A New Back for an Old One. How it can be Done in Cottage Grove.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless, piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame that to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to that back if the kidneys are weak. You cannot reach the cause. Cottage Grove residents would do well to profit by the following example.

Mrs. C. Hyer, 589 W. Sixth St., Eugene, Ore., says: "I was taken with pains in my back which caused me great annoyance. I suffered from pains in my limbs also. I read of different people who had used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results, so I decided to try them myself. I used two boxes and they proved to be as represented. It is now some time since I have taken them and I have had no sign of the trouble."

If you have read The Sentinel you know all the news.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 27.—Speaking at the Detroit Opera House, Pastor Russell took for his text St. Peter's words, "A day with the Lord is as a thousand years," and the Prophet's statement, "A thousand years in Thy sight are but as yesterday" (2 Peter 3:8; Isaiah 40:4). He said in part: All resolutions against sin and in favor of righteous thinking and living are commendable and helpful. But I recommend a comprehensive resolution; namely, to get right with God through His appointed Channel, the Lord Jesus Christ, and through the instructions of His Word, the Bible. While progressing in the knowledge of the Truth and in its spirit, the individual will be abiding in God's Love—"under the shadow of the Almighty."

But this implies faith in God, faith in Christ, faith in the Bible and the study of it so as to get fully into alignment with the Divine purposes and away from the perverting influences of the creeds. While every creed may be said to contain some elements of Truth, nevertheless these creeds are so horribly mixed with errors in such poisonous combinations that it is a wonder we did not all follow blind leaders into the ditch of infidelity long ago.

From the Divine standpoint we see that the six thousand years of earth's history, from Adam's day until now, are merely the work-day portion of a great Week whose Seventh Day, or Sabbath, of a thousand years is "the Day of Christ," "the last Day," "the Day of Judgment," or trial for the world—the Day in which "every knee shall bow and every tongue confess, to the glory of God"; the Day in which "the righteous shall flourish, and evil doers shall be cut off" in the Second Death; the Day during which God will "pour out His Spirit upon all flesh," as He now grants it to His servants and handmaidens.

In the Divinely arranged custom of the Jews the new day began at sunset. Thus we are in the evening, or beginning, of the great Seventh Day of the Divine Week the Day which means so much of blessing, uplifting, privilege, opportunity of Divine favor to our race through Messiah's glorious Kingdom, which throughout this Seventh Day will retain "from sea to sea and from the river to the ends of the earth" putting down everything contrary to the Divine standards, and uplifting the world of mankind brought from the precious blood at Calvary from sin, degradation and the tomb—up, up, step by step, to human perfection in a world-wide Eden. The unwilling, resisting Divine favors and privileges, shall be destroyed in the Second Death.—Acts 3:19-22, 23.

Wearied Children Fall Asleep.
"Six Days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the Seventh is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work." Whoever reads carefully, intelligently, the pages of history must be struck with the energy which has been manifested by our race. The pyramids and the ruins of ancient cities and civilizations all tell us of humanity's ceaseless struggle against the adverse conditions prevailing in the earth, including the strife against sickness and death and, by a few, a noble fight against further degradation.

Well does the Prophet express the truth of our observation, saying, "We have not wrought any deliverance in the earth." (Isaiah 26:18.) A few have gained fabulous riches, name or fame, place or power; but during all this period the majority have gone down to the tomb, slain by the great associated monarchs whom the Bible declares are reigning—Sin and Death.

Even the comparatively few who have gained eminence and whose victories are most loudly extolled in human history have fallen also—many of them in the very prime of life—all of them in comparative childhood. Why should not a man live for a hundred years when we have the Divine assurance that even under the Divine sentence Father Adam resisted death for 320 years—so vigorous was his constitution?

From the Divine standpoint the children of Adam, all born in sin, shapen in iniquity, of few days and full of trouble, fall asleep in death, like children wearied in their play; albeit that it is a play grim with tragedy, in which each actor performs his part most realistically.

being learned by Adam's children will not all be lost. The greater endowments of heart and the broader views of the majority of those who have thus battled selfishly for even fifty years suggest that our race as a whole might do better work in a second century than in the first. Moreover, the Scriptures indicate that the great drama of sin, selfishness and passion being enacted by humanity is furnishing a lesson to angelic hosts respecting the exceeding sinfulness of sin—its downward tendency, its bitter fruit, and the hopelessness of any escape therefrom except by Divine assistance.

Humanity's Next Lesson.
The forbidden fruit of Eden was from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. Doubtless the Creator would eventually have given our first parents a full knowledge of both good and evil, and merely forbade them an immediate plunge into knowledge to their own disadvantage. Craving knowledge before its due time, Mother Eve disobeyed her Maker, and enticed her husband also into disobedience. The result has been that instead of learning the philosophy of good at first and of evil later, they and their race have been precipitated into lessons respecting evil first, with the knowledge of good to come later.

The holy angels, who have never transgressed the Divine Law, have continually the lesson of good—an appreciation of the Divine character, the principles of righteousness, etc. Their lesson in respect to evil they are gaining by observation instead of by experience—the way recommended to our first parents by the Creator, but in their ignorance rejected.

But God foreknew the course which His human children would take under the influence of temptation; He foreknew that they would fall into sin and would therefore experience its penalty of sin, sorrow and death. While for six thousand years His eye has pitied His poor creatures, nevertheless He has allowed His great original Plan of the Ages to move along slowly to a grand climax—the Plan which He had purposed in Himself from before the foundation of the world.

That climax in human affairs, we believe, is at hand. It marks a great change of dispensation. The six thousand years of the reign of Sin and Death are ending with a terrible Time of Trouble which not improperly might be termed the natural result of human selfishness—sin operating under the influence of the great principles of the New Dispensation, now being ushered in. Selfishness, as represented in the accumulated financial power and energy called trusts and combines, is about to come into conflict with selflessness—sin represented in the combining forces of humanity, labor unions, etc.

The "head-on collision" which thinking people foresee, and which the Scriptures emphatically portray, will give society an earthquake shock. More than this, the graphic picture is that of a world-wide conflagration which will involve the heavens, or ecclesiastical powers, as well as the earth, or social system, and the mountains, or kingdoms, of the world. The picture would be too terrible to paint, and useless as well, were it not for the silver lining of the cloud.

The awful shock, which God's people are warned to avoid, so far as possible, by following peace and benevolence, will merely prepare the way for the glorious blessings of the great Seventh Day, in which man will rest from his own schemes and endeavors, and will come fully under the control of the great Messiah, whose Rule of Righteousness for human uplift, has been prophetically pictured for centuries.

The Picture in Retrospect.
Still looking from the Divine standpoint at the Six great thousand-year Days in which Sin and Death have reigned, we perceive that one effect has been just as foretold to Methuselah—"I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conceptions." We perceive that our race has multiplied much more rapidly than it would have done had it remained perfect, as at first; for the first children, in the days following the Fall, were frequently born when the fathers were one hundred years old.

We have already referred to the lesson respecting the sinfulness of sin which comes to all mankind—most fully, most consciously, to those favored by contact with the people of God, who have received the Divine Revelation. The enlightened ones have been but a small proportion of the whole. After two thousand years of the reign of Sin and Death, God foretold in an obscure manner the blessing which He purposed to bring subsequently to the race. To Abraham He said, "In thy Seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed."

That Message, followed in Israel by the giving of the Law Covenant, has been the light of the world. For eight hundred years it was the only light of hope, of prospect. Then, in partial fulfillment of that Promise, came Jesus, the first practical expression of Divine Love for our race. No longer would God content Himself merely with promises. He would now begin the Work of Human Rescue.

But if any hoped that world-wide blessings would immediately spring up as the result of Jesus' work he was mistaken. On the contrary, Jesus Himself was combatted by the Prince of Darkness and his deluded subjects. For nearly two thousand years the same principle has obtained—all followers of Jesus have been obliged to take up their cross and suffer for righteousness, for godliness, in the midst of a perverse people, amongst whom they have shone as lights and whom to some extent they have assisted in enlightening, civilizing, etc.

QUIET IS RESTORED AMONG FILIPINOS

Uprising Declared to be Small and Was Quickly Suppressed.

Washington.—Details of native uprisings in the Philippines, beginning Christmas eve, were given in a cable message received from Governor-General Harrison.

The report minimized the extent of the trouble, but said that small bodies of Filipinos had assembled in Manila and Navotas Christmas eve, and attempted to make trouble. As a result 40 men were arrested and one man was shot by a policeman.

Governor-General Harrison reported that the disorders had been suppressed; that everything was quiet and efforts were being made to arrest the leaders.

He added that nobody of any influence or standing was concerned in the movement; that it was "small and unimportant" and was connected with the campaign of Ricarte, who has conducted a revolutionary propaganda from Hongkong for several years, appealing to the most ignorant classes of Filipinos.

President Wilson favors the passage of the Jones bill at the present session. Officials close to the White House said that the recent troubles would not affect Mr. Wilson's advocacy of the bill, in view of the quieting reports submitted by the war department.

Resident Philippine Commissioner Quezon said there were no specific grievances against which the Philippine people could complain and that "there is absolutely nothing in the talk of a revolution."

PLOT NIPPED IN BUD

Eight Ringleaders Arrested at Manila and Native Gatherings Dispersed.

Manila.—Eight Filipinos were under arrest here, and the arrest of more was considered likely, in connection with what appears to have been a concerted attempt at a local native uprising Christmas eve.

It is said army officers were warned in advance, the number of conspirators being placed at 10,000. The attempt was a complete fiasco, however, native gatherings being quickly dispersed in various places, and from all indications, the authorities had the situation well in hand.

The plot is attributed to the activities of Artemio Recarte, a Filipino now in exile in Hongkong.

It is disclosed that secret agents of the Filipino constabulary who are members of the secret societies disclosed the plans for an uprising, thus enabling a force of constabulary and police to disperse gatherings at Bagumbayan, Race and Navotas.

The nationalist newspapers accuse the other political parties of fomenting the revolt and they also hint that some Americans were concerned in it in an effort to quash the Jones bill, which contains provisions for a greater measure of self-government for the islands.
