

Stop! Look! Listen!

Flies are disease carriers.
Live and breed in filth.
Infect food by germ laden feet.
Each female can lay 150 eggs.
Screens will keep them out.

Let us call and measure your doors and windows for screens.

COTTAGE GROVE MFG. CO. PAINTS, OILS AND BRUSHES

P. S.—May 4 to 11 is state-wide clean-up, paint-up and fix-up week.

TALES OF THE TOWN WHICH YOU MAY NOT HAVE HEARD

MANY MATTERS OF MORE THAN PASSING MOMENT

Any item in these columns containing a key date on the last line thereof is paid advertising. (This announcement is made in compliance with the postal regulations.)

S. E. McGavran returned Sunday night from a trip to Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Fred Kirkland of Portland is spending the week with Mrs. John Barker and Mrs. Jack Miller.

Don't forget the firemen's benefit at The Rex tomorrow (Thursday) night.

District Attorney Devers was up from Eugene Saturday to investigate charges of a crime committed here.

A packed house greeted the first episode of "Runaway June" at the Rex Monday night. Read the story each week in The Sentinel and see the pictures Monday nights.

Fly screens; Swengel Hardware Store.

The Misses Ada Matthews, Myrtle Kem and their guests from Eugene, Misses Dougherty and McClain, motored up Mosby Creek Friday on an outing.

Paints, brushes and painters' supplies to the Cottage Grove Manufacturing Co.

Geo. W. Bradley, former editor of the Yoncalla Times, whose plant burned last week, is in the city on business.

Mrs. E. P. Redford has moved to Eugene.

Currin Cooley, agent for the Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville.

The Spriggs blacksmith shop has just completed a top for the Blackmore & McFarland auto truck to go with the other woodwork recently made by the same firm. Spriggs Bros. have also put seats onto the Bohemia stage.

Rolled barley at the flour mill $1.25 per sack.

Mrs. Handy, mother of Mrs. J. H. Boldon, has been seriously ill the past two weeks but is better.

Mrs. Anna Teeters is visiting at Dorena.

Milinery will be sold entirely at our mercy, April 24. The Vogue. a21c

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Williams of Michigan, who had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Matthews, left this morning for Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Matthews and Mr. and Mrs. Williams visited the quicksilver mine at Black Butte yesterday.

Kinter Bros. are closing out their entire stock. It is your chance to save money.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Teeters visited at the Chas. Teeters home at Dorena Sunday.

Word has reached here of the death of Miss Maude Kirkpatrick at Newport. She formerly lived here.

If you want a diamond, see Madsen. All this month he will sell diamonds, the birthstone for April, at reduced prices; $20.00 rings for $15.00; $25.00 rings for $20.00, and all others at less than they can be bought for at wholesale. Diamonds are always good and the cheapest jewelry you can buy in the long run. Look in window. a21-28

C. M. Jackson was down town this morning for the first time in twelve days.

Mrs. Geo. M. Hawley went to Drain yesterday afternoon for a few days' visit.

Part of the receipts at The Rex tomorrow night will be used to purchase badges for the fire department.

The notarial commission of T. C. Wheeler was filed for record with the county clerk yesterday.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Charles E. Bales and Miss Florence Green, both of Cottage Grove.

Lawrence Phelps received a box of orange blossoms Monday from his mother, who is at Alameda, California. Mrs. Phelps expects to return about the first of May.

April showers won't stop me from helping you move. I'll aid you in selecting another home. Sentinel want ad.

Mrs. Edna M. Kem has begun suit in the circuit court against Claude J. Kem for a divorce. They were married July 29, 1902, according to the complaint, and have one minor child, John Arthur, aged five years, who is now with his mother here. She asks for his care and custody.

A. S. Powell has been appointed administrator of the estate of his father, A. S. Powell. The estimated value of the property is $6000.

to those passed by the Newport, Corvallis and other organizations, petitioning the Corvallis & Eastern to extend its road from Yaquina to Newport, thus eliminating the boat portion of the trip to Newport. The matter will be presented to the club at its next meeting.

All dishes half price at Kinter Bros'.

The Burkholder family and the Geo. Kerr family motored up Mosby Creek for a Sunday outing.

Mrs. K. K. Mills returned Monday day from Eugene where she attended the funeral of her grandmother, Mrs. America B. Cochran, who died at Salem at the age of 84 years. Mrs. Cochran was a well known pioneer who crossed the plains with ox team. Mrs. Mills was with her grandmother for two weeks before death.

Finest display of diamond rings in the city in Madsen's window. a21-28

Mr. and Mrs. R. Woods were in Eugene Thursday.

Mrs. P. T. Devereaux was up from Eugene last Wednesday.

I'm the original Willing Worker of Sleepless Town. I'll help you buy a house, move into it, sell it, or trade it—and do it quick. Sentinel want ad.

Wm. Landess and Miss Winnie were in Eugene Thursday.

The Brown Lumber Co. of this city has sold its lumber yard at Roseburg.

The famous J. R. Watkins remedies, extracts and spices. B. A. Seely, Eugene. Regular visits to Cottage Grove. mch10fc

There were apparently more trout fishers Sunday than there were trout.

Mrs. Emaline Wilson, Mrs. Belle Knowles and Mrs. Ida King have been elected delegates to the state Rebekah convention which meets at Newport in May 18.

Great sacrifice of hats at The Vogue Saturday. only. a21c

Chas. Thornton is home from California where he spent the winter with his uncle, Abe Spray.

G. G. Warner is spending a couple weeks in the Bohemia district.

List the thing you do not want with J. F. Spray for his big sale April 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hart were in Portland several days last week.

Fred Wright of Walker bought a Ford car last week.

Don't forget your fishing tackle; get it from the Swengel Hardware Store.

Harry Wynne is still confined to the house.

The Cottage Grove Band has placed its order for uniforms.

You can buy a cook stove for less than wholesale price at Kinter Bros'.

D. J. Beakley, organizer for the Wood of the World, was in the city Friday.

Mrs. Lucy Holland is opening a restaurant in the building recently vacated by the Des Larzes grocery.

Latest popular music at 15c. Mills & Roach Music House. f24tf

Stanley Hickey, a local farmer, last week purchased a pool of 1700 pounds of mohair, paying the top market price. He is now dealing in wool and mohair.

Elbert Bede, of The Sentinel, has been appointed one of the delegates to the International Press Congress which meets at San Francisco July 5 to 10.

Someone else may want the things you do not want. List them with J. F. Spray for his big sale April 27.

The first game in the Twilight League was played Friday, when the Bears defeated the Braves by a score of 6 to 3.

Col. W. H. Blair has returned from Portland to look after his interests here. He was quite seriously ill during the past winter.

We ship our lawn mowers direct from factory and can sell you a good one for $3.45 Wynne & Woods.

Alfred Jury and family moved Friday into their home on East Main Street, vacated the day before by the Bede family.

Dr. C. E. Frost has purchased a Buick car.

See me before you sell your mohair or wool. J. F. Spray.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Frost motored to Eugene Sunday.

Thomas McKean, a Lorane farmer, died at Mercy Hospital at Eugene Wednesday at the age of 73 years. He had been living in Lorane for two years and had no known relatives in Oregon.

Educate yourself during your spare moments. Inquire of The Sentinel about scholarship in International Correspondence Schools. mch10fc Jesse Darling and Elmer Crowe were in from Lorane Monday. They report the cheese factory there ready for operations. A cheese maker has been hired from Tillamook.

Medford Sun: W. R. Bagley reports that his canned apple juice is meeting with great success in California. Nearly four carloads have already been sold at a value of approximately $5000, and orders are coming in daily. About 13 carloads are already in stock and at the present rate the rest will be sold out before summer when the real rush on the new beverage is expected.

"Aron Boggs, Freshman," will be given at the Arcade Theater Friday evening by high school pupils.

Hood River News: One of the biggest parcel post shipments to be handled by the local postoffice arrived last week from Bend, Ore., and consisted of S. W. Stanton's complete household goods, the shipment including everything from rinks to the family washboard. These articles were wrapped separately and made a pile nearly as high as a man's head. They were delivered on rural route No. 2.

The longer one delays to insure, the greater the danger that he will die uninsured; and to die uninsured during the productive years of life is to entail penurious loss upon one's family and estate. Talk to Harry Metcalf about the Columbia Special Combination.

Lebanon Express: Merely to ascertain their habits and customs and about what it would cost to raise them, Rocky Willis, a Corvallis & Eastern engineer who runs between Albany and the mountain section of Linn County, is keeping three coons, four minks and two skunks, for bearing animals of the bear and weasel family, in a pen at his home in Albany. As far as he has gone in his experiments, Mr. Willis is confident that the raising of these animals in Oregon could be made a far more profitable business than is the cattle, sheep and hog business.

Get a hand corn planter from the Swengel Hardware Store and plant your corn and beans in the right way.

Medford Mail-Tribune: Miss Cora Bennett of this city, while packing apples last year, put her name and address in a box, and Monday received a letter from S. Brewster, London, England, notifying her that her note had been received. The Englishman tells of the war, and how he and the rest of the men of Yorkshire are drilling for the day when they will have to cross the channel and fight the Germans. Besides the letter the Briton encloses some views of English hills, and the training schedule of Kitchener's army.

If you have stumps to blast out, use Trojan powder. It does not have to be thawed and will not give you headache. Wynne & Woods, Agents.

Lorane is considering the erection of a new high school building.

B. F. Hendricks, a Lane County pioneer, died last week at Eugene.

An interesting ceremony linking the present with the early days of the Willamette valley took place at Pleasant Hill Sunday morning when Rev. E. C. Wigmore, of the Eugene Bible University, dedicated a pulpit made from an old stump that did service as a horse block more than 60 years ago.

Sale of milinery at The Vogue Saturday, April 24. a21c

The Coast Range Lumber Co. will resume operations at its mill at Mabel. Manager Gatke says that the supply of men is in excess of the demand.

Lane County has several hundred school boys and girls entered in the industrial contests conducted by State Superintendent J. A. Churchill, according to L. P. Harrington of Creswell, who directs the industrial survey work in the state.

Have never lost a case. Dr. Goff, Shoe Hospital. apr7tf

Among the committee appointments for the meeting of the 42d session of the Oregon State Grange appear the names of G. W. McFarland of this city as chairman of the committee on transportation and Mrs. McFarland as a member of the committee on mileage and per diem.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Williams of Benton Harbor, Mich., have been guests during the past week of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Matthews.

EVERYTHING IN LUNCH GOODS, INCLUDING PEANUT BUTTER in bulk

20c Kerr & Silsby

You can let your taxes go unpaid, stand off the butcher, baker and grocery man and make it all right later, but if property burns that is not insured, you are up against it. Better talk with Harry Metcalf today. apr7tf

Henry Fisher of Marcola, formerly foreman for the Brown Lumber Co. of this city, is seriously ill at Marcola.

J. E. Miles was up from Marcola during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Robinson and Orville Burnett have gone to Bay City, where they have positions as teamsters.

A. S. DRAPER Expert Piano Tuning and Repairing Official Piano Tuner for the University of Oregon School of Music.

Leave orders with Mills & Roach Music House, First Nat. Bld.

Travel With RUNAWAY JUNE

the interesting, perilous road of Love, Mystery, Adventure

Attack with her the world old question of money between husband and wife

"Runaway June"

The great photoplay serial by George Randolph Chester

The Second Installment at

The REX THEATER

WHERE YOU ALWAYS GET A SHOW FOR YOUR MONEY

Monday, April 26

READ THE STORY IN THE SENTINEL

Five tooth cultivators, both horse and man power, Iron Age garden tools, and hand seeders are sold by the Swengel Hardware Store.

Worth Harvey, Oliver Vench and T. C. Wheeler were in Eugene Monday night attending a meeting of Royal Arch Masons.

W. P. Huff has moved into his new home a short distance north of his former one on Pacific Highway. Finley Huff has moved into the place vacated by his father.

We carry bee supplies, double shovel plows, horse cultivators and Planet, Jr. garden tools. Wynne & Woods, hardware.

Mrs. W. C. Johnson returned Monday from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Matlock, at Eugene.

The jury found for the defendant, Governor West, in the Copperfield damage suit. The case against Colonel Lawson of this city was dropped.

Now is the time to list your property for the big auction sale, April 27. See me about terms. J. F. Spray.

E. C. Rowland, a former resident of Cottage Grove, spoke in Phillips' Hall Monday night on "Political Justice Abroad."

Henry Fischer, a lumberman of Marcola, was taken to Halsey Saturday suffering from a severe attack of appendicitis. He was brought down on a stretcher.—Eugene Guard.

K. K. Mills was in Eugene Monday.

THE BRIDGE OF THE GODS

Mary Anna Bartels, Reader.

Program:
Orchestra.
Introduction.

BOOK I.
Chapter 1—Cecil Grey's call to the Indians.
Chapter 2—Multnomah's call to council.

Chapter 3—(a) Story of Wallulah's mother.
(b) Multnomah's commission to Wallulah.

BOOK II.
Chapter 1—Snoqualmie and Cayuse tribe on way to the council.
Chapter 2—The opening of the council.

Orchestra.
BOOK III.
Chapter 1—Cecil Gray first meets Wallulah.

Chapter 2—(a) The races.
(b) Cecil's second visit to Wallulah.
Chapter 3—(a) The hunt.
(b) Cecil's resolution.

Chapter 4—(a) The orations.
(b) Cecil's reproach and victory.
(c) Cecil's last visit to Wallulah.

Orchestra.
BOOK IV.
Chapter 1—Multnomah's visit to his wife's tomb.
Chapter 2—Cecil's last message.
Chapter 3—(a) Wallulah's wedding.
(b) The wedding trip.
(c) Multnomah's funeral bark.

Chapter 4—Conclusion.
Presentation of diploma.
ORA READ HEMENWAY, Instructor.
At Arcade Theater Wednesday, May fifth. Admission 25c and 15c. Tickets at The Elite. Curtain at 8 p. m.

WRESTLING AND BOXING AT MOOSE SMOKER

A wrestling match and a boxing match in the amateur classes are scheduled for the Moose smoker next Tuesday evening. The wrestling match will be between Roy Brown and Stanley Damewood and the boxing match between "Briek" Rinard and "Bill" Giddings. The wrestling is in the 155-pound class and the boxing in the 135-pound class.

High School Play.
The high school will give a play at the Arcade Theater Friday, April 23, entitled "Aron Boggs, Freshman." The cast of characters is as follows: Aron Boggs, a Freshman from

Splinterville..... Dan Woods
Happy Jimmie Jamison, a susceptible junior..... Herald White
Ben Carter, a prominent senior..... Clarence Spencer
Pepper Jervis, studying repose at college..... Herman Edwards
Epenetus P. Boggs, a pillar of Splinterville; and Mr. Chubb, born tired,..... Norval Powell
Casey Jones, a college politician..... Everett Garoutte
Miss Elizabeth Maudina Feeny, a waitress..... Kathleen Kem
Mrs. Chubb, a boarding house keeper..... Dorris Harding
Mrs. Pickens, a boarding house keeper..... Jada Trammell
Miss Evelyn Newcomb, a college belle..... Raetta Boyd
Miss Hunter, a girl's friend..... Maud Doyle
Cherry Caruthers, with a changeable heart..... Genevieve Jury
Loretta Ren, a romantic junior..... Lois Thomas
Miss Dollie DeChiffe, nee Chubb, a vaudeville queen..... Sadie Cox apr21c

WANT ADS

Ads. under this head at one cent a word each insertion for five insertions; 16 2/3 per cent discount after fifth insertion; 33 1/3 per cent discount after eighth insertion. Minimum charge of 15c each insertion. Figures and initials are counted as words.

LOST—BUNCH OF KEYS. RETURN to Chas. Matthews or Sentinel for reward. apr14c

LOST—MY SOLE; BUT DR GOFF will fix it so that I can walk the path to gloryland. apr7tf

FOUND—A WAY TO BUY AND SELL at little expense—through The Sentinel's classified columns. apr7tf

LOST—A WANT AD. CUSTOMER—because the want ad. sold all the goods. apr7tf

FOR RENT—NEAT COTTAGE, BEST location; price reasonable. Inquire of Worth Harvey. apr14c

FOR SALE OR TRADE
ROUND OAK DINING TABLE AND six heavy chairs to match; also full sized bed, springs and mattress at bargain. J. W. Grant, Jefferson Ave. and Thirteenth St.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE OF SIX-room house by piece; also piano and Jersey cow. Mrs. L. Hunt, Royal Academy, phone 29F14. a14-21-pd

PIGS FOR SALE FOR DELIVERY at weaning time at my place on Silk Creek, or in Cottage Grove. John W. Bates, Cottage Grove, Ore. mch10fc

FOR SALE—FINE STOCK PIGS. John H. Hull, 2 miles south of town. Phone 5F5. a21fc

GEM ADDING MACHINE, JUST THE thing for a small business. Costs $10. New machine at $6.00. Inquire at Sentinel office. mch10tf

SCHOLARSHIP IN INTERNATIONAL Correspondence Schools for sale. Can be paid for monthly. The Sentinel.

O. I. C. PIGS FOR SALE. I. H. Veatch. apr7-14pd

A SNAP—U. S. CREAM SEPARATOR, 400-pound capacity, good running condition, price $11. W. J. Messenger, Row River, Ore.

FOR SALE OR TRADE FOR REAL estate—Fashion Livery Stables, Cottage Grove. C. W. Simpson. a21fc

WHITE MINORCA EGGS $1.00 PER setting. Prize winning stock. Mrs. J. P. Graham, phone 152-Y. a21fc

FULL SIZED BED SPRINGS AND mattress at a bargain. J. W. Grant, Jefferson Ave. and Thirteenth St.

What Next? We'll Tell You A Musical Comedy Riot!

The Old Maids' Musical and Literary Society Will Render a Reading

40-People-40

Something New; Something Good

Under the auspices of the Cottage Grove Band assisted by prominent business men. At the Armory

Friday, Apr 30

Admission 25c and 15c

The Babeek home in Silk Creek barely escaped being destroyed by fire Sunday morning.

R. W. Bauman was up from Drain Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Romaine, who had been visiting Mrs. Romaine's parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Kime, left Saturday for their Washington ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Kem motored to Eugene Sunday with their daughter Miss Myrtle and the Misses Dougherty and McLean, who had spent a part of their vacation here. The three young women remained to resume their studies at the university.

GET THE BEST Big-game Hunting Airedales

Bred from experienced workers. These dogs are trailers, tree barkers and stayers. The best dogs on earth.

Pups $10 each.

David Griggs, Cottage Grove
The best is always the cheapest

Misses Mona Dougherty and Ruth McLean of Eugene were guests last week of the Misses Myrtle Kem and Leah Perkins. Miss Dougherty was here the entire week and Miss McLean arrived Friday.

Miss Ada Matthews returned Sunday to Eugene to resume her studies at the university after spending the Easter vacation here.

The date for "The Bridge of the Gods," by Mary Anna Bartels, has been changed to May 5. apr21c

Dr. H. H. Owen, veterinarian, office with Modern Pharmacy, phone 82. m31tf

Victor Chambers returned Sunday to resume his studies at the U. of O.

PIANOS

World's Best Pianos at Portland Prices—Easiest of Terms. See the WILEY B. ALLEN Co.'s line at Mills & Roach Music House.

The commercial club has received a letter from N. S. Woodcock, president of the Corvallis First National Bank, and an attorney at that place, asking the club here to pass resolutions similar to those passed by the Newport, Corvallis and other organizations, petitioning the Corvallis & Eastern to extend its road from Yaquina to Newport, thus eliminating the boat portion of the trip to Newport. The matter will be presented to the club at its next meeting.

All dishes half price at Kinter Bros'.