Ancient Document by Relative of Cottage Grove Woman.

was a great, great grandfather of Mrs. A. C. Wynne and Mrs. J. P. Currin of this city:

Henrico C. H., Richmond, Va.

In the name of God, Amen, I, Nicholas N. Perkins, being sick and weak of body, but sound in mind, perfect sense and understanding, thanks be unto Almighty God for the same.

Therefore have thought it fit and proper to make, ordain and constitute this last Will and Testament in manner and form as follows:

First, I give and bequeath my Soul unto the merciful hands of Almighty God, who gave it, and my body to the earth, to be decently buried according to directions of my Executor, hereinafter named, and as for worldly goods, as it hath pleased Almighty God to bestow upon me, I have thought fit to bestow as follows:

I give and bequeath unto my son, Phil Perkins, all of my land between Spring Branch and Abram Childers, to him and his heirs forever, and my will is that he is to pay unto my granddaughter, Eliza Perkins, daughter of my son, Nicholas Perkins, deceased, fifteen pounds of current money, being in consideration of part of land designated for her father, whereon he once dwelt before his death.

I give and bequeath to my son, Richard Perkins, the plantation whereon I now live, to him and his heirs forever, also one feather bed and furniture, two breeding sows, one iron pot, one gun, one chest and two pewter dipers.

I give to my son, Abram Perkins, that plantation I bought of John Pledgo, by estimation one hundred acres; also that piece of land I have lying between first plantation I bought of said Pledgo and Spring Branch, by estimation fifty acres; one feather bed and furniture, two breeding sows, one

These are the views of J. E. Larson, agronomy extension specialist of the Oregon Agricultural College, on the best time to cut hay. Mr. Larson continues as follows:

"Grasses are cut usually at, or just before blooming time; the rye grasses should be cut before blooming as they become woody; timothy for market hay at blooming time. It does not deteriorate so rapidly and may be allowed to pass bloom before cutting; red top also can stand slightly longer in field than rye or oat grasses.

"Grain hay (oats, wheat, etc.)

My will and pleasure is that all of my cattle be equally divided between my wife and my sons, Richard and Abram, and my daughter, Elizabeth.

My will is that each of my children shall have their share when they arrive at legal age, or on day of marriage.

All of the remainder of my estate I will to my beloved wife, whom I make, ordain, constitute and appoint my whole and sole Executor, of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all others.

In witness whereof I have given my hand and affixed my Seal, this June 13th day, 1711.

NICHOLAS N. PERKINS.
