DRAIN EDITOR PROMISES TO MAKE FUR FLY

Libel Suit Will Result From Attempt to Keep Him From Getting Postmastership.

L. M. Beebe, former editor of the North Douglas Herald, the plant of which was destroyed by fire some time ago, and who has received the nomination for postmaster of his town, was in the city yesterday securing legal assistance for a case he is going to start against residents of Drain for circulating a petition containing his name and which he claims was circulated for a malicious purpose and is extremely defamatory.

The petition is in the form of a remonstrance gotten out by citizens of Drain when it was learned that the editor had received the nomination for the postmastership. The circulator of the petition has been placed under arrest. It is understood that some of the signers of the petition are well to do. Mr. Beebe is a keen newspaper man, has taken a prominent part in the affairs of his town and the work done by his paper in the recent campaign resulted in his nomination. He enjoys a scrap when he thinks he is right and he expects to make some fur fly before he gets done.

Snow Makes Image of Battleship.

Saginaw, Ore., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Sentinel.)—On a steep hillside east of here, when the snow was on, appeared a complete representation of a battleship, formed by the snow against a background of forest and resting on the floor of the valley. It appeared as if at anchor in quiet waters. It made an impressive picture and sketches have been made to preserve it.

Who Would Like to Learn to Operate Typesetting Machine ?

The Sentinel is desirous of learning if there are any in the Cottage Grove country who are desirous of learning to operate a typesetting machine. The profession, when learned, is one of the most remunerative of those not included in the learned professions. Salaries for operators in the cities run from $21 a week up to as high as $40 a week. Usually there are many who would like to learn such a profession. This is one that is not likely to become overcrowded. An ability to spell and a natural inclination towards handling machinery is desirable. If there are a sufficient number to make it worth while The Sentinel may arrange a school of instruction.
