The literary supper given Saturday evening by the ladies of the Christian Church, in the church banquet room was a successful affair. The table decorations, as well as the entire setting of all the surroundings were suggestive of the printing art. The girls who waited on table wore paper aprons and paper headgear made from Cottage Grove newspapers. The printer's "pi" was a pan covered with paper, browned in such a manner as to represent a genuine pie. Underneath the paper top this pan was filled with doughnuts, each doughnut had a string tied to it and the string was attached to a toothpick, which was stuck into the top of the pie. In order to find out what was really at the end of the string the guests were obliged to keep pulling until the doughnuts appeared. Pieces of poetry and news clippings were pasted onto vine leaves and placed at each plate as souvenirs of the affair.

Mrs. Geo. O. Knowles entertained a few friends informally Thursday evening. Cards were played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Chas. Gettys, Arthur Rice, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McQueen, Mr. and Mrs. J. Potts and Miss Bessie Griffin.

The annual election of officers of the Emanon Club took place at its meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. L. Mackin. The following officers were elected after which a social hour was spent: President, Mrs. Van Allison; vice-president, Mrs. Nelson Durham; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Roy Short; club reporter, Mrs. Elbert Bede. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Stanley Martin.

The Constellation Club meets Thursday afternoon at Masonic Hall. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. C. H. Burkholder was hostess Thursday afternoon to the Social Twelve Club. The afternoon was spent in the usual manner over fancy work and conversation. In addition to the club members the following guests were invited in: Mrs. H. H. Veateh, Mrs. J. H. Chambers and Mrs. Adrian Merryman. Rev. McLeod was an uninvited guest who made his appearance, not knowing of the club session. The reverend gentleman could hardly find the door fast enough to make his exit after he saw what he had gotten into.

Rice Custard Pudding

Materials—One-quarter cup rice, two eggs, whites, two cups milk, one-third cup sugar, two eggs, yolks; one-eighth teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon vanilla.

Utensils—Double boiler, mixing bowl, plate for whites.

Directions—Wash rice, mix with milk and cook in double boiler until soft (about thirty minutes). Beat egg yolks, mix with sugar and salt, and add enough rice and milk to make a pouring mixture. Turn this into double boiler with the rest. Stir constantly until it thickens and coats the spoon. Remove from the heat, add vanilla and fold in the beaten whites. THIRD IN FAMILY TO DIE WITHIN YEAR

J. K. Barrett's Death Last Evening Follows Closely That of Two Brothers.

With the death of J. K. Barrett Tuesday evening at 4:30 the last survivor of a family of three brothers passed away within nine months. Mr. Barrett had been ill about three weeks, death resulting from apoplexy. He had not been well since the loss of his brother, LeRoy, who died here last May. Following closely upon the death of LeRoy was the sudden death of his other and only brother, William A., who died here in November.

Mr. Barrett came to Oregon in 1881 and since that time had been a resident of the Cottage Grove country almost continuously. He was well known, having been prominent in civic and educational affairs of the city for many years. He was district school clerk about 12 years. He was a devoted religious worker, having joined the Methodist Church in early childhood, later he joined the Baptist Church and at time of death was a member of that church.

James K. Polk Barrett was born in Erie County, New York, January 23, 1845, therefore being aged seventy years at time of death. He moved with his family, while yet a small boy, to Iowa, where at the age of seventeen he enlisted in the 20th Iowa Infantry and served three years in the civil war. He had been married twice, his first union was that with Miss Amy Haas, shortly after the close of the war. His wife died several years ago. His second marriage was to Mrs. Elizabeth A. Haas, April 22, 1891, who survives. No children resulted from either marriage. He is also survived by a sister and three stepsons, they are: Mrs. Chase of Cedar, Kansas; Ernest Haas of Columbus, Indiana; Charles Howard of Billings, Montana; and Alvin F. Howard of this city.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Methodist Church tomorrow at 2:00 p. m., Rev. H. N. Aldrich, assisted by Rev. D. A. McLeod and Rev. W. J. Gardner, officiating. Interment will be made in Masonic cemetery.

every two cups of boiled rice); put in a baking dish, cover with butter, bread crumbs and bake a golden brown. Serve in baking dish.

Celery Fritters

Add celery, chopped fine, to fritter batter, and fry in deep fat. Garnish dish with celery leaves.

Baked Chicken Omelet

Mince one cupful cold chicken and add to one cupful white sauce. Beat two eggs, white and yolks separately. Add the yolks to the chicken mixture, with one tablespoon minced parsley, when fold in the whites, pour into a well-buttered pudding dish and bake in a quick oven. It should be served at once.

Beefsteak Pie (English)

Cut two pounds of round steak into strips, roll in flour and arrange in a deep dish with three lamb's kidneys, which have been cut up and parboiled, one dozen asparagus, one onion minced fine, parsley, dried thyme. Dot generously with bits of butter, and add two cups of hot water. Cover with a biscuit crust arranged in strips. Brush with yolk of egg and bake two hours in a moderate oven.

Near-Maple Syrup

Boil together for eight minutes two cupfuls brown sugar, two tablespoons water and one even teaspoon of butter. Let it cool before using.

Stewed Lamb a la Jardiniere

Select a breast of lamb, wash carefully and put in saucepan with just enough cold water to nearly cover it, let simmer one hour, closely covered, then add one-half cupful lima beans, one-half cupful peas, a small carrot cut in slices, a few clusters of cauliflower and one cupful canned tomatoes. Remove the meat to a platter, arrange the vegetables about it. Thicken the gravy with browned flour and pour over all.

Graham Mush

Two cupfuls salted water; when it boils stir in very gradually enough graham flour to thicken. Cook, stirring constantly, for ten minutes.

After lying idle for centuries and, of late years being the subject of numerous controversies, Lakes Summer and Albert, in the central part of the state, have been leased to a New York syndicate for a term of 45 years. J. C. Moore, head of the syndicate, states that his company will spend $6,000,000 for development work within the next two years, and that, if the results meet their expectation, from 3,000 to 6,000 men will be employed. Under the terms of the lease the state will receive royalties of not less than $25,000 per year, the royalty to be based on the tonnage of salts extracted from the lakes. The present development plan includes the construction of a pipe line down the Deschutes Valley to some point of the Columbia River, where a plant for extracting the salts will be erected.

Revival Services

Large congregations greeted Rev. A. C. Brackenbury each service last week and Sunday, and listened with marked attention to his splendid sermons. As a result, several have been converted and will unite with the church. The meetings continue this week, the pastor preaching each evening. Much personal work is being done by the Sunday school teachers who have pledged themselves to special work this week. The young people are multiplying their activities each evening and the general interest is constantly increasing. It has not yet been decided when these meetings will close.
