

The New Baby

Only a few times in an entire life does a father and mother have the opportunity of announcing the arrival of a baby. Those few times are the proudest in their lives and they should take some pride in the manner of that announcement. Neatly printed announcements cost but little and are the real thing for such an occasion. Below we submit a suggestion for an announcement. Try it next time and see how well it takes.

Dog Law Is Held Illegal.
Salem, Ore., May 8.—Circuit Judge Galloway today held that a city ordinance providing that dogs be kept from the streets excepting when in leash was unconstitutional. As a result canines are free to roam the streets until the Supreme Court passes upon the case. City Attorney Trindle announcing that he would appeal it.

The decision was in the suit filed by George L. Rose, a wealthy hog dealer, against the city. The plaintiff was represented by J. H. McNary, president, and Frank A. Turner, secretary, of the Salem Animal and Humane Society.
Judge Galloway held that the city had a right to provide that dogs be licensed, but not that they be kept off the streets in the manner defined in the ordinance.

IT WAS MILLION DOLLAR RAIN, FARMERS SAY

Precipitation of Nearly an Inch of Great Benefit to Growing Crops of County.

With a precipitation of nearly an inch during the past few days all kinds of crops in this section of the valley already seem to be taking on new life. Farmers and gardeners are rejoicing for the ground had become exceedingly dry and grain and vegetables were making a very slow growth. Fall sown wheat and oats in various parts of the county had begun to turn yellow on account of lack of moisture.

"It was a million dollar rain," said one prominent farmer yesterday. "I believe it means that much to the farmers of Lane County. It came just in the nick of time. Everything was very dry and we had begun to worry over prospects for good crops, but it seems that the rain seldom fails us in this valley."

The ground was thoroughly soaked, gardeners digging down into the earth finding moisture six or eight inches deep.

Farmers say that the moisture has insured a big hay crop, grass in pastures will be kept green for several weeks longer and fruit was benefited, in fact it seemed to do everything good. Berries are not yet far enough along to have been injured and they will yield a larger crop as a result of the rain.

AUTOMOBILIST HAS PRAISE FOR CANYON ROAD

Former Quagmire Is Veritable Boulevard, Says C. V. Jordan of Eugene.

That Douglas County has a road supervisor that knows his business and has put one of the finest bits of road in the state in a place where before it was practically impossible to get through in the spring is the opinion of C. V. Jordan of Eugene, who returned Sunday from an automobile trip to Roseburg.

"The people of the Pass Creek Canyon district are certainly to be congratulated," said Jordan. "That road through the canyon is a boulevard and I have seen the time when a horse would go almost belly deep in the mud while machines coming up from California in the winter or early spring would make it all right until they struck that place. They usually were pulled out by a team of horses."

"Roy Griggs has charge of the road work in that district and he has a system that means good roads. In the summer time he drags separate roads on both sides of the crown of the road for summer travel. He blocks the center so that travelers cannot use it. Then he gravels the center in good shape, lets it stand until three or four good rains have fallen on it, thus packing it down. By the time it is ready to be used he has a boulevard that is a delight to travel on."

"The rest of the roads between here and Roseburg are in fair shape. They are not being worked much yet and are none too good, but from Creswell to Cottage Grove the road is fine."

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE ON EXECUTION.

Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of an Execution issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Lane County on the 16th day of March, 1915, and by me received the 4th day of May, 1915, in a suit wherein on the 16th day of November, 1914, in the above entitled Court the Plaintiff, Lane County Abstract Company a corporation, recovered against the defendant Harriet L. GAVE MORTGAGE ON OTHER MAN'S BOVINE

W. H. Allen Gets into Trouble With Novel Method of Frenzied Financing.

W. H. Allen of this city was taken to Eugene Saturday charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. It is said that he bought a large supply of potatoes from J. H. Robinson representing that he had a position with J. H. Chambers. When the seller of the potatoes found that he had no such position he went after his money and was given a mortgage on a cow. It was later learned that this cow was not his property and the arrest followed. E. K. Turpin also sold the man quite a lot of wood on the representation that the man had plenty of money in the bank. When he learned that his chances for getting his money were slim he went to get the wood but found that it had been peddled out around the city. It is understood that the potatoes were disposed of in the same manner. He has been bound over to the grand jury and is in the county jail, not being able to furnish the required bond.
