Inexpensive Christmas Remembrances

EVERYONE has a few friends whom he or she would like to remember on Christmas, but the pocket book is not large enough to send each an expensive present. The Christmas spirit is not shown in the price of the gift. It is the spirit of the giving that carries the cheer. The Sentinel can solve the problem of cost for you without sacrificing the spirit. This is it: Send dainty Christmas cards, arranged with your own wording, with your own name printed thereon. It will cost you nothing to look at the pretty samples and inquire prices. We must have three weeks' time for getting out these orders and it is but five weeks to Christmas.

Mr. Merchant:—Advertising brings results only in proportion to the care and attention you give to the goods you advertise and to the preparation of the advertising copy. If you put it off to the last minute, and then write up any old thing without any forethought, you will not derive any results or benefits from your advertising. It will be your fault, don't blame the paper. The people whose trade you are soliciting are intelligent, posted readers and are quick to detect anything that is not what it should be. Maybe you can console yourself for your carelessness and indifference, but the black and white evidence of the advertisement will be carefully scrutinized by thousands of readers.

Walker Couple Celebrates Golden Wedding

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Horn was celebrated at their home near Walker Nov. 16, 1915. Wm. Horn was born in Culross, Perth Shire, Scotland, May 1842. Catharine Condie was born in Blaringone, Scotland, May 3, 1842. They were married in Blaringone November 16, 1865. They left Scotland April 16, 1871, locating near Chicago, Ill. Later they moved to Russell, Kans. In 1892 they came to Oregon, locating near Walker, where they have since resided. To this union six children have been born, three girls and three boys, all of whom are living except one daughter, Catharine. Mrs. Mary Mackie and Alexander Horne were born in Blaringone, Scotland. Mrs. Margaret M. Porter, Malcolm A. Horn and Mrs. Catharine Wright were born in Crook County, Ill. There are thirteen grandchildren. All the children, except Alexander of Portland, reside near Walker and were at the reunion. At one o'clock a bountiful dinner was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Horn, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mackie and daughter Mabel, Mr. and Mrs. Plank, Mr. and Mrs. R. Y. Porter and son Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Horn and daughter Frances, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Horn, Violet, Lloyd and Muriel, Mr. J. C. Wright, Mabel and Wilbur Alexander Horn.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Swengel entertained at "500" Friday evening. Mrs. A. L. Monroe and Mrs. Van Allison were tied for the lady's head honor, Mrs. Monroe winning out on the cut and receiving a silver meat fork. J. S. Medley received a leather cigar case for having the highest score among the men. Mrs. C. H. VanDenburg and D. H. Hemenway received foot honors and each received a pin tray. A dainty three-course luncheon was served. The invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Van Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Leon DesLarzes, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Heine, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Medley, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. VanDenburg, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Powell, Mrs. J. P. Graham, Mrs. Clara Burkholder, Miss Eunice VanDenburg.

The Constellation Club was royally entertained at the Oregon Hotel Thursday afternoon by Mrs. J. H. Boldon. Fancy work and a gum chewing contest took up the afternoon. Mrs. Zeller won the honors for making the best animal out of her gum. The day was Mrs. Lydia Stouffer's birthday anniversary, which, on account of her being a charter member, is always observed by the chapter. She and Mrs. Boldon held the honored places at the table, which was prettily decorated with ferns and smilax with a huge bouquet of violets in the center. There were 23 guests. A delicious four course dinner was served, consisting of apple salad, wafers, chicken pie, cranberry jelly and hot rolls, hot mince pie and ice cream and coffee. Mrs. Stouffer was pleasantly surprised with a large birthday cake decorated with a star and candles, the gift of the worthy matron, Mrs. Andrew Brund. The Star presented Mrs. Stouffer with a souvenir spoon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Scott entertained a few friends with a duck supper last night.

Mrs. A. L. Monroe and Mrs. E. C. Bisby have issued invitations for an "at home" Saturday, November 27, at 722 South Sixth St.

The Masonic and Eastern Star Lodges will give a joint banquet this evening at Masonic Hall for members and their families.

The Baptist Publication Society's chapel car, "Good Will," W. C. Driver and wife in charge, arrived yesterday. This is a splendid well-equipped church on wheels and there will be services every afternoon and evening. All are invited to attend the services.

RUTH IS HOME AGAIN
"What makes this butter crumble so?" inquired Ruth's sister, as she was trying to cut butter that had been upon ice a long time.
"Very cold butter is likely to do that unless you know how to cut it properly," answered Ruth. "So you might just as well learn how to cut it properly right now. Let me show you."
And taking a piece of waxed paper in which the butter had been wrapped she put it over the sharp edge of the knife and cut into the butter. The butter did not crumble, break to pieces or stick to the knife, but separated in nice, smooth layers, as good butter should.
"Ruth," ejaculated her sister, "I don't like to be continually praising you, but I must say that you are the eighth wonder of the modern age."

TRAFFIC CHIEF FEE SAYS BUSINESS IMPROVES

Returns From Trip Through Eastern and Southern States in Optimistic Frame of Mind.

Business conditions throughout the country are improving, according to Passenger Traffic Manager Chas. S. Fee of the Southern Pacific Co., who returned to San Francisco November 12, after an extended trip throughout the East and Middle West. Mr. Fee said: "I have visited many of the principal cities in thirty-two states since I left California September 19. Conditions in the South appear to be steadily improving. Cotton prices are gradually growing better but the most hopeful sign is the evidence that the one crop plan will soon be thrown into the discard. The severe lesson of the past year or two has not been in vain as evidenced in many sections of the South. Cotton may remain king for years to come but his subjects will be far more cosmopolitan than ever known before south of the Mason and Dixon line, all of which will spell a steadier and more rapidly growing prosperity."

Business conditions in the central and eastern states are certainly far better than when I was in the East last May. At that time there did not seem to be a silver lining to any of the clouds that shut out the view in all directions. "The great bulk of the exposition trade has come and gone but with it our visitors have taken back a knowledge of the great West, California and the Pacific Coast States that will prove an active and potent factor in the growth and development of all this region, the good effects of which will last for many years to come. Exposition visitors practically everywhere I found had returned enthusiastic over the California Expositions and even as early as the coming winter we will see the results in an increased travel which will not only include leisure class seeking sunshine and flowers in the winter, but the homeseeker and homebuilder for whom we have almost unlimited room and boundless need."

MURDERER AND MURDERED MAY HAVE LIVED IN LANE COUNTY

Trail Has Several Times Led to Former Residents of Eugene and Vicinity.

In searching for information concerning the principals in the trunk mystery led to Lane County and at one time it was thought positively that the murderer was a man named Bartholomew, who was formerly in the restaurant business at Eugene. It was for a time thought that the murdered man was Harry Rogers, a former resident of Eugene and vicinity. It is now fairly certain that the Eugene Bartholomew was not the murderer but it may yet turn out that the murdered man was the former Eugene resident. Neither one of the former residents of Eugene, whose names have been linked with the murder, have been located.

VALLEY PRESS KIND, SAYS OREGON VOTER

Oregon Voter: Portland owes a debt of gratitude to the Willamette Valley newspapers and commercial organizations in that they very graciously do not blame the City of Portland nor the Portland Chamber of Commerce for the attitude of The Evening Telegram in the rate fight.

Probably they realize that the Chamber of Commerce does not control The Telegram, or any other newspaper, and is not responsible for its editorial policy.

It is not the function of the Chamber to interfere in a legal contest between two private interests; neither should it be represented as having taken the side of the private interests in its own home city as against private interests in smaller communities in its tributary territory. The Telegram is waging its own rate fight for its own private purposes, and is within its rights in so doing, provided that it does not convey the impression that the City of Portland or its Chamber of Commerce are in sympathy with its views.
