The literary meeting at the school house Saturday night was well attended. An interesting program was rendered. Prof. Hutchison of Mountain View High School gave an interesting talk, "The Birds, the Farmers' Friends." Those visiting from outside the district were Sherill Singel, Clinton and Huston Medley, Leslie Godard and Pearl and Ruby Ashby from Silk Creek, Lawson Slagle from Cottage Grove and Miss Mayben from Coast Fork.

SAGINAW

(Special to The Sentinel.)
Nov. 30.—The first meeting of the Good Neighbors Club was held at the home of Mrs. Vaughn Friday afternoon. In spite of the bad weather nine were present and enjoyed an afternoon of interchange of ideas, needle work and getting acquainted. Light refreshments were served and at parting it was decided that the next meeting should be held at Mrs. McKinney's. Those present were Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Taplin, Mrs. Moody, Mrs. Conley, Mrs. McKinney, Mrs. Vaughn, Miss Marjorie Vaughn, Miss Cora Taplin and Miss Nellie Conley.

L. L. Whitecomb is suffering with dropsy and is very miserable in health. Mrs. Taplin had a severe heart-attack Wednesday but is much better.

Fred Witcher has recently killed two bears. He chased the old bear and the two cubs into a thicket and the two cubs climbed a tree and got in range so he was able to shoot them. As they fell near the old bear he thought it best to get some dogs to retrieve his game with the result that he got the old bear but one of the cubs had got away. Bear tracks are becoming quite common here.

A large track was found on the road above Mr. Sharon's home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clock of Eugene and another family whose names were not learned, but who are relatives of Mrs. Wilkinson, came up Thursday to spend Thanksgiving. They found too much water between the depot and their destinations and took refuge on this "the high side." The water went down in the night, however and they went on their way the next day. Mrs. Clock was formerly Miss Etta Myers.
