

Will it Spread?

There is no other paint, either prepared or hand made from lead and oil, that will spread as well under the brush and cover as much surface to the gallon as

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT.

Figure 300 square feet, two coats, to the gallon and you'll probably have some paint left over.

There are many other good points in its favor. Ask us about them.

COTTAGE GROVE MFG. CO.

TALES OF THE TOWN WHICH YOU MAY NOT HAVE HEARD

MANY MATTERS OF MORE THAN PASSING MOMENT

Any item in these columns containing a key date on the last line thereof is paid advertising. (This announcement is made in compliance with the postal regulations.)

COURTESIES ALL AROUND.

The nicest courtesy you can show your guests is to have their visits mentioned in The Sentinel. The nicest courtesy you can show your friends is to let them know of your visits through a news item in The Sentinel. The nicest courtesy you can show the editor is to bring to the office a complete write-up of any news item which you know.

LUNCHES FOR PICNIC PARTIES

Cakes, Hot Meat Sandwiches, Pies and Pastry prepared upon short notice. Don't worry yourself about your picnic lunch. Just turn the order over to us. Best meals in the city, 25c.

PALACE RESTAURANT
Chas. Cooley, Proprietor.

H. S. Beers, formerly of this city, but now a resident of the soldiers' home at Rosburg, spent several days of the past week here.

A. B. Barrier, who had been to Eugene, where he was operated upon for cataract, returned last week to his home on Row River.

Get your tent and camping outfit from the Swengel Hardware store.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Powell visited last week in Eugene.

Ex-President Theodore Roosevelt passed through Cottage Grove Tuesday evening aboard the Shasta Limited, en route to San Francisco.

John Adams made last week, final

ARCADE

A SHOW OF QUALITY MUSIC OF QUALITY

BABY SHOW

is now on and you see the wonderful collection of pretty babies. 10 votes with every adult admission and five with every child admission.

TONIGHT

The Pawn of Fortune
5-Parts-5

WEDNESDAY

The Law of The Range
A Special 3-Part Western Feature

THURSDAY

On Desert Sands
A Story of the 50's, Featuring the Ever Popular Sydney Ayers

FRIDAY

The Corsair
4-Parts-4

SATURDAY SPECIAL

The Last Volunteer
A War Drama in 5 Parts That We Guarantee

5c --- Special Music --- 10c

Alton Hampton was up Wednesday from Eugene looking after business interests here.

E. C. Lockwood made a business trip to Lorne Wednesday.

Dr. H. H. Owen, veterinarian, office with Modern Pharmacy, phone 82, called Mrs. Chas. Simpson visited friends last week in the Lorne Valley, where she formerly lived.

The Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railway Co. and its allied lines have just issued a circular setting forth the crop conditions of the territory adjacent to its lines. The circular is complete and up-to-date as the information has been gathered within the past week.

Silver plated Rockford wedding presents at J. J. Jansen's.

Miss Helen A. Raymer, who is superintendent of the Nurses' Hospital at The Dalles, left yesterday for Cottage Grove after a visit with friends in the city and attending the chautauqua. She was accompanied by Miss Lura Hefty who is home from Foo Chow, China, on a furlough. Miss Hefty is engaged in missionary work in China and has charge of a number of schools there. Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Tyson have returned from an outing at Newport. They report a very pleasant time.

Marion Veatch, of the undertaking firm of Gordon & Veatch, returned yesterday afternoon from a business trip to Portland. He says the weather was scorching hot there Tuesday, the thermometer going to 100 degrees in the shade. Register, July 21.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Moore came up from Eugene Friday for a visit with friends.

The Oregon Blue Book, containing concise statements of the functions of the several state, district and county officers, as well as of the various state institutions, departments, boards and commissions and including such other information pertaining to the state and federal governments as is of public interest, is now off the press and copies may be secured free upon application to the secretary of state.

Have you read the store news? It will pay you to read all the advertisements.

John W. Bates left today for Crook County to be gone some time.

George Atkinson has been down from the Bohemia district several days.

Levi Geer has purchased W. B. Cooper's Cadillac car.

The N. H. Martin family and Frank King returned Saturday from a several weeks' trip to the coast in the Martin car.

Paints and oils. We keep only pure stock and best grade. Swengel Hardware.

O. H. Willard has received word that his application for a patent on a door sealer, holder or fastener has been granted. The device fits on the jamb of a door or window.

T. C. Wheeler and son and Elbert Bede returned Saturday from their outing on the Middle Fork. The men report catching something like 500 fish, and say that they walked a mile either uphill or down for each fish caught.

W. T. Hawkins and son, Mr. Harlow and son of Row River were also in the party.

Ren Sanford was up from Portland over Sunday visiting his mother.

Insurance brings peace of mind to the man who loves his wife and children, for he knows that, whatever may happen, they are provided for. Talk with Harry Metcalf about the Columbia's Special Combination.

Mr. M. L. Tompkins reports that she secured one of the liberty bell souvenir buttons given away by the liberty bell committee. So far as known Ray Trask is the only other person who secured one during the stop of the train here.

15c ENAMELWARE SALE

SATURDAY AT 10 O'CLOCK FOR ONE HOUR

Another lot on sale from 2 to 3. Splendid values will be included in both sales.

Initial Tumbler Sale. We have small lot of following initials: A, C, D, E, J, N, O, P, R, S, T, W. 12 1/2c each. On sale Saturday 7c each or 4 for 25c.

THE FAIR

Picnic parties to nearby shady nooks over Sunday were numerous.

A party of twenty-seven went out on the motor truck Sunday morning and spent the day on Row River three miles from the city.

Why pay more when you can get the best hard wheat flour at Short's Grocery for $1.40.

Mrs. Homer Ireland, who had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Flournoy, 338 Ferry Street, for a week, returned yesterday to her home in Cottage Grove.

NEW 7 ROOM BUNGALOW

Two large lots, close to school and pavement, at a bargain if taken soon. Terms if desired, A. L. Woodard, owner.

She was accompanied by Miss Leah Flournoy who will visit in Cottage Grove for a week.—Eugene Guard, July 23.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wampole and Miss Velma Marshall motored to Yoncalla Sunday.

Try our delicious pineapple cream pie today. Gregory's bakery, Sixth St., near Main.

Good Thing for Speculation

Thirty-four acres of fine land on good improved road, within one-third mile of city limits of City of Cottage Grove. Terms can be had. Call at this office.

JULY CLEARING SALE

Four More Big Bargain Days

On Saturday night we will close our most successful July Clearing Sale. You have still the opportunity to see here an array of good things, many of which you need. They are priced low, and are big values. Come at once and make your selections.

DRY GOODS

AT MONEY SAVING PRICES.

$1.50 wool goods at88c
$1.00 wool goods at69c
50c wool goods at39c
12 1/2c ginghams at8 1/2c
9-4 bleached sheeting at 24c
Embroidery, per yard3c

Bargains in Summer Underwear.

Women's union from 19c to57c
Men's unions at 45c to79c
Men's work shirts at33c
$1.50 dress shirt special.98c
$1.00 dress shirt special.79c
60c dress shirt special.43c

Extra Values in Curtain Scrims

We are placing on sale our entire stock of scrims. All dainty patterns.

35c values at23c
25c values at17c
20c values at14c
18c values at13c
12 1/2c and 15c values at9c

GROCERIES

25c package washing powder at13c
25c can peaches, pears or apricots at17c
Arm & Hammer soda, per package, at5c
25c Snyder's catsup at20c
3 boxes matches.10c
25c Del Monte preserves.14c
A good coffee at per lb.15c
25c grade coffee, per lb.19c
6 bars white laundry soap at25c
Ask for Grocery Price List for August.

Umphrey & Mackin

THE QUALITY CASH STORE - PHONE 33

A neighborhood shower was given one day of the past week for the Gregory family, whose home and household goods were destroyed by fire a short time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sears, Miss Ipha Wildersheim and Miss Mildred Pringle attended a party at Horn's Grove near Saginaw Wednesday.

The Swengel Hardware for guns and ammunition.

Albert Griffin has been in Yoncalla the past week assisting C. H. Burkholder in inventorying the stock of goods recently purchased there.

A. B. Funk of Spirit Lake, Iowa, brother of Mrs. A. B. Wood, is spending a few weeks at the A. B. Wood home.

Miss Jessie Smith, who suffered a slight attack of appendicitis, is improving slowly.

A party of nine young women are spending several days camping on Mossy Creek near the Hastings ranch. In the party are Belle Burkholder, Jessie McCord, Violet Harding, Leah Perkins, Myrtle Kern, Esther Silsby, Desie Harms, Mabel Veatch and Eva Richmond. Callers at the camp were numerous Sunday.

According to word received by Postmaster VanDenburg from the post-office department at Washington, parcel post packages may be twelve inches larger than heretofore. The length and girth of a package may now be eighty-four inches instead of seventy-two, the former limit.

Home-made bread made in a home-made way. Gregory's Bakery, formerly Parker's Bakery.

Mrs. D. H. Hemenway is recovering from a severe case of tonsillitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Seamon and daughter of Seattle, who had been visiting the past week at the Des Lazes home, left Friday for their home in Seattle, going by auto.

Rockford, the best plated ware in existence, at Madsen's.

Mrs. B. S. Swengel and mother, Mrs. J. D. Fishburn, left Tuesday for Portland, where they will take one of the big boats for San Francisco, visiting both the California expositions before returning to Cottage Grove.

F. F. Townsend, a retired farmer and stock buyer of Salem, is spending a week with the family of John Nokes. Mr. Townsend and Mr. Nokes were old pals back in Minnesota in good old days when John was a younger man than he is today. The trip was made here in the Townsend motor car.

Curran Cooley, agent for the Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville. Phone 15F4.

Armand Wynne is building an addition to the Harry Metcalf home.

Frank Woodruff and Armand Wynne returned Wednesday from doing a job of plumbing on the W. W. Jackson home at Lorne.

A Florence Blue Flame oil stove will help solve domestic troubles. If you love your wife buy her an oil stove. No dirt, no smoke, no smell. Meals always ready on time and wife always cheerful. See the Swengel Hardware for further facts.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Shinn left Thursday for a visit with Mrs. Shinn's sister at Los Angeles, Calif.

Basil Parker of Cottage Grove started to work at the Ax Billy department store yesterday.—Eugene Register.

Look at Madsen's window for beautiful wedding presents.

W. W. Brown, secretary of the Brown Lumber Company, left yesterday for Cottage Grove, where he goes to inspect the property of the company. He states that their logging camp is running but that the mill is closed for the present.—Eugene Register.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Miller in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robinson of Portland were in the city yesterday on their way home, they having spent several days recreating on the upper Siuslaw.—Eugene Register.

Painting and papering see Johnson at The Wall Paper & Paint Store.

Mr. and Mrs. George N. McLean and family returned last night from a motor and camping trip south of Cottage Grove. They camped out Saturday night in the woods near Cottage Grove.—Eugene Guard.

The W. C. T. U. will hold its regular session at the Methodist Church Friday afternoon at 2:30. Ice cream will be on sale after 4 o'clock for the afternoon and evening on the platform north of the church.

For the best pastry and bread in the city go to Gregory's bakery, Sixth Street, rear of First National Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Randolph entertained a number of friends at a picnic dinner Sunday in the woods near their home, previous to leaving for the fair. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Saarp, Mrs. Phoebe Sharp, Rupert Bean of Eugene, Herbert Adams, Miss Sybil Cellers, Miss Denie Counts, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Counts, Miss Margaret Counts, Gerald Counts, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Powell, Oval Powell, Everett Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Adams, Melvin Adams, Clifton Adams, Wallace Adams, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Johnson, Valdemar Johnson.

Roscoe Adams of Portland visited Roscoe Hemenway Saturday and Sunday.

Drink Celro Kola, "First for Thirst." 5c at your favorite fountain.

Mrs. D. H. Hemenway and Miss Nellie leave Thursday for Gearhart to be gone a month for the benefit of Mrs. Hemenway's health.

A committee from the Eugene Commercial Club visited Cottage Grove Commercial Club last night and asked that Cottage Grove pay one month's salary of a man at the San Francisco Exposition. J. F. Spray was appointed a committee to endeavor to raise the amount, $135.

Insurance enables the remaining members of a firm to buy the interest of the deceased partner without delay or detriment to the business. Talk with Harry Metcalf about the Columbia's Special Combination.

J. L. Beatty returned last week from Bly, Ore., where he had been in charge of one of the state's fish hatcheries on the Sprague river since last January. His wife and daughter, who had spent a few weeks there with him, accompanied him home. They will make their home at Delight Valley, where they formerly lived.

Mrs. G. C. Birtchett of Independence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Beatty of Delight Valley and formerly of this city, is in the Good Samaritan hospital at Portland, where she is recovering from a serious but successful operation. It is expected that she will be able to leave for her home at Independence the latter part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dillon left Tuesday night for Chicago, being called there by the serious illness of Mr. Dillon's sister. While in the East Mr. and Mrs. Dillon expect to visit at Jacksonville, Florida, and New Orleans. Mr. Dillon is employed at the S. P. depot as operator. Peter Brandon is holding Mr. Dillon's position during the latter's absence.

J. L. Beatty went to Portland last week to see his daughter, Mrs. G. C. Birtchett, who has been seriously ill at the Good Samaritan Hospital in that city.

George Hohl, who recently returned to this city from Springfield, has reopened the west side blacksmith shop, which has practically been closed since the death of Mr. Hohl's father in May. The shop will be conducted for Mrs. Hohl by her sons, George and Philip.

A nine-pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. David Miller at Lorne, July 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Nokes came up Sunday in their automobile for a short stay with Mr. Nokes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Nokes. They returned early in the evening to Monroe, taking the elder Nokes with them for a couple days' visit.

Miss Grace Harris of Portland is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker. Miss Harris is a cousin of Mrs. Parker.

Mrs. E. C. Spray, Mrs. E. B. Miner and son, Mrs. C. W. Parker, Miss Corn Lowry and Miss Grace Harris of Portland, who is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker, made up an automobile party to enjoy a picnic dinner.

The deer season opens August 15 and closes October 31. There is said to be a plentiful supply of deer in the hills close to the city and it is expected that much venison will find its way to Cottage Grove homes this fall.

Stanford Bartle of Eugene, who had been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Powell, returned to his home in that city Friday.

Ira Patten of Brooklyn, Iowa, is spending a couple weeks with the Frank McFarland and J. S. Milne families. Mrs. McFarland and the Milne family were close neighbors to the Patten family in Iowa before coming to the Cottage Grove country.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Edelstein, son Jacob and daughter Ruth of North Branch, Minn., accompanied by a brother of Mrs. E. E. Edelstein, are in the city today on their way to the fair. They are former neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Bede and Mrs. J. W. Grant.

CRESWELL ORGANIZES REAL FIRE COMPANY

A meeting was held Tuesday evening at Creswell for the purpose of organizing a volunteer fire department, at which nearly every young man in the city was present and took an active interest, many recruits volunteered their services and a permanent organization was effected.

The following officers were elected: President, Frank Thompson; captain chemical engine, S. M. Campbell; captain hose team, G. G. Stone.

The constitution and by-laws of the Cottage Grove fire department were adopted with a few changes. Friday was chosen for drill night.