKenzie River highway, the only motor car outlet from the Willamette Valley into Central Oregon, has been formally declared open and safe for motor traffic. The announcement is made through the United States Forestry officials, who have been instrumental in building what is now practically a macadamized highway, open to all classes of motor traffic across the Cascade mountains. They also have been instrumental in obtaining nearly $20,000, including road district money, which will be spent to complete the highway this summer.

The biggest military encampment ever held in Oregon will begin at Gearhart July 13 and continue ten days. There will be about 2000 National Guardsmen from Oregon and Idaho and 50 regulars from the Twenty-first infantry in the camp on the plain north of Gearhart. Every preparation has been made for the mobilizing of the troops and the establishment of a good camp with all possible comforts and conveniences. The program provides interesting events for each day, the principal features to be maneuvers, drills and military performances of all kinds. The Guardsmen will be furnished with clothing, transportation, blankets, meals and all other necessities free of charge and will be paid for their services. The guard officers will receive the same pay as officers of similar rank in the regular army and privates will be paid from $1.25 to $2.50 a day. The Twenty-first infantry from Vancouver will march to the camp, leaving the barracks July 2 and arriving at Gearhart several days ahead of the Guardsmen.
