Emerson Wilcox and Miss Blanche Lizar were quietly married Saturday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Louisa Lizar, Rev. H. N. Aldrich officiating.

Friday evening the members of the Baptist church and other friends, led by Pastor VanGorkum, surprised Rev. E. G. O. Groat at his residence, 1444 Madison avenue, it being the eighty-second anniversary of his birthday. Social converse, reading, recitations, speeches, singing and prayer made the hours pass pleasantly. A nice lunch was served.

The working girls of the city gave a leap year party Monday night in Moose hall. The girls carried out the leap year idea by going after the boys and escorting them to the hall. Cards and dancing were indulged in. Refreshments of salad, "dosh" cake, coffee and sandwiches were served. About forty were present and the boys are loud in their contention that the affair was the most successful of the season. Aldrich officiating.

The Social Twelve club meets tomorrow with Mrs. H. H. Veatch. The Constellation club met Thursday in Masonic hall. Mrs. Van Allison, Mrs. Joe Porter and Mrs. Harry Wynne were the hostesses.

The Emanon club meets this afternoon with Mrs. Bert Richmond. Mrs. Leon DesLarzes' class met Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wood. A part of the evening was spent in listening to a carefully chosen program of Victrola music, representing the work of famous vocalists.

FADS AND FANCIES.

If cold water is added to syrup made by pouring water over granulated sugar and then boiling hard for one minute, you will find it will keep indefinitely without crystallizing. To four cups of sugar use two scant cups of boiling water. Let this boil hard for one minute, then remove from the fire, and add one-half cup of cold water.

A simple way to make gravies, corn-starch puddings or custards that will not be lumpy is to remove the milk, sugar and other ingredients, supposing it is cornstarch pudding one is making, from the stove long enough to stop the boiling. Dip a few spoonfuls of the hot milk into the bowl in which there are the well beaten eggs, stirring as each spoonful is added. This heats them gradually, not allowing them to cook before they are thoroughly mixed with the milk. Then they may be added to the larger quantity on the stove and the pudding placed over the fire to finish cooking.

Cheese should never be kept in the ice chest as its strong odor permeates the other articles of food. Keep it in a closed dish on the sideboard, wrapped in a damp napkin; otherwise it becomes dry and oily.

Sassafras oil sprinkled on the shelves and in the corner of closets and pantries will keep them free from ants, moths and other insects.

A little crushed borax, if sprinkled thickly on a flannel cloth that is wet with hot water and well soaped, will brighten copperware.

A pretty cushion is made of white linen, with a large butterfly worked in coronation braid in the center. The edge should have a plain two-inch hem. Dots on the butterfly's wings may be worked in tiny eyelets. India cotton in the blue and white patterns is excellent for hard usage. They wash well and do not fade. When making up an embroidered pillow place a thick sheet of cotton wadding under the cover. Both the appearance and the feel of the cushion are improved.

To remove the rusty appearance from black suede shoes, rub with equal quantity of olive oil and black ink.

A King and a Queen Are For Sale

HANDIWORK THAT IS ALSO HEART WORK.

THESE dolls, medallioned with portraits of Belgium's king and queen, are interesting samples of the thirty different kinds of rare "war laces" that the commission for relief in Belgium, 71 Broadway, New York, is placing on sale for the benefit of the small army of idle lace-makers that the war made. It is said that very old women—so old that eye-sight fails and hands are palsied—make these medallions with the greatest devotion. Along with priceless bridal veils and bedspreads, tagged with four figures, point appliques not under thousands of dollars, these dolls are priced $4 for the queen, while King Albert costs a franc more. The official seal attached to every one of the thousands of pieces of lace means that each unit is numbered. This insures each worker her share of the sale. It is hoped that prominent women's clubs will be interested to take charge of local exhibits.

THE BLASE GIRL.

The most valuable asset a girl may possess is a sweet, natural and unaffected manner. With it a homely girl can change herself into a most bewitching person and an attractive girl can make herself positively irresistible. But how comparatively few of these bewitching and irresistible beings are to be discovered at the present moment. The young maidens seem to have gone mad. Their smiles, their walk and their gestures are affected. We are asked to admire a race of haughty beauties today. The attitude of the fashionable belle is splendid insolence. But it is not a pretty whim or a lovable one. The trouble with modern manners is that they leave indelible marks behind them in many cases. For no other reason than this it is a good plan not to contract them at all. Don't delude yourself with the belief that an absurd and ludicrous grimace, spasmodic smile and ultra mannish clothes will bring you admiration. Look around in your own circle. Are not the really popular girls those with simple manners?

Old Fashioned Chicken Pie.

Cover chicken, cut in pieces for serving, with boiling water; add two sprigs of thyme, one of marjoram, bit of bay leaf, two sprigs parsley, tied in a bag; simmer gently until tender; half an hour before chicken is done add half a pound bacon cut in small pieces. Arrange on the bottom of baking dish slices of hard cooked eggs, cover with sautéed mushrooms, then a layer of chicken meat and continue until dish is filled. Add three cupfuls of sauce made from the liquor in the pan and thickened with two tablespoonfuls butter and four tablespoonfuls flour cooked together; reheat in oven and garnish with pastry points cut in the shape of triangle, and parsley, and serve.

A Quilting Bee

The custom of giving "showers" probably has developed from the old time one of giving "bees" and sewings and quiltings for the hope chests of brides to be. Speaking of the latter, one was given recently that was a complete success. The hostess' family had owned in their time a great deal of land, which has descended, together with many interesting old relics, to the present family. Among the relics was a pair of old quilting frames, which gave the hostess her idea. She asked her family to arrange a quilting "bee," ostensibly as a surprise for her. (She was engaged to be married.) Among the guests invited were two chums, both also engaged to be married.

When all had arrived the hostess, who up to that time had been shopping, came home and pretended to be overwhelmed with surprise at sight of the merry crowd. Then every one set to work around two pieces of pretty cretonne with linings of sateen to match.

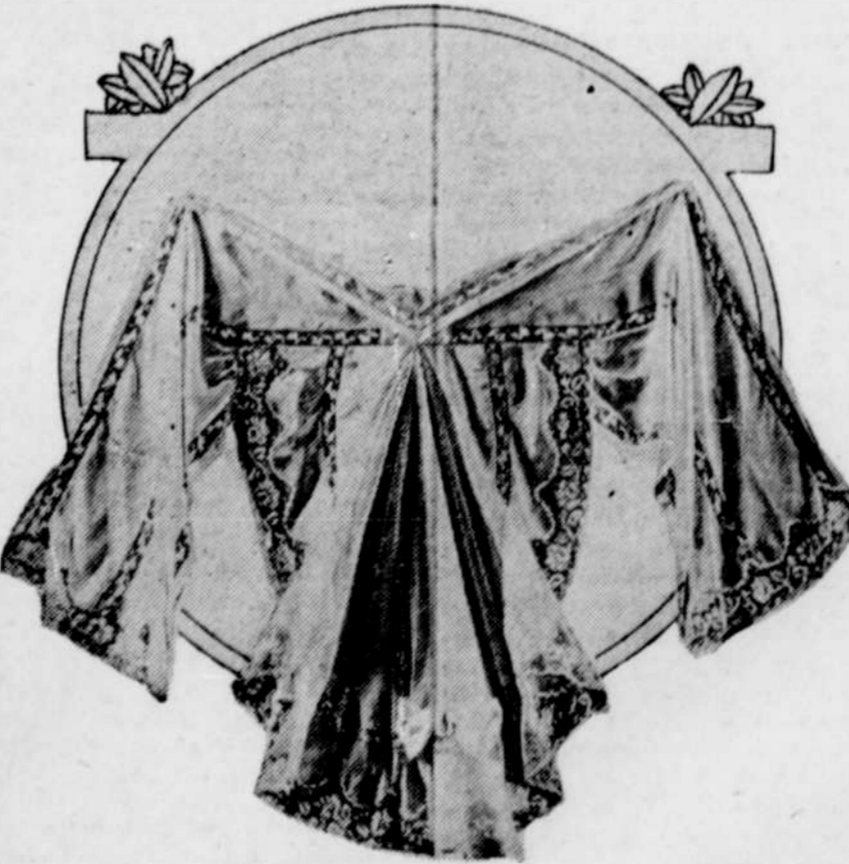

The hostess' mother showed the guests how to thread their big needles with the blue and yellow wool yarn, how to draw the yarn through the comforters and the a pretty bowknot.

When the quilts had been removed from their frames, their edges stitched together by the obliging mother and the guests were sitting around the beautiful old mahogany table in the old room, lighted only by the flickering candles, eating cakes and ice cream the hostess arose to her feet and announced that inasmuch as her two chums had worked the hardest of all that afternoon she thought that the quilts should be given to them.

Mattress Case.

Make a covering, as you would for a pillowcase, out of heavy unbleached sheeting, to fit mattress. Slip the mattress in and close the end by sewing on buttons and buttonholes. This covering can be removed spring and fall, washed and starched stiff to prevent dust from sifting through.

A Delectable Dressing Gown For a Christmas Gift

FOR INTIMATE OFF HOURS.

FLESH colored chiffon cloth, val lace and insertion and much patience go into the modeling of this dainty sack, which has a capelike back and many insertions of lace as to front. Dressy as need be, it is loose enough for comfort, hanging in folds from the shoulder and fastening with satin tabs down the front. It may be developed in crepe de chine or any shade becoming to the girl fortunate enough to get it.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last treatment was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

That nervousness, fretting and restlessness is no doubt caused by worms or constipation. Instead of whipping or scolding, give your child a treatment of Kieckapoo Worm Killer. Nice candy confections that kill the worms and are laxative enough to move the bowels and expel not only the worms but accumulated poisons. These poisons and worms bring on fever, make children nervous and irritable, reduce their vitality and make them victims of sickness.
