YOUNG CORN GROWERS PUT STATE ON MAP

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 24, 1916.—If the boy corn growers of Oregon continue the progress they have made in the last year this state will soon be in the front rank as a producer of juvenile agriculturists," according to Prof. R. A. Moore of the University of Wisconsin, who today finished judging the boys' exhibits at the First National Corn Show held in the mammoth Hill Railroad building, this city. Trophy cup awarded valued at $5000 were given by the First National Bank and the Northwestern Trust Company. An exceptionally fine quality of corn was raised by the boys of Montana, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, the Dakotas, Wisconsin and Minnesota for exhibition in this show. These "future greets" in this corn raising field are rapidly putting the northwestern states on the map as a new and wonderful corn belt.

Why, the corn laid down here for me to judge has proved the most surprising in quality that I have examined in the long years of my association with grain," said Prof. Moore. Considering the United States as a corn judge, this statement by him spells the highest tribute that could be paid to boyhood effort in this country.

There were no sweepstakes in the show, the competition of the boy corn growers of the seven states being confined to the boys in the districts of their state. Following are the prize winners in Oregon:

TAKE THIS MAN'S ADVICE TRY THE GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY

It always gives me pleasure to recommend anything that is right and so I feel it my duty to herald the praises of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

For years I was troubled with kidney disease and it was so intense that I was bedridden for days at a time. I gave up all hope and doctors for miles around gave me no help. Incidentally I tried several latent remedies and at last tried Swamp-Root. From that first it gave me relief and it was no time before I was able to be up and around and now I am perfectly well and able to work as I used to before my terrible sickness.

So now let me thank you for your wonderful discovery and take this opportunity to recommend it to all who suffer from kidney troubles.

Yours very truly,
WALTER SHIVER,
317 N. Main St., Hope, Ark.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 25th day of March, 1912.
