FADS AND FANCIES.

When making juicy pies, insert two or three pieces of macaroni in the center of the pie to stand upright. The juice will bubble up into the macaroni instead of running over the crust.

If hash is stirred, it is better to use a fork instead of a spoon, as it will make the hash lighter. Instead of stirring hash, some cooks allow it to remain until it is nicely browned on one side, then turn with a pancake turner so as not to break the crust that is formed. This makes a nice looking dish when the hash is slipped onto a platter.

Brown sugar frosting which will not crack is made of one tablespoonful vinegar, brown sugar enough to mix and the beaten white of half an egg. Beat all well together and add sugar enough to spread.

A pair of long wooden knitting needles are most excellent for draining doughnuts. As the doughnuts are fried slip them on a needle and when it is full rest in on the top of a pan to cool. The doughnuts do not crush and the lard drains off.

A simple method of cleaning silver is offered by the domestic science department of the Kansas State Agricultural College, and may be used without the slightest danger of injury to the best of silver. Oxidized silver should never be cleaned by this method, however. Here are the directions: Get a zinc pan. Place a wire mat on the bottom, to prevent the silver from resting on the bottom of the pan. Fill the pan with water and add a tablespoonful of soda and a tablespoonful of salt to each quart of water. Allow the silver to soak in this mixture five minutes. Take out the silver and wash and dry it. In case you cannot get a zinc pan, an ordinary dishpan may be used. Place two strips of zinc on opposite sides of the pan. If you cannot get zinc strips, use two rows of Mason jar lids. Pour in the mixture of salt, soda and water, and then place the silver so that one end rests on one zinc strip and the other on the second zinc strip. After the silver has been in the water five minutes, it should be taken out, washed and dried. The secret of this way of cleaning is that the salt, soda and zinc form a weak battery, and electricity does the rest.

WOMANLY CHATTER.

How to Make a Charming Water Garden With Aid of Tub and Hose. Most persons who love all flowers have longed at some time for a water garden, but very few attempt to create one.

There appears to be a widespread impression that water lily growing is an expensive pastime and one that requires considerable skill. As a matter of fact a very charming little water garden can be made with the aid of a tub and a garden hose, and the lilies are not difficult to grow. If you have only a small space a few tubs or half barrels sunk into the ground about three-quarters of their depth will furnish the easiest beginning. Put these in the sunniest spot and plant flags and other moisture loving plants around the edges. Fill two-thirds of the depth of the tubs with rich soil. Three parts loam and one part well rotted cow manure is a good mixture. Cover the soil with half an inch of clean white sand and turn in the water.

After the tubs are filled with water let them stand for two or three days until the water is warmed by the sun to the same temperature as the air; then set in your lilies. After the roots are in the tubs be careful that the tubs are kept well filled with water, as evaporation is rapid.

Hardy water lilies, callas, sweet flag, water poppy and water hyacinth are good plants with which to begin. For the margins of the tubs flowering rush—an irislike plant with rose colored flowers—water arum, a miniatella and parrot's feather all are easy to cultivate and are inexpensive.

Goldfish are an attractive addition to the water garden, and they thrive well, as the growing plants keep the water clean and pure. The goldfish also keep the little pond free from mosquitoes.

A large pond or basin lined with concrete is quite within the amateur gardener's reach if there be sufficient space and an ample supply of water, but the pond must be kept well filled to become a success. When the large concrete basin is used the roots of the lilies should be planted in boxes. Be sure that the boxes are large enough to give the roots ample room to spread and grow.

now the baby's toilet set of lovely Parisian Ivory comes, painted with these pretty birds with outstretched wings.

Uses For Salt.

Salt puts out a fire in the chimney. Salt in solution inhaled cures cold in the head. Salt in whitewash makes it stick. Salt and soda are excellent for stings. Salt as a gargle will cure soreness in the throat. Salt used in sweeping carpets keeps out moths. Salt thrown on a coal fire which is low will revive it. Salt and vinegar will remove stains from discolored tea-cups. Salt thrown on soot which has fallen on the carpet will prevent stain. Salt put on ink when freshly spilled on a carpet will prevent a stain. Never salt meat that has to be grilled, as it helps to harden the fibers of the meat and tends to extract the juices. Salt on the platter before sending to the table. No meat should be salted uncooked, but after the surface has been seared and meat partly cooked.

WOMAN'S PLACE.

[Translated from a work published in 1578.] The snail, when crawling to and fro, Can take their homes where'er they go, And sages say that from their guild Men learned to hew and carve and build.

A woman, going in and out, In spirit bears her home about; She cannot hang it on a nail And leave it. Thus she's like the snail.

She must with wheel and loom abide, The while her husband works outside, Her task is neither low nor mean, Does honey shame the bee's fair queen?

The queen must stay within the hive If she would wish the work to thrive, Whoever heard of any fish That would stay fresh in a dry dish?

No life unto the snail is left If she is of her shell bereft, So, too, a wife should be downhearted If she from home too long is parted.—J. H.

Now that the new Hill steamship line is in operation between the mouth of the Columbia and San Francisco, and after the Hill people have spent upwards of $5,000,000 on this new industry, the United States Interstate Commerce Commission takes an expensive trip to Portland to see if it cannot in some way prove that the Hill system put these boats on contrary to law. This kind of an overhauling naturally makes private investors want to go right ahead and spend money! The Hill people should have been given a vote of thanks for establishing this line of steamers and the government should encourage instead of discouraging them.

Tax reduction this year $2,131,000 and limit of six per cent per year as largest possible increase means better business conditions.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J.
