The Order Is, Reduce the Stock, Convert Merchandise

We had this sale under consideration for some time, before we decided fully, when we would give our customers a chance to buy merchandise at greatly reduced prices when they need them. Most kind, when all their regular customers have already supplied their immediate wants, but we are going to give them their winter's supplies at a big sacrifice. This will be a sale that should appeal to all. This sale is not just for one day but will continue until October 30.
