

WHY

We sell the Best Paint and the Most Paint
at the Best Price

BECAUSE

We sell Sherwin-Williams Paint
We have the largest stock
We undersell mail order houses.

COTTAGE GROVE MFG. CO.

S. R. SMITH, Proprietor

TALES OF THE TOWN WHICH YOU MAY NOT HAVE HEARD

MANY MATTERS OF MORE THAN PASSING MOMENT

Any item in these columns containing a key date on the last line thereof is paid advertising. (This announcement is made in compliance with the postal regulations.)

COURTESIES ALL AROUND.

The nicest courtesy you can show your guests is to have their visits mentioned in The Sentinel. The nicest courtesy you can show your friends is to let them know of your visits through a news item in The Sentinel. The nicest courtesy you can show the editor is to bring to the office a complete write-up of any news item which you know.

Mrs. George Wilson visited Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Brooks at Eugene last week and attended the fair.

Cullen Callison had his collar bone broken and John Quiner had his head cut in a football scrimmage at the Eugene high school last Wednesday.

Stamped towels for fancywork, 15c and up at The Fair.

Miss Desie Harms was a Eugene visitor last Wednesday.

About one hundred hop pickers who have been working in the Seavey yards near Springfield have gone to Corvallis to pick hops for Jim Seavey. Some Cottage Grove people are among the number.

500 ACRE TRACT

nine miles from Cottage Grove, farm land and timber; ten million feet of timber; well watered and on good road; $20 per acre; will furnish buyer for timber at $5,000. Veatch & Spencer. ju22j112

Edna Berthel of Portland will give a reading in Masonic Hall Tuesday, Oct. 5, under the auspices of Constellation Club. The general public invited. Admission 25 cents. spt29c

"Show me how to remove the washer without breaking the stalk" was Smith Trask's request as he laid down a stalk of horseradish which had grown through a small iron washer. He found no one who could comply with his request. You can see the puzzle at The Sentinel office.

V. S. Goff, the shoe doctor, wants 456 pairs of second-hand shoes.

The Eugene papers are jubilant over the result of Dollar Day which was pulled off in that city last Wednesday. Trade was surprisingly good and most of it came from residents of other towns and from beyond localities that are naturally tributary to Eugene. Dollar Day proved to be a good investment so they say, and they will dig up more dollars by repeating the day.

Kipped SALMON

20c per lb.

KERR & SILSBY

Pastures look better since the rain. Baby sets ready for embroidery at The Fair.

L. L. Whitecomb was in from Saginaw Saturday on business.

Among those who went to Eugene Saturday to visit and attend the fair were the J. E. Redford family, Mrs. A. L. Monroe, L. B. Woodruff, Mrs. Nelson, Durham, Mrs. Ernest Bishop, Mrs. Van Allison, Mrs. Horace Cochran, Mrs. Elbert Bede, Mrs. Monroe joined her daughters on their way home from

EVERY DAY

Something New at

THE FAIR

People who were in last week if they would call today would find hundreds of new items. New lot of school supplies. Over 100 new items came in this week in art goods. New things in crochet cotton; S. C. C., the big ball crochet cotton for slippers, etc. Call and look.

there. They leave Portland today over one of the northern routes for the East, arriving at Jacksonville, Florida, in time for the shoot. They will return by the southern route, arriving at San Francisco Oct. 26, and at Cottage Grove Oct. 31.

Eat Gregory's Bread. spt7-4c

Miss Nellie Hemenway has returned from a visit in Eugene.

The Topperweins gave their exhibition of fancy rifle shooting at the old brickyard Saturday and their marksmanship was nothing if not marvelous. They represent the Winchester Arms Company.

Laundry bags, washrags, scarfs, centerpieces, pillow cases, gowns at The Fair.

W. L. Hubbell is doing cement work at Yoncalla.

G. B. Pitcher, Dr. Job, John Bartel and Lester Powers returned Tuesday from an eight day hunt in the region beyond Tiller on the South Umpqua. They report game hard to get on account of the dry conditions prevailing.

Curran Cooley, agent for the Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville. Phone 15F4. nlt1fc

Miss Amanda Scott was in from Dorana yesterday on business.

H. M. Damewood was in from Silk Creek Friday.

H. R. Rawlings was in from Mosby Creek Friday.

Vetch seed for sale at the flour mill. spt15tfc

Mrs. Taplin was in from Saginaw Saturday.

J. H. Langsten was in from Walker Saturday.

Herman Rudolph was in from Silk Creek Saturday.

Doll trunks and embroidery outfits at The Fair.

Jesse Darling was in from Lorane yesterday.

A. N. Phelps of Oakland, Calif., visited last week at the home of his nephew, Lawrence Phelps. He is on his way to Alaska, where he is interested in valuable gold mines.

R. A. McCully of Eugene was in the city yesterday on business.

Wade Bros., Eugene, Ore., will pay your railroad fare on suit purchases. sep8-22

A large financial institution desires to contract with a man capable of representing us in Lane County, and who is or can develop into a high class salesman. Only man of high moral standing need apply. Communications held strictly confidential. Address Manager, 201 Northwestern Bank Bldg., Portland, Oregon. spt2-29pd

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Allen of Lents, Ore., were in the city this week visiting N. H. Martin and family.

G. H. Tyson of Eugene was in Cottage Grove on business Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nokes returned Sunday from a visit with their son who is S. P. agent at Monroe, Ore.

Mrs. Flohr and son-in-law, Mr. McCarthy of Portland were guests at the Eugene Miller home one day last week.

B. K. Lawson is at Portland this week.

Miss Mabel Rosenberg and Mr. Albert Chamberlain were married at Aberdeen, Wash., Sept. 22. The bride is a graduate of Cottage Grove high school class of 1910 and is well and favorably known in this city.

The racks, collar bags, knife, fork and spoon cases, baby shoes, bibs, aprons, pin cushions, all stamped for embroidery at The Fair.

Bert Willard and wife are in the city from Myrtle Creek.

George Boyd attended the state fair this week.

Emerson Keithley of London was at Heppner on business this week.

Waffles for breakfast! Get your waffle irons of Wynne & Woods.

Frank Willis of Myrtle Creek is running a chair in the Allison barber shop this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Allison are visiting relatives at Roseburg this week.

Mrs. W. H. Blair of Portland is in Cottage Grove looking after business matters for a few days.

Keep track of the date on the label which appears on your paper. Pay before expiration and get two months free.

The ladies of the Baptist Church will hold a market sale at Roach's music store Saturday, Oct. 2.

Thos. M. Gardner writes from Gustine, Calif., to give his regards to 'the boys' and to say that he is not very well.

New fringe for pillows and pillow cords at The Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ritchey, newlyweds, are visiting the bride's parents at Harrisburg. They will reside in Cottage Grove.

The will of the late C. C. Coffman of Eugene was probated last week. The estate was left to his wife and at her death it goes to his sons, F. C. Coffman of Cottage Grove and J. S. Coffman.

Eight-day gong strike clocks at Madison's. $4.00 as long as they last. spt29tfc

O. O. Veatch and son Sam, accompanied by Donald Tyrrell, were at Eugene Saturday and saw the football game between the Multnomah and state university teams.

Alta King was in Eugene on legal business Thursday.

Those who send check or money order by mail to pay subscription will receive no receipt unless requested. Watch your label to see that your date is changed. sep22tfc

Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Lawson were in Eugene Thursday.

Mrs. Roy Short was a guest of Miss W. J. McGee in Eugene Thursday.

Harry Krueger and wife left for their home at Butte, Mont., Monday after a visit at the Ben Lureh home.

For a 15c picture. Anyone trading 50c worth at The Fair Saturday can get a 15c mat picture for 1c. See this picture at The Fair.

School Shoes

HERE

For Boys, Girls, Young Women, Young Men

IN A LARGE VARIETY of styles and in desirable weights and leathers. We show duly tested Shoes made by reputable manufacturers---shoes which are made of pure, prime leather and of the best workmanship. Incidentally our shoe department has established a reputation for reasonable prices.

Tested Shoes For Boys and Girls

There's nothing like an active Boy or Girl to really test out shoes. Only sound, well-made shoes will stand up for long.

TESS and TED SHOES

are tested shoes--and no other line of this kind on the market gives such durable, economical service under hard wear. Boys and Girls like "TESS and TED" SHOES because they have the right amount of snap. Parents like them because they are correctly designed to protect growing feet and they keep shoe bills smaller.

SCUFFERS AND FOOT-FORM SHOES FOR CHILDREN AND MISSES

Sizes from 2 1/2 for babies to size 5 for misses. These shoes, like opposite cut, are cut true to the natural foot shape of the growing child. "Mooney" soles are used on these shoes exclusively, being very flexible, and will outwear two pairs of ordinary soles.

Priced $1.65 to $3.00

Children's Shoes

in lace and button styles, in any leather and weight. You can find the shoe wanted for your child here.

75c to $2.25

SHOES FOR GROWING GIRLS AND YOUNG WOMEN

We show several new styles especially designed for growing girls and young women--shoes designed for girls in women's sizes. You can find them here.

$2.00 to $3.50

Boys' and Young Men's Shoes

We have a big line of styles in school shoes for boys in black, tan, high or low top, button and lace.

Priced $1.25 to $2.98

Young men's shoes in all new styles and leathers.

Priced $2.48 to $4.50

Umphrey & Mackin

THE QUALITY CASH STORE - PHONE 33

Bake Stewart, J. M. Cheatham and Frank Henderson motored across the mountains on the McKenzie trail to inspect some old mine workings at Crescent Lake which are supposed to have been made in the 50's. They found no gold.

A marriage license was issued to John Simpson of Cottage Grove and Charlotte May King Tuesday.

Ask for Gregory's Bread at your grocers. spt7-5

Chas. Cochran of the McElroy band at Portland played at the Pendleton round-up. Chas. was formerly leader of the Cottage Grove band. His family is here now on a visit and they expect to make their home at Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Lewis had charge of the Cottage Grove exhibit at the county fair last week.

No trespassing will be allowed under any circumstances on my land. Mrs. A. J. Gowdy. spt29-oct2pd

Q. M. Parker has been at Dexter this week on business.

Mrs. Chas. Adams returned Friday from an extended visit in California.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Elledge returned last week from Lorane, where Mr. Elledge was employed on road work during the summer. Mrs. Elledge will remain in the city but Mr. Elledge has returned to look after work on the three miles of rock on the Cottage Grove-Lorane road. He expects that a large part of it will be completed this year.

Look! Here's your chance. A 25-acre ranch two miles from town, improved. Will take town property for part terms on balance. W. B. Finney. spt29pd

John Nokes went to Monroe Friday to join Mrs. Nokes, who had been visiting a week at the home of her son, Clyde Nokes.

Mrs. E. C. Shay has nearly recovered from her recent severe illness.

Miss Marguerite O'Mara left Friday to resume her work as teacher at Canyonville.

35c initial box paper and envelopes, only 29c at The Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Allen have been up from Lents during the past week visiting relatives and friends.

A prune house owned by S. P. Shortridge and located nine miles south of Cottage Grove was burned about 10 o'clock last Wednesday night. The house was valued at $50 and contained about $40 worth of Italian prunes.

Miller's Machine Shop for plow and disc grinding. spt29tfc

The rain for which people had been wishing for some time arrived late Thursday afternoon last week. It was needed very much for several reasons and will please everyone but hop growers.

The peach crop is about all in. Telephone pads at The Sentinel office, 5 cents each.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Veatch visited their daughter, Mrs. W. V. McGee, at Eugene last week.

Marriage licenses were issued last Thursday to Harvey M. Ritchie and Elsie Harget, both of Cottage Grove.

J. S. Benson was at his ranch on Wolf Creek last week looking after matters of business there and hunting big game.

Get your wedding stationery from The Sentinel and live happily ever afterwards.

A. H. Cruson was at Eugene Thursday on business connected with the Lane County I. O. O. F. picnic for next year, which it was arranged to hold in Cottage Grove.

Farm in Lorane Valley for rent. E. C. Lockwood. spt29pd

Mrs. Clara Burkholder and family, Mrs. Lydia Stouffer and Miss Margaret Anderson motored to Eugene Saturday to attend the county fair.

Jess Griffin of Eugene, formerly of this city, was awarded a number of premiums at the county fair.

The Cox family which appeared Saturday at The Rex proved such a drawing card that Manager Beals kept them for an entire week with change of program every night.

Mrs. Ira Beidler has been called to Eastern Oregon by sickness.

D. Wilson, manager of the Sunnybrook farm in Yamhill County, arrived last night for a visit with his family. He is looking for a location.

M. A. Magee arrived yesterday from Carlton for a visit at the home of his son-in-law, M. E. Stone.

Mrs. W. H. Tyrrell and daughter Helen are in Eugene today.

The A. B. Wood and Lon Hill families left in their cars today to attend the state fair at Salem.

Mrs. Ida Veatch is visiting in Salem today.

Mrs. C. E. Jones attended the conference at Roseburg last week and incidentally visited her daughter, Mrs. Roy Bellows.

Short's Specials

This Week Only

10 sack lots Albany flour at.....$1.20
10 sack lots Dalles Hard wheat...$1.30
Sugar, per 100 lbs., $6.00 and.....$6.20
50 lb. sack brown or white beans...$3.00
8 bars brown soap.....25c
25c package of Pyramid washing powder.....10c
Feeds of all kinds have declined.
28c per dozen paid for eggs.

Short's Grocery

The Thos. Wheeler and H. A. Miller families motored to Lowell and Springfield Sunday.

Mrs. J. H. Chambers attended the conference at Roseburg last week.

Legal blanks--The Sentinel.

Just Received

An extensive and beautiful line of place cards, birth and wedding announcements and shower invitations.

Zeller's

Book & Stationery Store

523 Main Street

Old Meisan Shop