A New Back for an Old One. How it can be Done in Cottage Grove.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless, piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame that to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to that back if the kidneys are weak. You can not reach the cause. Cottage Grove residents would do well to profit by the following example.

Mrs. C. Hyer, 589 W. Sixth St., Eugene, Ore., says: "I was taken with pains in my back which caused me great annoyance. I suffered from pains in my limbs also. I read of different people who had used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results, so I decided to try them myself. I used two boxes and they proved to be as represented. It is now some time since I have taken them and I have had no sign of the trouble." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Troxel had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Taxpayer Has Moral Obligation.—Vote for $1500 Exemption Is Repudiation, Declares Correspondent.

Portland, Sept. 29.—(To the Editor.)—Taxes are paid to the government for its protection of our lives and property, and for such public improvements for the comfort and convenience of the people as they shall by their votes demand.

Lives and personal property need more protection than land, which needs almost none.

The obligation to pay for this protection is quite as sacred as any obligation to pay money on any other account.

Voting for exemption from these taxes will be an act of repudiation, and, inasmuch as the taxes must be paid by somebody, the act of voting for the

FREE STATE OF OREGON vs. S. (STATE) W. (WIDE) PROHIBITION

Foreword

The trial of S. W. Prohibition is a prosecution against the theory of the proposed state-wide amendment and is not an attack against the supporters of the measure whose motives are, no doubt, above reproach.

In opening the case against S. W. Prohibition we propose to submit the first charge of Intemperance. We call Mr. Experience, formerly a resident of Vermont and now domiciled in the State of Oregon.

Mr. Experience testified as follows. I have known the defendant for 53 years. I met him when he came to Vermont in 1859 and knew him intimately up to the time of his election in 1903, when he was thoroughly discredited.

He was welcomed after he had made the same promises and prophecies that he now makes in Oregon. Vermont accepted in good faith his theory under the BELIEF that it was practical in the following applications.

(1) That it would stop the use of liquor in the State.

(2) That it would stop drunkenness.

(3) That it would stop crime.

(5) That business conditions would be improved.

(6) That Taxes would be lowered.

After the adoption of State Wide Prohibition we found the following conditions in the State of Vermont:

(1) That intoxicants were still accessible and indulged in not only by those addicted to its use before Prohibition but by those who were attracted to its influence by its secrecy as in all human nature we are prone to crave that which is forbidden.

(2) Drunkenness in its chronic state increased by reason of the fact that liquor was obtained in bulk and when a man came in contact with it he drank by the wholesale at one sitting.

(3) Whereas practically overnight through the adoption of the prohibition law it was made a crime to indulge temperately in a beverage which before was NO CRIME, there were thousands whose moral character was weakened by being compelled to connive and sneak a privilege he was told was a crime. He lost his respect for law when in his heart and mind he realized his Personal Freedom was trampled. The records show that violent crimes against property and persons did not decrease but rather INCREASED. All was largely brought about by the increased sale of liquor brewed in illicit stills not inspected by the United States Government and which was FATAL to humanity. THE USE OF DRUGS INCREASED ALARMINGLY.

(4) Thousands of men were thrown out of employment into an already overcrowded labor market. Real estate values tumbled. Stores became vacant. Money ordinarily circulated in the State leaked away into nearby licensed states, where general purchases of supplies INCREASED.

(5) Revenue from licenses having been cut down by thousands the deficit caused in State, city and county funds had to be met by INCREASED TAXATION. Property rendered valueless WITHOUT COMPENSATION became dilapidated. This with the slackening of business conditions resulted in comparative Stagnation.

I have seen Statewide Prohibition in other States where the same conditions have been met. From my KNOWLEDGE OF HIM I say that his representations and promises are Intemperate. I further charge him with Intemperance in attempting to foist on Oregon theories that are not new but which have been tried for over half a century and then REJECTED as FAILURES.

N. B.—This trial will proceed from day to day.

Attempting to Kill the Hop Industry of Oregon.

EXTRACTS

One of the Jurors asked Judge Wisdom, "Why is it necessary to try S. W. Prohibition in Oregon when the same prophecies and promises being made here were tested in 15 Eastern States and found to be false." The Judge replied that there were some people who would not profit by the experience of their neighbors.

S. W. Prohibition as He Appeared on the First Day of His Trial

Bishop Neely of the Methodist Episcopal Church says: "Don't become Intemperate in preaching Temperance. Intemperance is not only over indulgence in Liquor."

Speaking of Intemperance, a newspaperman yesterday drew attention to the fact that there were some newspapers so Intemperate that they would not allow their readers access to both sides of the argument.

$1500 amendment is a loading on others the burden that such voter should bear.

As an instance of such injustice: A and his wife own and live upon a single lot in Portland. Their dwelling and all their personal property and the improvements on the lot are about of an assessed value of $3000. This would all be exempt.—(See explanation of the amendment by Mr. O'Ren and other supporters in the voters' pamphlet.)

B and his wife own two lots near A's lot; upon these lots B, who is a laboring man, has a small dwelling in which he and his wife and their family of children live, and the whole value of their personal property and improvements does not exceed $1000. The two lots are necessary to the support and rearing of their children, while A and his wife have no child.

But B and his wife would have to pay twice the taxes that A would have to pay because they own two lots, while A and his wife owns but one.

Now a very well known fact when he votes for the $1500 exemption amendment he will be repudiating a large share of his just taxes, and loading them on to his poor neighbor. C, a speculator, owns a lot in the same block, unimproved. He would pay but one-half the tax that B would have to pay.

The taxes on all the lots will be very high on account of the vast amount of personal property exempted, and B's taxes under the amendment, would be more than they are now.

If A and B vote for the amendment, A will be acting the part of a rascal, while B will be a fool.

What effect on A's credit will be his vote for the amendment? If he repudiates his obligations to the Government, will he not repudiate his other debts? Will not his "moral risk" be bad?
